

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1640

“Do you have any sky-reaching bamboo?”

Tang Hao asked again.

“No... No...” The Qin Emperor stammered, his face flushed. Isn't that also a rare thing? it's one of the legendary three great bamboos.

“I also have one!”

Tang Hao calmly took out a short bamboo and placed it on the table.

He had taken it from the old Daoist Qingzhu and cultivated it.

The Qin Emperor opened his mouth wide, completely dumbfounded.

Then, he panicked and broke out in a cold sweat.

Could it be that he, the dignified Qin Emperor, was going to lose to this person?

It was really like seeing a ghost!

He had relied on the entire divine dynasty and accumulated treasures for 10000 years to have so many treasures. How did brother Tang get so many treasures by himself?

When he saw that Tang Hao was about to speak again, he quickly stopped him and wiped his cold sweat.””Brother Tang, stop, stop. Let's not talk about spirit herbs anymore. Let's talk about ...”

The words stopped here.

The Qin Emperor was at a loss for words.

Tribulation weapons couldn't do it, treasured clothing couldn't do it, and even spirit medicine couldn't do it. What else could he do? Medicinal pills, this person would most likely not be interested in them!

His face grew redder and redder. He racked his brains and tried his best to think, but he couldn't think of anything else that could move this person.

Could it be that ... This matter was going to be blown off just like that?

The more he thought about it, the more anxious he became.

He had been preparing this pill for a long time. In the past, he couldn't find anyone to refine it, but now, an Alchemist close to Saint grade had finally appeared. If he missed this opportunity, he wouldn't have another one.

“Cough, cough! Qin Emperor, how about this! I can see that you’re very sincere, so I’ll help you refine this pill. As for the reward! I’ve always been a kind person, so you can rest assured. Come, I’ll give you a list.”

Tang Hao put away his things and flashed his signature kind and innocent smile.

“A big fat sheep! It would be a waste not to slaughter them!”

However, he chuckled in his heart.

The Qin Emperor was overjoyed and said gratefully, “really!” Brother Tang, thank you so much! Al! Right, if you want anything, just tell me. Why do you need to make a list? That’s so troublesome!”

“No trouble at all! It’s no trouble at all!”

Tang Hao took out a pen and paper and started writing.

“Tribulation artifacts, give me a hundred. 5th tribulation is the best, 7th tribulation three, 8th tribulation two! Qin Emperor, what do you think?”

Tang Hao wrote quickly and looked at the Qin Emperor for his opinion.

“A ... A hundred?”

The Qin Emperor shivered. He was just joking when he boasted about filling a truckload of them!

But now, he couldn’t back down! He was the Qin Emperor, the ruler of a dynasty, how could he go back on his word!

“Good! Just a hundred! In actuality, this is nothing to great Qin. Don’t worry, I’ll be able to prepare it for you soon.” The Qin Emperor patted his chest and said.

“Oh! Next is the spirit herbs ...”

“There’s ... There’s more!”

The Qin Emperor was startled.

“Yup! Didn’t you say that you have a lot of spirit herbs in your treasure vault? then give me a hundred thousand stalks. Among them, ten thousand stalks of thousand-year-old spirit herbs are needed. Look, I’m so generous, only asking for a hundred thousand stalks!”

Tang Hao said.

The Qin Emperor’s face twitched again, and his whole body trembled.

F * ck! He was too ruthless!

This brother Tang looks harmless, but why is he so ruthless?

But now, what else could he do? previously, he had bragged about his family's treasure house too much, so he couldn't reject it even if he wanted to. He could only slap his face until it swelled up and pretend to be fat.

"Al...Alright! It's like this!"

The Qin Emperor stammered, but his heart was bleeding.

Great Qin was rich and had countless treasures, but to take out so many at once, he felt an immense pain.

"That's all for the spiritual herbs. Next, the spiritual materials ..."

Tang Hao raised his hand and started writing furiously again.

The Qin Emperor shivered a little when he saw Tang Wulin's action. He didn't even dare to look at what Tang Wulin had written.

"Good! I'll take it!"

"Hahaha! This little thing is a piece of cake! No problem!"

Tang Hao continued to write, but the smile on the Qin Emperor's face became more and more stiff and bitter.

"Alright! Just these!"

Finally, Tang Hao finished writing. He put down the brush and looked at the Qin Emperor with a smile. "Are you alright, Emperor? Your great Qin is so powerful, so these things should be nothing, right?"

"Yes! That's right!"

The Qin Emperor's smile was uglier than his crying face.

When he saw Tang Hao's smiling face, he could not help but feel a little dazed. Brother Tang looked so pure and innocent, and his smile was flawless, but why was his heart so black?

"Qin Emperor, don't worry, this pill will definitely work!"

"That's good!"

The Qin Emperor heaved a sigh of relief. If the pill could really be refined, it wouldn't matter even if he threw out these little things.

"Oh! "Oh, right. There's one more thing ..." Tang Hao suddenly remembered something.

The Qin Emperor shivered."B-brother Tang, what else do you want?"

"Don't worry, I'm not asking for anything. I have a favor to ask of the Qin Emperor. I want to find a person. If I look for him alone, it's like looking for a needle in a haystack. However, with the power of the great Qin divine dynasty, I think I can find him very quickly." Tang Hao said.

"Oh! It's like this!"

The Qin Emperor heaved a sigh of relief.

"The person I'm looking for is surnamed mu and named Xing Tong. He's not old and like me, he came from Qiyuan. As for his cultivation level, I'm not sure. He might have severed his Dao or become an immortal."

Tang Hao said.

"It also belongs to Qiyuan! Alright! No problem, give me the portrait, and I'll immediately send people to look for it. Great Qin has many merchant associations all over the starry sky, and as long as you give them the information, they'll be able to find it very quickly."

"Then I'll leave it to you!" Tang Hao took out star pupil's portrait and handed it to her.

"Qin Emperor, you prepare the things first. I'm going to start refining the elixir. Come and see me half a month later!"

"Alright!"

The Qin Emperor cupped his hands and left the room.

After he left, Tang Hao began to make the pills. He took out the Golden cauldron, threw in the materials, fused them, and then calcined them. It was done in one go. After five days, the first batch of pills was done.

The second time, however, he encountered a little trouble. The fusion failed and he exploded.

The third time, he was much more careful and successfully concocted it. In the end, he obtained two Bodhi spirit-nourishing pills.

After receiving the elixir, the Qin Emperor was overjoyed.

He had thought that he could only make one, but he didn't expect to make two. It was simply a pleasant surprise.

"Two! Hahaha! That's great, brother Tang. No, I should call you alchemy Saint Tang. You're a real alchemy saint now! Come, this is your reward! No, isn't it a little too little? I'll prepare more for you!"

In his great joy, the Qin Emperor was exceptionally generous. He waved his hand and called for someone to retrieve something from the Treasury.

Then, he straightened his face and said seriously, "There's news about the person you asked me to find. Two days ago, there was news that she appeared on the White maple star, but then disappeared."

"If you want to know more about it, you can go to planet white maple and find the people from great Qin there."
