

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1649

“Tang ... Senior Tang!”

The two saints stood at the side, looking very nervous.

They wanted to leave, but they were a little hesitant for fear of angering this person. When they thought about how they had indeed hurt that girl during the fight, they felt a little uneasy.

“Senior Tang, I really don’t know. If I had known about her relationship with you, I definitely wouldn’t have made a move!”

The divine form of great Qian explained hurriedly.

“Yes, yes! It’s all a misunderstanding!” Another person laughed along.

Tang Hao glared at them coldly. “All of you ... Cut off one of your arms and get lost!”

The two of them were stunned, and their expressions changed.

Cutting off one’s own arm, what kind of humiliation was this!

However, they didn’t dare to flare up. That guy from great Chu had died so miserably just now, and they didn’t want to follow in his footsteps. Moreover, after thinking about it carefully, this was actually just a matter of face. After all, it was better to have a broken arm grow back easily than to be injured or even lose their lives.

They looked at each other, gritted their teeth, and cut off one of their arms. Then, they boarded their ships and left in a hurry.

Seeing this, the crowd went into an uproar again.

There were a total of Four Saints. One had run away, one had fallen, and the remaining two had been scared away.

Then, the crowd began to stir. Many people looked panicked. Many of them had attacked the woman surnamed mu, and some had even injured her. They began to retreat in an attempt to escape.

“Mother! Where did this old monster come from?”

In a corner of the mountains far away, young master Yin long was curled up. His face was pale.

When the Saint had appeared, he had hidden far away. He had been looking for an opportunity to snatch the girl, but he had never expected that a perverted old monster would suddenly appear. Even a peerless monster like Marquis Wutian had been beaten away.

“Hurry! Let’s go!”

When he thought about how he had ruthlessly attacked the little girl when he was chasing her, he was frightened. Once this old monster knew about this, he would definitely settle the score with him.

If it was someone else, he wouldn't be afraid because they would be afraid of his identity and wouldn't dare to kill him. However, this was a god of death who even dared to kill the crown Prince of great Chu, let alone him.

He waved his hand and ordered the puppet slaves to escape.

However, just as he turned around, the void in front of him rippled, and a figure stepped out. He looked up and almost peed in his pants.

"Se...Senior, I didn't mean to ..."

He hurriedly shook his head and said in a trembling voice, "you can't kill me. My master is also a Saint and is very famous. Senior, you must know him ..."

"I don't know him!"

"Hmph!" Tang Hao grunted. He reached out his palm, and a giant handprint appeared. It caught young master Yin long and squeezed him.

With a bang, young master Yin long exploded. He did not even have the time to scream before his body and soul were destroyed.

"Even Prince Yin long is dead!"

Everyone was even more shocked.

Young master Yin Long's master was also a powerful Saint. Otherwise, he would not have been so arrogant.

"Let's go!"

The crowd was in chaos, and everyone turned to run.

"You want to leave ... It won't be that easy!" Tang Hao laughed coldly. A blood-red light rose from his body and turned into a sea of blood that swept in all directions.

"Aaah!"

A scream pierced through the sky.

Groups of xiuzhe were swept by the blood sea and burned to ashes.

"You all deserve to die!"

Tang Hao's expression was frosty. His killing intent was monstrous. Blood gushed out of his body, covering the sky and swallowing the entire world. Countless cultivators were burned to ashes. Shrieking screams rose and fell. It was like hell.

"Heavens!"

The people who were running in front turned around to look and were all shocked. Then, they screamed in horror, turned around, and continued to run away madly. At this moment, they only hated that they had one less leg, and could not run faster.

"Damn it, how did this happen?"

"This is really bad luck!"

Their intestines were green with regret. Why did they come and join in the fun? Great, now they've brought trouble upon themselves, and it was this kind of perverted old monster.

Tang Hao's body flickered as he charged into the crowd. He either waved his hand and sent true fire sweeping out to annihilate a large number of people, or he extended his hand and sent out a giant palm that crushed a large number of people.

"This is too terrifying!"

Everyone was scared out of their wits.

They didn't even have the slightest thought of resisting and could only care about fleeing frantically.

After a while, the mountain range finally calmed down. The sky was filled with dead figures and those who had fled had all been wiped out.

Tang Hao then stopped, turned around, and headed back to the valley.

The valley had long been reduced to ruins, and a beautiful figure stood there. A gentle breeze blew, lifting her white dress and black silk. She was as beautiful as a painting.

Tang Hao was stunned when he got closer. He opened his mouth, but he did not know what to say.

It had been almost twenty years, and he felt as if it had been a lifetime.

His gaze fell on the wounds on her body, and he felt even more sorry for her. All these years, he did not know how much she had suffered to be able to get to where she was today.

Her star pupils looked at him without blinking.

A layer of mist slowly appeared in her beautiful eyes.

"I'm fine now!" Tang Hao said gently as he walked up to her.

She could no longer hold it in when she heard that. She rushed forward and hugged Tang Hao, sobbing softly.

“Alright, I’m done!” Tang Hao gently patted her shoulder.

“Come! Take this first!” He took out a heaven returning pill and let her consume it, allowing her to recover from her injuries.

“I came out of Qi Yuan and went to Nan Li astral. I thought I would find you soon, but I didn’t expect this starry sky to be so big. I stayed in Nan Li astral for a long time, trying to find out about you.”

“That Liu heihu is also in Nanli, and he’s pretending to be you! He’s quite hateful!”

Star pupil talked about her experience over the years, and when she talked about Liu heihu, she showed an angry expression.

“About three or four years! I left Nanli and came to the central astral world to search for you for a few years. Finally, I arrived at the White maple star. I thought that it would be difficult to find you in a short time, so I entered the red clouds Valley and focused on cultivation. ”

“I was fine at first, but I didn’t expect that everything would change because of a drop of Empyrean goddess tear! I didn’t expect to meet you because of this!”

“I found this drop of the mystic fairy tear by chance. I also received an inheritance called the mystic fairy Scripture.”

Tang Hao checked her body. The mystic fairy Pearl in her body was already the size of a pellet. When the mystic fairy Pearl ripened, he could transform her body into a Supreme divine body.

“This is a great opportunity!” Tang Hao sighed, but he was happy for her. As long as the transformation was successful, her Star Eyes would be as powerful as his.

He pondered for a moment, then took out a large bag of pills and stuffed it into her hands. “Take these pills and consume them all. They will speed up the growth of the mystic fairy Pearl. Let’s go, we can’t stay here for long. ”

Then, Tang Hao left the Eagle planet with star pupil.
