

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1627

“It’s so big!”

When Tang Hao approached the ruins of the stars and saw the ruins in front of him, he could not help but be shocked.

The ruins were simply too large, so large that it was unbelievable!

It was vast and boundless.

It was said that the Taishang planet was an existence second only to the sacred planet. In terms of size, it was only a little smaller than a sacred planet like planet Dong Lin. Compared to earth and Qiyuan, it was many times bigger.

After such a huge star was shattered, the fragments spread out and covered an even larger area.

The fragments were of different sizes. The small ones were the size of a small island, while the big ones were the size of half a continent. They were all floating in the starry sky.

“What kind of power is it that can shatter a star?”

Tang Hao couldn’t help but sigh as he looked at the ruins of Star City.

After sighing for a while, he leaped and left.

He saw many lights in all directions, and he also rushed over and rushed into the Star ruins.

The periphery of the star ruins was relatively safe. Most people would move around the periphery and search for treasures.

The star ruins was simply too big, with billions of fragments. After so many years, there were still treasures left.

Tang Hao flew over and landed on one of the broken pieces. He looked around.

There were a few mountain ranges on this fragment, and there were palaces on top of them. However, they had long been in ruins. The surroundings were deathly silent, and it looked somewhat desolate. The things inside had already been rummaged through, and nothing was left.

He explored a few fragments in succession, and all of them were the same. Tang Hao continued deeper into the Star ruins.

The deeper he went, the more dangerous it became. There were restrictions, arrays, and all kinds of poisonous gas left by the Taishang sect. There were even cracks in the starry sky everywhere. It was deep and dark inside, leading to unknown places.

It would be dangerous if he fell into the crack.

Fortunately, Tang Hao's cultivation level was high. The restrictive spell was not a threat to him at all. He could break a piece of it with a flick of his sleeve. If that did not work, he could simply take out the seal of the Dragon Emperor and smash it forward. Everything would be settled.

The seal of the Dragon King was a treasure of the true dragon. It was as powerful as the heaven battling divine spear and much more convenient to use.

Tang Hao used the Imperial seal to smash his way forward.

If there was someone else here, their eyes would probably pop out of their sockets.

They had all entered with great caution, as if they were walking on thin ice, but this guy was good, barging in all the way and crushing everything in his way.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

When the seal was thrown, it would sometimes hit shards, making a loud bang. In the quiet star ruins, it seemed very noisy.

"The fruit of fortune ... Where is it?"

As Tang Hao advanced, he released his divine will to scan the surroundings, sweeping over the fragments.

His actions had also attracted the attention of some creatures living in the star ruins.

Somewhere in the star ruins, there was a huge star floating.

Suddenly, the star trembled and began to move. It was not a star, but a round, star-like behemoth.

The giant beast listened carefully for a while, then turned to look at Tang Hao.

It let out a sharp cry like a baby, with a bit of anger.

It was sleeping soundly, but it was awakened by the noise.

The sound was getting louder and louder.

It was furious, and with another sharp hiss, it flew in that direction angrily. Bang Bang Bang! Its body was too huge, and it crashed into countless fragments as it flew.

On the other side, Tang Hao was smashing his way forward.

After a while, he realized something was wrong. When he scanned the surroundings with his spirit sense, he found a huge fragment approaching from the distance.

"F * ck! It can still move?"

He was a little surprised. On the way here, those fragments had been motionless, so how could this one move?

Looking at the trajectory, it seemed to be rushing toward him.

“Strange!”

He looked carefully and was dumbstruck when he saw it clearly.

That wasn't a fragment. It was clearly a giant beast, a star-devouring beast, the most terrifying creature in the starry sky.

“F * ck!”

Tang Hao's expression changed and he cursed.

He had never expected that there would be such a huge star Devourer beast in the star ruins.

He had seen this star Devourer beast a long time ago. When he had come out of Qiyuan and was about to reach the nine gates star field, he had met one. After that, when he traveled through the starry sky, he had seen it a few times from afar. However, those few beasts paled in comparison to the one in front of him.

Those few were at most small, but this one was super large.

Tang Hao gulped as he looked at the enraged behemoth that was charging toward him.

This aura was too terrifying!

Creatures like the star devouring beast were quite terrifying. Even ordinary saints would have a headache if they encountered a small star devouring beast, let alone a super large one.

“Forget it, I'll just run!”

Tang Hao did not want to fight this monster. It would be a waste of energy. The creature was too big and its skin was too hard. It was covered in a shell. He might not even be able to hurt it even if he fought it to death. It was not worth it.

As soon as Tang Hao Ran away, the star Devourer beast immediately changed direction and caught up with him. It was getting faster and faster.

“F * ck! Didn't they say that this thing is very slow?”

Tang Hao was shocked when he turned around to look.

The star Devourer beast behind them was very fast. It crushed pieces of debris along the way and chased after them aggressively.

Suddenly, there was a whooshing sound. A beam of light shot toward Tang Hao.

Then, with a “Swoosh Swoosh Swoosh” sound, black rays of light shot out, densely packed together.

Tang Hao was shocked.

The power of the black light was a little terrifying. It was equivalent to a saint’s attack. If he was hit, it would be enough to make him suffer.

“This is a F * cking antique among the star devouring beasts!”

“F * ck!” Tang Hao cursed. He was so unlucky to have provoked such a monster.

Bang!

There was a loud bang.

Tang Hao couldn’t avoid it in time and took the hit. Although the pure yang treasure robe blocked it, it still put him in a difficult position.

“Mother! You think I’m easy to bully?”

Tang Hao was furious. He activated the seal of the Dragon Emperor and threw it at the man.

Under his control, the seal of the Dragon Emperor expanded crazily, and a Dragon Shadow rushed out of it, letting out a deafening roar.

BOOM!

The seal landed on the body of the star-devouring beast, but it only shook slightly and continued to rush forward as if nothing had happened.

A crack suddenly appeared in its middle. Tang Hao was stunned for a moment before he realized that it was its mouth. It was said to be able to swallow a star in one gulp.

A terrifying aura condensed in that mouth, causing Tang Hao’s hair to stand on end. He felt an intense sense of danger.

“Not good!”

Tang Hao put away the seal of the Dragon Emperor and fled like a madman.

Behind him, the star-devouring beast shot out a huge beam of black light. The terrifying power swept across everything. As long as one was hit, they would be annihilated without leaving even a residue.

The fragments along the way all evaporated, and the starry sky was emptied.
