

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1658

“Quickly run!”

The Saints turned around and shivered in fear. They started to flee.

When they came, they were aggressive and confident, but now they were running away with their tails between their legs like stray dogs.

“Ah!”

There was a scream.

One of them did not manage to escape in time and was caught by Tang Hao. A spear pierced through his body. Even though his divine soul managed to escape, his physical body was crushed into powder. All his belongings fell into Tang Hao’s hands.

“One!”

Tang Hao mumbled to himself. He put away the treasure and went after another one.

“Mother of God!”

When the Saints saw this, they were scared to death and ran even faster.

At this moment, a large ship descended from the starry sky and entered the planet.

“It’s almost time!” Emperor Qi said, “old Chu and the others should have been fighting with that kid for quite a while. It’s almost time to end it. It’s time for us to make our move.”

They had arrived on this planet right after Emperor Chu and his group. In order not to be discovered by Emperor Chu and his group, they had not entered the planet and had remained in the starry sky.

They had also used their own methods to follow the Chu Emperor’s group. After finding out that the brat was on this planet and had even fought with the Chu Emperor’s group, they retreated and waited patiently.

Now that the time was almost up, they were ready to make their move.

“Let’s use this map of the world to sneak in. Old Chu and the others are busy dealing with that kid, so they won’t notice us. We’ll take the opportunity to snatch that kid, and then all the treasures will be ours!”

The Emperor of Qi said with a smile.

Marquis Wutian sneered. “I hope that guy isn’t so bad that he died so quickly!”

"I won't! That kid still has some ability. Since he dared to stay in the central astral, it means he's prepared. He won't die so easily!" Emperor Qi said.

"Emperor Qi, don't forget our promise. You have to give me that kid's soul!" Said Dao master primordial chaos.

"Don't worry! It's just a mere soul, I'll give it to you!" The Emperor of Qi said with a smile.

"Many thanks, Emperor Qi!"

The primordial chaos Daoist master bowed and threw the map of the universe in his hand to activate it.

Everyone entered the treasure map, with primordial chaos Dao master being the last to enter. The treasure map immediately disappeared and escaped into the void, rapidly sweeping away.

"Look! It's right in front!"

In a short while, they were approaching the scene of the incident.

"There's someone!"

They saw a light rushing over from a distance. It looked like it was running for its life, and it was a little panicked.

"Hahaha! It's definitely that kid!"

"Hurry up! Stop him!"

The group of people were overjoyed.

In their minds, one against nine, that kid would definitely lose. Who else could be running away in a panic at this moment other than him!

They immediately emerged from the void and exited the treasure map.

"Hahaha! The heavens are really helping me!"

"Where are you running to, Tang kid?"

They couldn't contain their excitement and activated their treasures, ready to attack.

However, they soon realized that something was wrong.

"Eh? It doesn't look like that kid!"

They took a closer look and realized that the person was not the kid surnamed Tang.

In an instant, they were all stunned, and their movements froze.

“It seems to be black Zephyr!”

“It’s him! But why did he run?”

They recognized this person and were all a little puzzled.

“Al! Old black wind!” Emperor Qi called out.

The light paused for a moment and noticed Emperor Qi and the others.

“What are you running for!” Emperor Qi roared again.

Black Zephyr didn’t say a word. He turned around to look and continued to flee. With a whoosh, he passed by Emperor Qi and the others and disappeared.

“Hey! This old man black wind ...”

The Emperor of Qi was a little annoyed.

“In my opinion, could it be that they are having an internal strife?” Marquis Wutian guessed.

“This ... That’s possible!” Emperor Qi hesitated. “But if that’s the case, it’s bad. It means that the kid is dead or captured!”

The group of people’s expressions changed.

“Hurry up!”

Emperor Qi waved his hand and was about to rush over with his team, but at this moment, someone else came.

“Who is this?”

The group of people looked over.

“It’s the venerable Sky Wolf. Why is he running too?” They quickly recognized him. After all, there weren’t many saints in this area, and they knew all the more powerful ones.

“Old man Tian lang!” Emperor Qi shouted again.

The ray of light paused for a moment and then started running again. Just like black wind, it ran away without a word.

“Hey! Why is this old man Tian lang the same as that old man black wind?” Emperor Qi was a little angry. He was the great emperor Qi, but these two old guys didn’t even greet him.

“Let’s go!”

The group of people continued to rush forward and met a few more people on the way.

“Woof! This old man Chu is not kind, killing the donkey when it’s done. What a good scheme!” Emperor Qi sneered. He thought that the Chu Emperor and the old silver Dragon had driven these people away and wanted them to share the treasure.

After mocking Emperor Chu, Emperor Qi continued to lead the charge. However, he was stunned and stared blankly into the distance. Two rays of light were rushing over. They were slightly flustered and were undoubtedly running away.

He could clearly see that they were the Chu Emperor and the old silver Dragon, but...How could this be possible?

What was there to run about?

Could it be that these two weren’t the ones who chased away the old monster?

The Emperor of Qi was completely stunned.

Very quickly, those two figures arrived in front of them. When both sides met face to face, they were both dumbfounded.

“Old man Qi? What are you guys doing here?”

The Chu Emperor said in a daze.

“Old Chu, why are you running?”

The Emperor of Qi was also stunned.

The two parties stared at each other for a long time.

“Old man Qi, you’re good!” After a while, the Chu Emperor came to his senses. He finally understood why old man Qi was here. He was obviously trying to be like the Mantis stalking the cicada, unaware of the Oriole behind.

“Old Chu, tell me! Why did they run? where was that kid? Have you killed him?” The Emperor of Qi shouted.

“That kid?”

The expressions of the Chu Emperor and the others changed at once. They turned around to take a look and were about to run away, but suddenly, the Chu Emperor seemed to have thought of something and stopped. Just now, they couldn’t defeat the kid, but now that Emperor Qi and the others were here, they could still fight him.

That brat was too monstrous. He could not be allowed to live past today. It would be best to join forces with Emperor Qi and the others to kill that brat in one fell swoop.

“That kid isn’t dead!” The old silver Dragon said in embarrassment.

“He didn’t die? Where is he?” Emperor Qi said.

“You see, he’s here!” The old silver Dragon pointed in the distance. A golden light was rushing over.

When Emperor Qi and the others saw this, they were stunned.

They couldn’t believe it. No matter how they looked at the situation, it seemed that the Chu Emperor and the others had been beaten away by that brat. However, this was really unbelievable. The Chu Emperor and the others had nine people, two of whom were at the peak, and seven of whom were Saints close to the peak.

No matter who it was, they were all figures who shook the starry sky. How could they fail when they joined forces?
