

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1669

After the two saints Luofu and Kuxuan, a few more Saints came.

The other Saints of the Dong Lin astral realm had all gathered in the equal heaven courtyard.

They had all brought many treasures and were extremely enthusiastic, almost as if they were trying to curry favor with him.

Their goal was naturally the same. They had come for alchemy Saint Tang. In fact, a few months ago, when they heard that immortal venerable Tang had won the first place in the alchemy gathering on the central sacred planet, they had been tempted.

To be able to become the first in the elixir gathering, he would definitely become a saint in the alchemy Dao in the future.

But then, they heard that immortal venerable Tang had provoked the people of the central sacred planet and that he was about to face a great disaster. They felt that it was a pity. They did not expect that not only did immortal venerable Tang not die, but he had also defeated his opponent and shocked the starry sky.

What made them even more excited was that it was said that celestial venerable Tang had already become a saint in the Dao of alchemy and had even refined Supreme divine pills like the creation divine pill. His attainments in the Dao of alchemy were unfathomable.

As soon as they heard the news, they couldn't help but rush over. They wanted to please the heaven-equal Department first, and then get on alchemy Saint Tang's good side so that they could ask him for alchemy pills in the future.

In the Saint realm, ordinary pills were useless, and the useful pills were all Saint level pills. They couldn't refine them themselves, and only pill Saints could do it.

However, alchemy Saints were extremely rare. It had been many years since an alchemy Saint had appeared. This alchemy Saint Tang was currently the only alchemy Saint. Venerable Tang himself was a treasure, even more precious than a supreme weapon!

With so many saints gathered together, it was extremely lively.

"Hahaha! I really didn't expect that the few of us would get together and have a drink together!"

Saint Luofu sighed.

Although they were both Saints of Donglin, they rarely interacted with each other. It was the first time they were drinking together.

All of this was because of alchemy Saint Tang!

"Speaking of which, I'm afraid those few are regretting it to death now!"

Saint Kuxuan suddenly said.

All the Saints were stunned for a moment before they realized that the people Saint Kuxuan was referring to were the Daluo Swordmaster and the Lingxiao immortal master.

These people had teamed up with the old Daoist Hunyuan, Mountain Master war god, and the others to deal with the equal heaven courtyard.

“I’m afraid his intestines are turning green!”

The group of Saints laughed mockingly.

These people were also quite miserable. So many of them had gone up against the heavenly Academy, but they had been defeated instead and driven out of Donglin by the heavenly Academy. It was like trying to steal a chicken but losing the rice.

Now that venerable Tang’s strength had increased to another level and he had a supreme weapon in his hand, these people were probably scared witless!

“Speaking of which, where did these few go? Long time no see!”

“Hey! Who knows, they might still be recuperating. It’s said that they were all seriously injured in that battle!”

As he said that, everyone laughed again, feeling a little pitiful for these few guys.

They didn’t leave, so they stayed in the equal heaven courtyard. They stood at the mountain Gate every day, looking forward to alchemy Saint Tang’s return. They were even more anxious than the courtyard master and the others.

After more than half a month, alchemy Saint Tang didn’t come, but Beichen’s people did.

“I’m Xuan Yan from Bi Ling Palace. I’m here to pay my respects to fellow Daoist Qi Tian!”

Green Spirit Palace came first, followed by heavenly Academy. Even the killing Saint sect came with countless treasures.

Not only Beichen, but even Nanli’s people had come.

The Nanli Dongshi mountain and the other superpowers had all sent their Saints to visit.

These were all super forces. After them, there were even more people from the major forces, various sects, and ancient clans. They were like a flood that came from all directions and gathered on planet Dong Ling.

During this period of time, planet Dong Ling was extremely lively, and the sky was filled with light.

After landing, they all headed straight for the heaven-equal courtyard to pay their respects.

Some of them came for venerable Tang's strength, and some came for his status as an alchemy Saint. Their performance was the same, respectful and fawning.

"This cave is where venerable Tang lives?"

Since master immortal Tang didn't come back, they stayed in the equal heaven courtyard. Someone led them around the equal heaven courtyard. When they arrived at sky-filling peak and saw master immortal Tang's cave, they were shocked!

Following that, a feeling of admiration arose spontaneously.

He was a Saint and a peerless monster, yet he lived in such a simple and crude cave. What a simple and Noble style.

"Venerable Tang is truly a master!"

They all sighed and felt sincere admiration.

"He just entered the equal heaven courtyard, and venerable Tang broke the plants and vegetation ranking? Amazing!"

After hearing about venerable Tang's deeds, they were even more shocked and in awe.

This guy was simply a super pervert! He had just entered the equal heaven courtyard, and he had already done a great thing. Later on, he had done one great thing after another that had shaken planet Dong Ling.

"I'm telling you, I'm a neighbor of alchemy Saint Tang. When I first saw him, I knew that this guy wasn't ordinary. He's someone who does great things. Isn't that nonsense? an outstanding person like alchemy Saint Tang is born with a domineering aura, you can tell with a glance!"

Tang Hao's neighbor started bragging again.

Previously, he had been bragging to the people from the equal heaven Department, but now he was bragging to this group of people from all the major forces in the starry sky. He was beaming with joy and extremely excited.

As soon as they heard that he and alchemy Saint Tang were neighbors, the group of people were also excited. One after another, they stuffed treasures into his hands and tried to curry favor.

Tang Hao was shocked when he returned.

The huge heaven-reaching courtyard was crowded with people who were walking around and looking around. It was very noisy, and it had become a tourist attraction.

His fellow disciples and his group of Masters were all leading the tour.

“This, my precious disciple used it before. It’s undergarments and has a smell. How about it? Fixed price, 50 million!”

Wang Liang’s master was holding a piece of clothing and displaying it to a group of people, his expression extremely wretched.

Tang Hao’s face darkened.

When he saw that someone really wanted it, he couldn’t help but cover his face.

Looking around, alchemy Saint Tang’s personal clothes, used bowls and chopsticks, chairs, all of them had been moved out and sold by this group of unscrupulous fellow disciples and master.

“Cough cough!”

Tang Hao could not stand it anymore. He landed and coughed a few times.

“Aiya! My good disciple, you’re back!”

Wang Liang’s master looked up and was shocked. He then chuckled at Tang Hao in embarrassment.

“That’s alchemy Saint Tang?”

“Alchemy Saint Tang is back!”

The crowd below was in an uproar as they erupted into earth-shattering cheers.

In the blink of an eye, the commotion had spread out. Cries of surprise came from all directions, and the entire mountain range was in an uproar. Countless people rushed over, fighting to get close to Tang Hao and see his elegance.

“Master immortal Tang, I’m from the xxx sect. This is a small token of my appreciation. Please accept it!”

“Master immortal Tang, we’re from the xxx race ...”

They squeezed forward and gave him their treasures.

“Cough, cough! I appreciate your good intentions, but if you have anything to give me, take it to the court Master! I don’t need it!” Tang Hao waved his hand and smiled.

After much effort, he finally managed to get rid of these people. He came to the hall and saw many saints.

Many of them were familiar to him, such as Saint ancestor Xuan pin and the heavenly book Academy master. He had dealt with them several times, and the few Saints of Nanli were also considered friends.

The Saints came up and congratulated him.

Then, they presented their treasures and expressed their willingness to ask Tang Hao to make them pills.

“Well, that’s easy! But the reward can’t be low, and the materials must be prepared. Also, you have to line up, one by one. ”

Tang Hao didn’t refuse their requests. They were All Saints, and if he could befriend them, it would be of great benefit to the development of the heaven-equal courtyard and Kunlun.
