

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1655

“We’ve arrived at lingyue planet!”

Outside of lingyue planet, the huge ship stopped and the figure on it flew out. He stood in the starry sky and looked down at the planet.

They didn’t dare to enter rashly for fear of alarming that kid and letting him escape.

The Chu Emperor looked around and suddenly pointed in a direction, saying, “Look! That’s the place where the pill tribulation occurred! That kid must have concocted his pill there! Let’s go and take a look!”

“Good! Be careful!”

The venerable Silver Dragon nodded and tried his best to restrain his aura.

The nine of them lowered their bodies and entered lingyue planet, heading towards the place where the pill tribulation had appeared.

Soon, they arrived at their destination.

“This aura ... It can’t be wrong. It’s pill tribulation!” The Chu Emperor said as he swept his gaze around.

In front of them was a mountain range, which was a bit messy. They could see the traces of the Thunder tribulation, and there was a strong fragrance in the air, which was very similar to the smell of pills.

But what shocked him was that this fragrance was extremely rich. It lingered in the air for a long time and didn’t dissipate. Moreover, with a light sniff, it made one feel relaxed and comfortable.

“What kind of pill is this?”

He sniffed hard and said in shock.

The others sniffed and also revealed expressions of shock and astonishment.

“This fragrance ... How is this possible? it’s been a few days, why hasn’t it dissipated?” “Not bad!” Silver Dragon venerable said in shock, “also, I only sniffed it lightly, and I felt like I was floating. It was as if ... I had eaten some kind of elixir!”

“This ... This is unbelievable! What kind of pill is it?”

The others also cried out in surprise. They had never seen such a miraculous pill before.

The Chu Emperor sniffed again, and his expression turned grave. A pill that could attract a pill tribulation and had such a strange phenomenon must be extraordinary. Perhaps it could increase one’s cultivation level. Could it be that this brat had already reached the consummate level?

He frowned at the thought of this.

If that's the case, then that kid is even more difficult to deal with!

The others also thought of this, and their expressions became more serious.

"Motherf*cker! What a pervert!" One of the old monsters cursed with a depressed expression.

It was one thing for him to become a saint in his forties, but how could his alchemy skills be so powerful? how could this group of old men live?

The other old monsters also grimaced in pain and smiled bitterly.

"It's fine. Even if he has reached the perfection stage, we are not afraid. Don't forget that there are nine of us. It's more than enough to kill him!" The Chu Emperor shouted in a deep voice.

"That's true!"

The old monsters were relieved.

They began to explore the surroundings. Suddenly, one of them pointed to a mountain in front of them and called out in a low voice, "Look, there's a situation over there. It's a cave abode!"

When the others checked, they all became excited.

"Hahaha! It's definitely that kid. He must not have thought that we would arrive so quickly, so he's still absorbing the pills and didn't have time to leave!"

"This is a good opportunity! It's a rare sight to see in a thousand years!"

They were extremely excited.

"Hahaha! The heavens are really helping me!" The Chu Emperor laughed as well. He had never thought that the young man was still on this planet, and that he seemed to be in seclusion to absorb the elixir. This was a heaven-sent opportunity.

"Hurry up! Set up a great formation and seal this place!"

They hurriedly took action and threw out formation flags that they had prepared long ago. They set up an inescapable net and sealed off the mountain range.

"Hahaha! Now that we've succeeded, that brat is already a fish in a jar, waiting for us to fish on him!"

After setting up the formation, they all heaved a sigh of relief. Their expressions became relaxed and revealed a look of joy. They were afraid that they wouldn't be able to find or capture that kid. Now that they had trapped him, they didn't have to worry anymore.

There were nine of them, so no matter how powerful that kid was, he couldn't overturn the heavens.

Today, that kid was destined to fall here!

“Go! Destroy this cave and drive that brat out!” The Chu Emperor let out a loud cry and took the lead to attack. He took out a seal and threw it at the man.

The seal expanded in the wind, turning into a majestic divine mountain that pressed down.

The old silver Dragon opened its mouth and spat out a silver light, which hit the mountain.

Bang Bang!

With two loud sounds, layers of light appeared around the mountain, blocking the attacks of the two.

“There’s a formation!”

“It’s just a few broken formations. They won’t be able to hold on for long. Smash them all and drag that kid out!” The Chu Emperor shouted ferociously as he activated the ancient seal again and smashed it down.

Peng Peng Peng!

With a series of muffled sounds, the formations were torn apart, and soon, they were completely destroyed.

“Little brat, get out here! You killed my disciple, this enmity is absolutely irreconcilable!”

The old silver Dragon roared angrily and madly launched the silver light, which expanded to a thousand feet in size.

Bang!

The mountain was broken and exploded.

But what they didn’t expect was that there was a formation inside, layer by layer, enveloping a figure.

The figure’s entire body bloomed with a dazzling divine light, making it impossible to see his appearance clearly. He sat cross-legged, motionless, as if he had entered a state of meditation.

“Continue bombarding!”

The Chu Emperor roared.

The nine of them attacked at the same time, bombarding the light curtain with all their might. The light curtain shattered layer by layer, and in just fifteen minutes, there was only one layer left.

“This brat still hasn’t woken up. Fine, I’ll just kill him directly!”

The old silver Dragon snorted and attacked again with silver light.

The light curtain couldn't withstand his full-force attack at all and exploded. The silver light continued to blast forward and was about to hit the figure.

Seeing this, the old silver Dragon sneered and felt a bit happy.

To be able to kill this fellow with his own hands, it could also be considered as taking revenge for his precious disciple!

The others also revealed looks of joy. They had originally thought that it would take a little more effort to capture this brat, but they did not expect it to be so easy.

However, at this moment, the figure suddenly trembled. His eyelids trembled and he opened his eyes.

What a pair of eyes! Deep, vast, and like the boundless starry sky, two beams of bright and sharp divine light shot out of his eyes, as if they could see through all the mysteries of the world.

Seeing the beam of silver light bombarding his eyes, he calmly raised his hand and pointed with a finger.

At his fingertips, a terrifying aura condensed and touched the silver light.

In an instant, the silver light scattered and revealed a silver flying knife. The finger continued to point at it, and the power gathered on it tore through the silver light like it was breaking dead branches before finally touching the flying knife.

Buzzzzzz!

The flying knife shook violently and let out a wail before it was sent flying.

Pfft!

The old silver Dragon trembled and turned pale. He could not help but spit out blood.

"This ... How is this possible?"

His eyes were wide open and his face was filled with shock.

This was an eighth tribulation weapon, forged from the world's hardest and sharpest materials. It could be said to be indestructible and indestructible. How could that guy catch it with a finger and still send the flying knife flying?

The other old monsters were also dumbfounded.
