

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1643

The Eagle planet suddenly became lively.

From all directions, countless rays of light poured in and fell on the star like rain.

This Eagle planet was an ordinary cultivation planet. It was not big, but it had never been as lively as it was now. Many starships carrying countless cultivators descended from the sky.

Star City was packed with people. Most of the people who had been here in the past were Dao severing cultivators, but now the streets were full of Immortals, each of them shining with immortal radiance and imposing manner.

These powers were very diverse and existed from all over the starry sky.

There were many large factions, but there were also many small and medium-sized factions that came to fish in troubled waters. At this moment, the soaring Eagle planet had become the most lively place in this starry sky. People from all sides had gathered here.

Their target was that woman.

“This woman’s surname is mu. She was previously a disciple of the red clouds Valley on the White maple planet. It is said that this woman has a vicious heart. For this item, she killed her fellow disciples, betrayed the red clouds Valley, and escaped all the way here!”

“Hey! That’s nothing, that’s the Empyrean goddess’s tear, you’d be the same if it were you. Such a divine item, even your hands and feet can turn against each other, let alone those from the same sect.”

Everyone was discussing this woman surnamed mu.

Most of them were not interested in his background. He was just a small figure. The White maple Star Cloud Valley was not a big force in the starry sky. A mere disciple was really nothing.

What everyone was more interested in was her whereabouts. Ever since two days ago, this woman had appeared on this planet once and then disappeared. No one knew where she was hiding now.

“It’s really strange! She’s fine, how did she disappear? I heard that her strength isn’t that great, how could she hide from so many of us?”

They were all a little puzzled. So many of them had been searching for almost two days, but they still hadn’t found that woman.

“It is said that this woman not only obtained a drop of the Empyrean goddess’s tear, but she also seems to have an inheritance. I guess it is because of this!” Some people guessed.

“Let’s continue searching. There are so many of us now, and we’ve sealed the star. Where can she escape to?”

“That’s right, this woman is already a turtle in a jar, she can’t escape.”

They continued their search, turning the planet upside down.

In the starry sky, another large ship landed. Its entire body was shining with silver light. On the body of the ship, a heroic Silver Dragon was carved. It was blooming with a silver light that was tens of thousands of feet long. It was simply blinding.

“What’s that?”

“Heavens! It’s so eye-piercing!”

In Star City, everyone looked up and felt that their eyes were going blind.

“Hiss! That was the silver Dragon Prince! He’s here!”

Soon, exclamations were heard. Everyone recognized it. After all, this large warship was too iconic, so who wouldn’t recognize it?

They were all shocked. Master Silver Dragon was a well-known figure in the central astral. His master was a Saint. With such a background, he could do whatever he wanted in the starry sky. He was indeed arrogant and despotic and did all kinds of evil.

There was another way of reading the name Yin long. This person practiced dual cultivation and had harmed countless women. Whenever the female cultivators in the central astral world talked about this person, their expressions would change.

Although this person had a bad reputation, there was no other way. He had a strong background and was a demon himself. No one could touch him.

“Hahaha! I, the young master of Silver Dragon, am here!”

On the bow of the ship stood a tall and sturdy figure. His posture was like a sword, and he was also wearing a dazzling silver robe with two circling silver dragons painted on it.

His appearance was quite handsome, and he held a fan in his hand. He had the temperament of a graceful scholar.

At first glance, one might have been fooled, but if one looked closely, one would notice a trace of evil Qi between his eyebrows.

With one hand behind his back, he looked down at the people in Star City and shouted, “All of you, listen up! I want that woman, and I want that Mystic fairy Pearl. No one can snatch her or the Pearl from me!”

Everyone was silent and didn’t think much of it.

If it was in the past, they might really be a little afraid. However, it was different now. There were too many major forces that had come. Even the five great divine dynasties had come. Compared to them, this young master Yin long was nothing.

After young master Yin long shouted, he looked around with eagerness and greed in his eyes.

A woman with the mystic fairy Pearl was a top grade cultivation furnace. Furthermore, it was said that she was a great beauty. How could he miss out on such a top grade woman?

“The person is mine, and so is the bead! Let’s go and find her!”

He licked his lips. He couldn’t help it anymore. He quickly drove the ship forward.

After him, more large ships landed, causing people to exclaim from time to time. These people were all famous people.

“It’s getting more and more lively!”

“I’m afraid this will be a bloody battle! I wonder who will be the one to take the mystic fairy Pearl in the end.” Everyone sighed with emotion.

Not long after, a piece of news suddenly came, causing a sensation in Star City.

“I’ve found her!”

“There’s a fight over there, hurry! Let’s go and take a look!”

In the restaurants and on the streets, everyone scuttled up and quickly rushed out of Star City.

At this moment, all the forces on the soaring Eagle planet had received the news. They all turned around and rushed to the scene of the incident.

It was a mountain range, and many people had already gathered there. The sky was filled with large ships, and countless figures were floating in the air, all of them shining with immortal radiance.

Moreover, more light gushed in from all directions.

In a Valley in the middle, a light screen was opened, and a figure was sitting cross-legged inside.

Everyone’s eyes were fixed on this figure, revealing a bit of greed.

However, they didn’t move. When they first found her, they had a fight, but now they were in a stalemate. After all, there were too many people. No one had the strength to rush in, snatch her, and stand up for her. They were afraid that they would be the first one to be beaten up.

Everyone was secretly preparing, waiting for the battle to start so that they could rush in to snatch people or fish in troubled waters to take advantage.

There were more and more people around the mountain range, and everyone was starting to get impatient.

“What are you doing? why are you snatching it? our Golden Jade sect was the first to discover it!”

“Bah! Nonsense, it’s obviously our Wu family who discovered it, it should be ours!”

Around the valley, the various forces were at a stalemate. They began to bicker and gradually escalated into a war of words, cursing each other’s ancestors for eighteen generations.

“All of you, shut up! If it weren’t for you idiots, I would’ve caught that girl long ago!”

The shimmering silver warship was also in the center. Young master Yin long stood at the bow of the ship with a gloomy expression.

Just now, he was so close to catching the girl and leaving, but now, with so many people rushing in, the situation suddenly fell into a deadlock.

“Motherf * cker!”

He gritted his teeth and cursed under his breath.

“This little girl is definitely mine!” He looked down at the valley with a burning gaze.

He had seen her just now, and that little girl was indeed stunning. When he caught her, he would take her bead and raise her as a long-term human cauldron.

As the war of words continued to escalate, it was unknown who made the first move, but a chaotic battle suddenly broke out. Everyone’s eyes were red, and they rushed into the valley. That was a Mystic Fairy bead, a rare divine object.

“Kill!”

“Snatch the person, snatch the bead!”

The people in the surroundings also shouted and rushed in to join the battle. Some rushed in, while others took advantage of the situation and killed people to steal their treasures. There were many people like this.

The mountain range was instantly drowned by the sounds of battle.
