

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1653

The outside world was in an uproar.

In the past few days, more detailed news came from Donglin. The various things that happened to celestial venerable Tang were also widely spread and everyone knew about it.

Donglin would be respected and Beichen would be the ancestor!

In just ten years or so, he had successfully transcended into the mortal realm and ascended to the sage realm ...

All kinds of things made people exclaim in admiration.

They had all thought that Marquis Wutian was already the most monstrous figure. They had never thought that in the distant Donglin, there would be an even more monstrous figure.

Not long after, an even more shocking piece of news spread.

That immortal venerable Tang had already become an alchemy Saint!

Once the news spread, it caused another sensation.

No one doubted the authenticity of this news, because this news came from the great Qin Empire, and it was said by the Qin Emperor himself. How could it be false?

“First, he became a Saint in cultivation. Now, he’s also a Saint in alchemy. Is this immortal venerable Tang ... Really human?”

Countless people could only smile bitterly.

If it was a Saint, it would not be a big deal to become a saint with both cultivation and alchemy at the same time, because they were already old. With so many years of accumulation, they should have become a saint with alchemy. However, that immortal venerable Tang was only in his forties!

It was said that when he signed up for the elixir gathering, he was only 44 years old. A 44-year-old Saint, an elixir Saint, was too shocking.

“However, even if venerable Tang is so monstrous, he can’t stop great Chu and that old silver Dragon, right? I’ve heard that the old silver Dragon came into the world not long ago and went to great Chu. He must be planning to join forces with the Chu Emperor to take revenge!”

“It’s hard to say. The old silver Dragon is very experienced, and the Chu Emperor is said to be the most unfathomable of the Five Emperors. Once the two of them join forces, no one in the world can stop them.”

The crowd was in a heated discussion.

Celestial venerable Tang was a peerless monster with great strength, but the opponents he had provoked this time were even stronger. They were all peak Saints, figures who stood at the highest point of the starry sky. He was probably doomed.

The heaven-equal Department would probably also suffer because of this.

Once the divine dynasty was enraged, even the heaven-equal Department in the distant Donglin would be razed to the ground.

While the outside world was bustling with activity, Tang Hao stayed in the cave abode, frantically planting herbs and refining pills.

“The twenty-first time! Failed!”

“The twenty-second time! Failed!”

He kept gathering the materials and trying.

Even though he had failed so many times, he was still persevering. He gritted his teeth and continued to try. No matter how much effort or price he had to pay, he had to refine this creation divine pill.

“Thirty-one!”

“Thirty-two!”

After many attempts, he became more skilled. He continued to gain experience and perfected the refining technique. He could feel that he was getting closer and closer to success.

Finally, on the thirty-fifth attempt, the fusion was a success. Nearly a hundred materials had been fused into one, creating a perfect pill embryo.

“Hahaha!”

Tang Hao almost laughed out loud to vent his excitement.

Once the pill embryo was formed, the pill would be more than half complete!

And this was something that even alchemy Saint Gu Xu had not been able to do.

Tang Hao quickly suppressed his excitement and focused on controlling the flame to burn the metal.

After seven days and seven nights of refining, the pill finally matured. The moment it was formed, the Golden cauldron shook violently, and a brilliant light shot out, piercing through the mountain wall and into the clouds.

BOOM! BOOM!

In the sky, dark clouds rolled over, and lightning flashed.

This was the pill tribulation!

Once the divine elixir was formed, it attracted the Tribulation lightning.

“What’s that? Someone is going to undergo the nascent formation tribulation?”

People from all four corners of the planet looked over and exclaimed in shock.

From what they knew, the only thing that could attract tribulation lightning was the nascent formation tribulation.

Clang clang clang!

The Golden cauldron trembled violently. Suddenly, a ball of light shot up into the sky from within. It cracked the peak of the mountain and shot straight into the sky to meet the disastrous Thunder.

BOOM!

After a while, the lightning of tribulation struck the ball of light. However, the ball of light was still alive and kicking.

What followed was a series of explosions. Bolts of lightning struck down one after another, each more powerful than the previous one. The momentum was getting more and more terrifying. This pill tribulation was completely different from the one that he had experienced when he was refining the Dragon-tiger golden pill. The power of the two was also more than ten times different.

Toward the end, the lightning of tribulation carried a hint of gold. Tang Hao was very familiar with the aura. It was the aura of the world-ending lightning of tribulation, but it was a little faint.

This creation divine pill had the ability to steal the creation of heaven and earth. It was a heaven-defying item and would naturally attract the world-ending tribulation.

However, even the world-ending lightning tribulation could not destroy the ball of light. Not only did the repeated attacks not kill it, but it also made it stronger. It even dared to charge into the Tribulation clouds and dart around. Tang Hao was a little speechless.

He had never seen such a ferocious thing, and it was just a pill!

From the looks of it, the pill didn’t seem like it was going through a tribulation at all, but more like it was playing in the thunderclouds.

After 49 steps, the Tribulation clouds finally began to disperse, and the sky returned to its clear state.

The ball of light was still circling in the air. Wherever it went, it caused the spiritual energy to surge and the wind and clouds to change. The momentum was extremely shocking.

At this moment, more than half of the planet's spiritual energy was being drawn over and absorbed by it.

This phenomenon attracted the attention of many cultivators on the planet. They all looked up at the sky with horror.

After a long time, it stopped and landed in the direction of the cave. Looking closely, it was a cloud of seven-colored mist that gathered and scattered like a river of Stars. It looked very similar to the small creation divine pill.

However, the auras of the two were completely different. One was heaven and the other earth!

This was the true creation divine pill! And that was just an imitation!

Tang Hao reached out his hand, and the cloud of mist surged over. It swiftly condensed and transformed into a sparkling and translucent pill. It exuded a vast aura.

Holding the pill in his hand, Tang Hao's heart surged with excitement.

After failing so many times, he had finally refined this divine pill!

He had also finally surpassed alchemy Saint Gu Xu!

"Hahaha!" He laughed out loud, but he was overjoyed.

"This elixir can seize the Fortune of heaven and earth, transform one's body, and transform into the magical creation divine body. Once I consume it, I can successfully transform into the creation divine body, and my strength will increase by a lot. It's said that the creation divine body is quite miraculous!"

Tang Hao was filled with anticipation. He did not have a peerless Dao body like Marquis Wutian. His body was just an ordinary one with a piece of God spirit bone embedded in it. However, if he swallowed the creation divine pill, his body could be transformed into a magical creation divine body.

And this divine body wouldn't conflict with the God spirit bone in his body.

He immediately sat down cross-legged and swallowed the creation divine pill. He began to absorb it and transform his body.

The news of the unusual activity on the planet spread quickly and eventually reached the central sacred planet, attracting the attention of many forces.
