

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1666

In the central star area, people were all waiting.

They were waiting for the news from the front line.

Not long ago, the pursuit had already left the central star area. It was said that they had crossed dozens of star areas and had reached an extremely distant place.

It was too far away, and the news would take a long time to come back.

“It’s been so long, they should have caught up!”

“I think it’s about time. That Tang guy is probably dead!”

Everyone felt that the pursuit was almost over, and that surnamed Tang should die.

After waiting for a few more days, there was finally news.

However, this news made everyone not know whether to laugh or cry.

“The Chu Emperor and the others were defeated?”

“Marquis Wutian is dead! Even the old silver Dragon is dead? Hahaha! Where did this lousy news come from? I would be a fool to believe it!”

When everyone heard this, they all laughed and thought it was just a joke.

How could the Chu Emperor and the others lose? there were so many saints and a supreme weapon. There was no one stronger than them in the entire starry sky. It was impossible for them to fail in chasing after a heavily injured Saint!

What was worse was that he said Marquis Wutian and the old silver Dragon were dead.

How could this be possible?!

One was a Supreme monster, and the other was a peak Saint. How could they have died?

Ridiculous! This was too absurd!

Everyone scoffed at the news.

He had thought that after a few days, this absurd news would automatically disappear. However, he didn’t expect that this news didn’t disappear. Instead, it spread even more fiercely. Those big Chambers of Commerce and big forces were all spreading it. When they talked about it, their faces were filled with disbelief. It was as if even they themselves didn’t dare to believe it.

The crowd began to hesitate.

However, they still couldn't believe it because the news was too absurd.

A few days later, there was news from the central sacred planet that Emperor Chu and the others had returned a few days ago. They had fled back and were in a sorry state. As soon as they returned, they went into seclusion and even activated the great formation of the divine dynasty as if they were facing a great enemy.

As for Marquis Wutian, he seemed to have disappeared. No one from the great Qi Kingdom had seen him.

Only then did the crowd begin to believe the news. The Chu Emperor and the others had indeed been defeated, and Marquis Wutian was most likely doomed.

"How is this possible? Wasn't that Tang guy injured? even if he wasn't, he couldn't have defeated so many people like the Chu Emperor!"

They were all puzzled.

Soon, more detailed information was spread from the people who had witnessed the battle.

"That Tang guy has a complete supreme weapon!"

"That's a bow! A Supreme divine bow! That battle was simply earth-shattering. That one arrow killed three saints-Marquis Wutian, the old silver Dragon, and a Saint from Donglin!"

After hearing this, everyone was shocked.

Marquis Wutian's display of a broken supreme weapon had already shaken the world, but now, that Tang fellow had actually produced a complete supreme weapon!

"A complete Supreme artifact! He had killed three saints with one arrow! Are you kidding me? who would be a match for that kid in the future?"

Countless people laughed bitterly.

The Chu Emperor's party was probably the strongest lineup in the starry sky. If even so many of them were no match for him, then there was basically no one who could do anything to that brat. He was almost invincible!

"He's only in his forties!"

When they thought of his age, they could only smile bitterly.

If someone had told them in the past that a 40-something-year-old could stand at the peak of the starry sky, they would not have believed it even if they were beaten to death. But now, someone had really done it.

“Why are the young people nowadays more and more abnormal?”

The older generation couldn't help but sigh and sigh that they couldn't keep up with the times.

While everyone was in an uproar, on the other side, Tang Hao found a place to recuperate for half a month. He had finally recovered quite a bit.

That battle had cost him too much, but his lifespan was not a big deal. He was still young and could afford to waste it. As long as he ascended to the fourth heaven of the immortal tribulation realm, he would be able to obtain a longer lifespan. The change of the fourth heaven of the immortal tribulation realm was that his lifespan was limitless.

He had burned too much of his blood essence, and that was the most painful part. He had eaten many pills, but he had only recovered half of it.

“It's almost time!”

Having recovered more than half of his strength, Tang Hao was no longer afraid of meeting any more Saints. He stood up and left.

“Why don't we return to the central sacred planet and exterminate Da Qi and the rest ...”

Tang Hao pondered the entire way.

Emperor Qi and the others were still alive, and they were a great disaster.

Emperor Qi and Emperor Chu were both peak Saints who had been in the complete realm for many years. They were probably not far from the second tribulation. Once they passed the Tribulation and formed the Supreme primordial spirit, it would be bad.

There were Nine Heavens of the immortal tribulation, and there was a huge gap between each of them. Even a supreme weapon would not be able to make up for this huge gap.

However, considering that his injuries had yet to recover, he dispelled this idea.

The two dynasties had deep foundations, and it would not be easy for him to break in.

“It seems that I have to reach the second tribulation realm as soon as possible. Then I won't have to be afraid of these two old monsters.”

Tang Hao was very close to perfection now, and he would be able to attempt the second tribulation soon.

The second tribulation was the divine soul tribulation. He still had a certain advantage because he had cultivated the God void Sutra and the pure yang Sutra. His divine soul was quite strong. As long as it strengthened a little more, he should be able to withstand the Tribulation lightning.

"I don't have to go back to the central planet for now. I'll go back to Donglin first. Oh, I still have to go to planet Cang Ling."

Just as he was about to leave, Tang Hao thought of the che clan on planet Cang Ling.

No matter what, he was still a descendant of the che clan. He had received such a huge favor from Supreme Chao Qing, so he had to return it no matter what.

He was going to use the arrows, and he would never return them. Besides, even if he did return them, these Xiu clan people wouldn't be able to keep them. He might as well keep them for himself.

"Give me some treasure pills, tribulation weapons, and the like!"

Tang Hao had prepared a lot of things.

This time, he had directly descended upon the che clan.

The entire che clan was alarmed. Countless clansmen rushed out and looked at the figure descending from the sky in horror.

"Which expert has come to visit our che clan?"

The chief of the Xiu clan shouted.

"I have an affinity with your Qiang tribe and have received the grace of your ancestors. Today, I'm here to repay you. This is a little token of my appreciation, please accept it!"

Tang Hao flicked his wrist, and a ray of light flew out and landed in the clan leader's hand.

The clan leader opened it and was so shocked that he almost threw the ring away.

The ring was filled with treasures, and the dazzling light of the treasures almost blinded his eyes.

"Se ... Senior, this ... This is really for us?" He swallowed his saliva and asked suspiciously.

He felt that this was too unreal, like a dream!

"Don't worry!" Tang Hao laughed. Just accept it! This is for you. If you have any trouble in the future, you can go to planet Dong Ling and look for the equal heaven Department there!" As he spoke, he threw out a token.

It was just an ordinary heaven's equal token, but he had left a thought on it.

"Planet Dong Lin?"

The clan leader was stunned. Then, as if he had thought of something, he revealed an extremely horrified expression.

Then, he became excited and hurriedly bowed. "Thank you, senior Tang!"

How could he not have heard of this person? the news had long spread because the immortal astral land was in this star field. That battle had caused a sensation, and they had gone around to find out the situation. Only then did they know about this immortal venerable Tang.

He was even more aware that the fate that immortal venerable Tang had mentioned should be that divine arrow.

He didn't have any thoughts about it. After all, the arrow had been missing for thousands of years. Now that this person had it, it should be his. Even if this person wanted to return it, he didn't dare to take it!

"You're quite well-informed!"

Tang Hao said with a smile.

"Let's do this! I'm leaving, see you again!"

With that, Tang Hao flicked his sleeve and left. He returned to the Dong Lin Galaxy.
