

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1628

Gulu!

Tang Hao swallowed hard. His face was pale.

The power of this attack was too terrifying!

If he had been hit just now, even with his defensive abilities, he would have been crippled if not dead.

“My good boy!”

Tang Hao turned around stiffly and looked at the beast again. He felt a chill run down his spine.

This star Devourer was definitely not something he could fight against at the moment.

“If I can’t win, I’ll just run!”

Tang Hao stood up and started running like a madman. Tang Hao was the best at running. He used to run a lot, but now that he had become stronger, he rarely ran like this.

Behind him, the star-devouring beast was getting angrier and angrier. It kept screeching and chasing after him.

“Big brother, brother, can you stop chasing me?”

Tang Hao turned around as he ran. “I’m not a female,” he yelled at the star Devourer. “Why are you chasing me?”

They chased each other for a long time. Even Tang Hao was impressed by the beast’s stubbornness.

Tang Hao would stop from time to time, smash the seal on the ground, and then continue running.

There were several times when he was almost hit directly by the terrifying light beam. Even if he was only affected by it, it still caused him to be injured and he was in a rather sorry state.

“Damn it, this is bad luck!”

Tang Hao was depressed.

If it wasn’t for the four tribulations treasured clothing on his body, he would have lost half of his life.

After chasing for half a day, the star Devourer beast seemed to be tired. It slowed down and finally stopped and retreated.

“Hu!”

Tang Hao heaved a sigh of relief. He felt as if he had just escaped.

After catching his breath, he continued to run forward, trying to stay as far away from this terrifying giant beast as possible.

At this time, a loud rumbling sound came from a fragment in front of him. A huge ship was floating above the fragment, and a group of people were searching around the mountain range, bombarding the remaining arrays.

“Look! It was a tribulation weapon! I’m rich this time!”

“Hahaha! Just this tribulation tool alone is enough to make our trip worth it!”

Someone dug out a tribulation tool from the ruins, immediately drawing a round of cheers.

Soon, someone on the huge ship noticed the light that was approaching from afar and shouted, “someone’s coming!”

A group of people immediately rushed up from below. The leader was a young master in a green robe. He was tall and handsome. There was a touch of arrogance and insolence between his handsome brows. His skin was shining with a bright immortal radiance.

This was a Lord of heaven in the middle stage of the immortal transformation realm. Moreover, he was a young heaven’s favorite.

He was wearing a Green Dragon robe, a Green Dragon Crown on his head, a belt around his waist, and precious Jade. All of them were tribulation weapons, and the bright light of the treasures made him look graceful and extraordinary.

“Young master!”

When the people on the ship saw him, they all bowed and greeted him in unison.

The green-robed young man landed at the bow of the boat and asked, “Who is it?”

“It’s not clear yet!”

The man replied.

The green-robed young master raised his head, squinted his eyes, and looked into the distance.

He was too far away to see clearly.

“Everyone, be on alert!” He shouted.

The group of people behind him immediately gathered their momentum and got ready to fight. They were all in green robes and had the cultivation base of immortal heavenly Lords.

At first, they were a little nervous, afraid that the other party was some master and had come to Rob them. But when they got closer, they saw that the guy seemed to be running for his life, and he looked quite embarrassed, so they heaved a sigh of relief.

“Hahaha! He’s just running for his life!”

“He’s being hunted down! Look, it’s quite miserable!”

The group of people roared with laughter, and the atmosphere immediately became much more relaxed.

However, they didn’t let down their guard, afraid that there was a trap.

Tang Hao soon arrived at the warship. He stopped and studied it.

“Grand-uncle?”

There were a few flags on the ship. One had the Green Dragon totem on it, and the other had the Tai-Shu flag and tai-Shu flag.

“It’s the Tai-Shu family!”

Tang Hao remembered.

On the central sacred planet, the five great divine dynasties were the most powerful. In every divine dynasty, the most powerful was naturally the royal family, such as the great Chu royal family, the great Qi royal family, and so on. Marquis Wutian was a member of the great Qi royal family.

However, below the royal family, every dynasty had many large families. Many of them had a rather deep foundation, and some were not inferior to the royal family.

The Tai-Shu family was one of the major families of the great Qin divine dynasty.

While he was studying the group of people, they were also studying Tang Hao. They furrowed their brows from time to time because they could not tell his cultivation level. However, when they saw the robe, their eyes lit up.

Although they could not tell the exact grade of this treasure garment, they could tell that it was definitely a good treasure.

“It’s a good treasure!”

“Young master, do you want to kill him?”

They secretly transmitted their voices and began to discuss.

The eldest young master looked at Tang Hao. He was a little envious. With his eyesight, he could naturally tell that the treasured clothing was extraordinary.

He was moved, but he was also a little hesitant, because he still didn't know this person's strength or even his identity, so he absolutely couldn't act rashly.

Tang Hao glanced at them and was about to leave. He was not interested in these people. However, at this moment, a few figures flew up from the mountain range near the warship. One of them caused Tang Hao to be startled.

This was an old friend!

"It's him? What is he doing here?" Tang Hao was confused.

But then, when he saw the flag, he suddenly understood.

"Tai-Shu! So that's how it is!"

Wasn't this man the flame immortal, tai-Shu Li?

He had once rebuked Qi Yuan and was one of the top three thousand-year-old monsters besides the first and second continents. He had also interacted with this person a few times. His method of refining true fire had been obtained from this person.

This flame immortal had hidden his strength deeply. He had already reached the half-step Dao severance realm a long time ago, and probably left Qiyuan a long time ago. He didn't expect to meet him here today.

Tang Hao sighed.

In this vast starry sky, millions of stars, to be able to meet a fellow villager from Qiyuan, how difficult was this!

Of course, Liu heihu was an exception. He was too ostentatious, so it was hard not to meet him.

The flame immortal followed the others and landed on the ship. When he looked over, he was stunned and confused.

He felt that the person in front of him looked very familiar, but he could not recall who it was.

Tang Hao stopped in his tracks, then cupped his hands and called out, ""Brother tai-Shu! Long time no see!"

"You are ..."

The flame immortal was startled, but he still couldn't remember who this person was.

The other members of the Tai-Shu family were surprised. They turned around and looked at tai-Shu Li, then at Tang Hao. They were confused.

“What, you don’t remember me?”

Tang Hao laughed.”Back then, you were with Wu Xian and the others to deal with me. And at the undying mountain ...”

“It’s you, Qin Wang!”

The flame immortal’s body trembled as he finally remembered.
