

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1634

The great Qin divine dynasty was one of the five great divine dynasties on the central sacred planet.

Its territory was boundless and had millions of people. There were many experts in the Imperial court and several Saints. The Supreme Qin Emperor was a Saint, and there was a Minister and a Marquis under him. They were All Saints.

That face was the head of the Tai-Shu family.

In the great Qin divine dynasty, the Tai-Shu family was only second to the imperial family.

The mansion was located on the east side of the great Qin's Holy capital. It did not look big, but it was a world of its own inside, vast and boundless.

At this moment, the Tai-Shu family was boiling.

Not long ago, the eldest young master's life plate had been shattered, and the group of people who had traveled with him had also fallen. This news had spread throughout the Tai-Shu family and caused a sensation.

The eldest young master of a clan was the heir that the clan had nurtured. How could the fall of such a figure not cause a sensation?

"I heard that the eldest young master went to the star ruins. That place is very dangerous, and people often die there. I think the eldest young master and the others were too greedy and went too deep, which led to the accident."

"I think so too. Other than them getting into trouble, who else would dare to make a move on our tai-Shu family?"

Everyone in the clan was discussing.

In their opinion, something must have happened to the Crown Prince and the others. After all, they were going to a dangerous place like the star ruins. Besides, the Crown Prince had always been proud and bold. Once they went too deep, it was easy for something to happen.

"Men, gather the troops and rush to the star ruins. Investigate carefully. You must find out what exactly is going on!"

"A few slave Immortals are still alive. Find them and bring them back. I want to interrogate them!"

In the main hall, there was an angry roar.

That was the eldest young master's father, tai-Shu Ji.

Although the divine image was the clan head on the surface, it rarely asked about the clan's Affairs. All the affairs were handled by this person, which was equivalent to acting as the clan head.

Soon, a large ship rose from the Tai-Shu mansion and flew up.

“That’s weird! The positions of these slave Immortals are a little strange. ”

On the deck, a man took out a compass. He stared at the compass and asked in confusion.

“What’s wrong?”

The other elders gathered around and asked curiously.

“Look, there are three slave Immortals alive. According to the compass, two of them can’t be found. This also means that they have left this star field and are now extremely far away.”

“This ... How is this possible? It hasn’t been long since the incident, how could they have run so far?”

“I think they fell into the space crack. I don’t know where they were sent to!”

“You’re right! Looks like that’s the case. What about the other one?”

The elder holding the compass looked up and said with a strange expression, “It’s right above us, and it’s rapidly approaching. ”

The other elders were stunned.

“That guy’s back? Just in time, I’ll take him back for interrogation!”

“Hmph! The eldest young master is already dead, yet this piece of trash still dares to live. Once we find out the truth, we’ll kill him and have him accompany the eldest young master!”

Then, they laughed coldly.

The duty of these slave Immortals was to protect the eldest young master. Now that the eldest young master was dead, these people would have to be buried with him.

They snorted coldly and looked up into the sky, searching for traces of the slave immortal.

However, no one saw it. Instead, they saw a palm. An incomparably huge Golden Palm was reaching down from the sky. It was getting bigger and bigger, like the hand of a God, and it was grabbing towards their large ship.

“What ... What is this?”

“What’s going on? Where’s that slave immortal?”

The elders of the Tai-Shu family were all shocked.

“Hurry up! Quickly Dodge!”

Then, they scurried up in a panic, wanting to abandon the ship and escape. The aura of this palm was too terrifying. It must have been the work of a peerless figure, and they were no match for it.

However, before they could escape, the hand grabbed them and the ship. It squeezed heavily and they all exploded.

Ahhhh!

With several screams, the elders of the Tai-Shu family fell one by one.

Very quickly, the Golden Palm disappeared, and two figures descended from the clouds.

“These are interesting!” Tang Hao said coldly.

The flame immortal followed closely behind him, his face full of shock.

“This ... Is a saint’s magical power?” He muttered.

“Let’s go!”

Tang Hao lowered his body and descended toward the Tai-Shu residence.

At that moment, there was another commotion in the Tai-Shu residence.

“It’s shattered! They’re all shattered!”

“What’s going on?”

Not long after they set off, the group of elders who wanted to go to the star ruins had all died.

“Based on their speed, they shouldn’t be out of the Holy planet yet!”

“Did someone make a move? Who dares to oppose our tai-Shu family?”

Countless people rushed out of the hall and looked up at the sky.

“Look, there’s someone!”

“So fast! Hurry up! Quickly activate the formation, enemy attack!”

When they saw the light falling rapidly from the sky, everyone was shocked. Soon, a layer of light curtain opened above the Tai-Shu mansion.

However, a mere layer of light screen was unable to block this ray of light. It shattered with a loud bang. The ray of light pierced through the light screen and fell to the ground.

BOOM!

With a deafening sound, ripples spread out from the landing point and destroyed buildings one after another.

Quite a few people were affected, and their bodies trembled as they were sent flying.

“Heavens! What kind of power is this?”

“Who are they?”

Everyone in the Tai-Shu family was a little dazed.

They focused their gazes and looked at the dust.

When they saw it clearly, they were stunned. It was a young man with black hair and a handsome face.

“He ... Who is he?”

Everyone had the same doubt in their hearts.

No one recognized this guy!

“Who are you? do you know that this is the Tai-Shu family, the great Qin’s divine Prime Minister’s estate?”

An elder shouted angrily.

“That’s right! I’m looking for you!” Tang Hao said coldly.

“You still haven’t told me who you are. What are you doing at my tai-Shu house?”

“Collect the debt!”

Tang Hao enunciated every word.

“Collect a debt?” The elder was taken aback, but he was a little puzzled. He didn’t know this guy at all. When had their tai-Shu family provoked this guy?

Just as he was feeling puzzled, he saw another figure land from above.

“It’s Tai-Shu Li!”

“It’s that slave immortal! He’s still alive, so how could he be with this guy? could it be that he betrayed our tai-Shu family and colluded with this guy to kill the eldest young master?”

The people of the square tai-Shu family were in an uproar.

“Tai-Shu Li! How dare you! How dare you collude with outsiders to harm the eldest young master!”

The elder shouted angrily.

“Great elder?”

The flame immortal landed and glanced at this person.

“You still know how to call me great elder. You ungrateful traitor. My tai-Shu family raised you, but you don’t know how to be grateful. You even colluded with outsiders to harm the eldest young master.”

The first elder sneered.

“Grateful? Hahaha! What a joke! Your tai-Shu family treats me like a dog and doesn’t treat my life as one, yet I still have to be grateful!” Yan Xian laughed in anger and shouted, “don’t you know what you have done?”

“The eldest young master deserves it! I’ve come here today for one thing, return my soul!”
