

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1664

As soon as he finished speaking, the red bow trembled violently, and the spatial vortex trembled violently as if there was something within it that was responding to the bow.

The Chu Emperor and the others were all stunned, and then their expressions changed drastically.

They finally understood why that brat had come here. It was not to hide at all, but to find the arrows. He wanted to gather the Supreme weapon to fight against them. And he had really found it.

“Not good!”

They were all anxious. Once the bow and arrow became one, it would become a complete supreme weapon. At that time, they would not be able to suppress this kid!

“Hurry up! Do it!”

They roared and madly activated their celestial core power, which flowed through Marquis Wutian’s body and into the mirror.

Weng Weng Weng!

The mirror trembled and released a bright divine light, its aura growing stronger and stronger.

On the other side, the red bow was also trembling. It summoned the divine arrow through the vortex.

The vortex trembled more and more violently, and a bulge gradually protruded out, as if some behemoth was about to rush out of it.

Soon, a spot of light flashed, and the vortex was torn apart from the center. An extremely bright divine light rushed out.

It was an arrow!

A bronze arrow!

It was incomparably large, so large that it was unimaginable. It was like a giant pillar that held up the sky, and the body of the arrow was engraved with curved runes, exuding an ancient and boundless aura.

“This ... This is a F * cking arrow?”

The people in the distance were dumbfounded.

They had never seen such a big arrow before. How could it still be called an arrow when it was so big?

The aura that the arrow gave off made their scalps tingle and their hearts tremble.

Whether it was the bow or the arrow, both of them exuded a terrifying aura.

“Bow and arrow as one! A complete Supreme artifact has been born!”

A Saint exclaimed, his face full of shock.

It had been many years since a complete supreme weapon had appeared in this starry sky!

“Hurry up!”

Seeing this, Emperor Chu and the others became more and more anxious. They roared in unison, bit the tip of their tongues, burned their blood essence, and continued to activate the Emperor Yan mirror.

They still had hope. Although the Emperor Yan mirror was incomplete, they had the advantage in numbers. That brat was alone and injured. How could he unleash the full power of the Supreme weapon? they would definitely win!

All of them were going all out, burning their blood essence non-stop.

The mirror trembled more and more violently, and ripples spread out, turning everything in the surroundings into dust.

“Hiss!”

The Saints in the distance all gasped and backed away in fear.

If even a trace of the overflowing aura was so powerful, one could imagine how terrifying the power of this attack would be if it was blasted out.

Tang Hao’s eyes shot open. He reached out and grabbed the arrow.

“The bow and arrow have become one. This bow is finally complete!”

“Kid, go! Draw the godly bow and shoot through the starry sky!”

Supreme Chao Qing shouted, his voice filled with boundless pride.

The arrow shrunk and landed in Tang Hao’s palm. He nocked the arrow and pulled the bowstring. The arrow glowed brightly in an instant. The talismans on it lit up and glowed with a golden light.

Endless golden light bloomed and enveloped Tang Hao. He stood in the starry sky and drew his bow. His body was covered in a dazzling golden radiance, like a blazing sun.

Waves of powerful auras gushed out in all directions like a tsunami.

BOOM!

The battle had yet to begin, but the auras of both sides had already begun to clash.

“Not enough! It’s far from enough!”

Tang Hao mumbled to himself. With a single thought, the pure yang ring emitted rays of light. They were all bottles of pills. He opened his mouth and sucked. The pills flew out of the bottles and gathered into a stream. He swallowed them all.

“It’s still not enough!”

Following that, he opened his mobile immortal’s cave, and multiple split souls poured out from within, bringing with them stalks of precious medicine.

Tang Hao opened his mouth and inhaled. All of the precious herbs entered his stomach and were quickly refined. In the blink of an eye, they were transformed into pure immortal essence, which then flowed into the arrow.

The aura on the arrow continued to rise, becoming more and more terrifying!

His opponent’s aura was also constantly rising, and it was even faster.

“Brat, don’t think that you can turn the tables just because you have a complete supreme weapon! I’m telling you, you’re dead today! You will never be able to turn the tables!” The old silver Dragon sneered and kept burning his blood essence.

He was a Yao, and his essence blood was the most vigorous. He could burn more than human xiuzhe.

“My good disciple, I’m going to take revenge for you today!”

His eyes were scarlet red and flashed with deep hatred.

The Chu Emperor was also constantly forcing out his blood essence and burning it to pour his power into the mirror.

Essence blood was the most precious thing to a xiuzhe, but now, they had all gone crazy and burned it at all costs.

They knew very well that if they couldn’t kill this brat today, he would be the one to kill them in the future. That was why they were willing to pay any price.

“What’s the big deal with Burning Blood essence?!”

Tang Hao chuckled. He bit the tip of his tongue and began to burn his blood essence. Then, he burned his lifespan. His aura shot up like a rocket.

Very quickly, his aura actually suppressed his opponent.

“This ... How is this possible?”

The Chu Emperor and the others were shocked.

When they took a closer look, they sucked in a cold breath.

Oh my God! Is that kid crazy?! Not only did he burn his blood essence, but he also burned his lifespan.

“This is crazy! They’ve all gone crazy!”

The Saints in the distance looked left and right, their faces pale.

They were all shocked. They had never seen such a crazy situation before!

The Chu Emperor and the others were already crazy enough as they burned their blood essence one after another. However, they didn’t expect that the brat would be even crazier than them. His blood essence and lifespan were burned at the same time. In the blink of an eye, he had burned an unknown amount of blood essence and lifespan.

Lifespan was such a precious thing!

Which xiuze didn’t treasure their lifespan as much as their life!

Then, they laughed bitterly. It was no wonder. That kid was too young. He was only in his forties. First tribulation saints had a long lifespan. This kid could burn it boldly.

“Continue!”

Seeing the opponent’s aura rising crazily and steadily suppressing them, the Chu Emperor and the others became anxious and shouted in a hoarse voice.

“Hmph! I’ll also accompany you to the end!”

Marquis Wutian shouted coldly and began to burn his lifespan.

He was only in his sixties and had a long lifespan that was not inferior to that Tang fellow.

After burning a thousand years of his life, Tang Hao stopped. He waved his hand, and countless beads flew out. They were All Souls. He opened his mouth and swallowed them all. His soul immediately expanded.

He began to slash the soul, then burned it, and poured it into the arrow.

When he was done, he stopped again. The aura on the arrow was so strong that he could not control it.

Black marks began to appear in the surrounding starry sky, as if it could no longer withstand this power.
