

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1671

Tang Hao traveled the entire Dong Lin Galaxy in a year.

He had been to every single star and walked around. He had gained quite a bit, so he also returned to Jumen star and even went back to Qiyuan to take a look.

“The sixth one!”

After a whole year, Tang Hao had made six nature divine pills.

Even though he had concocted more than a hundred times, the success rate of this pill was still very low. The best was to make one pill after seven or eight times, and most of the time, it took more than ten times.

“Who should I give it to?”

Tang Hao hesitated as he held the six creation divine pills.

This pill is extraordinary and must not be given out casually.

The Taoist priest and the others were the closest to him, but they already had the minor creation divine pill, so they didn't need this pill.

“Why don't we ... Give it to sis Xiangyi and the others?”

Tang Hao thought about it for a long time, then decided to give it to sis Xiangyi and the others.

In the past, he had always been vexed about how to raise their realms. Now that he had this creation divine pill, raising their realms was no longer a problem. As long as he had enough resources, he could do it by throwing in as much as he could.

“Six isn't enough. I have to make a few more. As for the star pupil ... She already has the mystic fairy Pearl, so she doesn't need the creation divine body!”

Tang Hao calculated that he still needed four more, so he continued to make more.

Over the past year, planet Dong Lin had been peaceful, and the heavenly Academy's prestige had never been before seen. From time to time, starships would come from the distant starry sky to visit the heavenly Academy, and an endless stream of people would come to ask for pills.

As for the two God dynasties, they didn't make any moves and had been lying low.

One day, Tang Hao was just about to leave his mobile abode after taking care of his spirit herbs when he sensed someone outside.

“Tang brat, someone's looking for you!”

The sect master had come personally.

Tang Hao left the cave abode and asked, "Who is it!"

There were many people looking for him. Every day, there would be a large wave of people who came to find him to refine pills, but it was rare to see the headmaster personally looking for him. It seemed that the other party was at least a Saint and had some background.

"He's also a Saint. His surname is Qin, and he said that he has some friendship with you."

The headmaster said.

"Qin?"

Tang Hao was surprised. He was confused.

"Could it be him?"

Suddenly, Tang Hao thought of the Qin Emperor. He hurried over and saw that it was really him. He was only wearing plain clothes, and there was no trace of the domineering aura of an Emperor on him.

After a closer look, Tang Hao recognized that it was only a clone.

And this avatar was also a Saint!

"A saint's avatar. As expected of the Qin Emperor!"

Tang Hao was shocked.

"Long time no see, brother Tang!" Seeing him, the Qin Emperor cupped his hands and laughed heartily.

"The Qin Emperor!"

Tang Hao returned the gesture.

The sect head's expression changed slightly. There was only one person called Qin Huang in the starry sky, and that was the Lord of the great Qin divine dynasty.

"So it's the Qin Emperor! Impolite! I'm sorry!" The headmaster bowed respectfully.

"Ai! You're too polite!" The Qin Emperor said with a smile.

"Come! Please come in!" The sect master hurriedly invited him in.

The three of them sat down in the main hall. "What's the matter with the Qin Emperor? it can't be another alchemy, right?"

“Hahaha! Are you scared, brother Tang? I’ve heard that many people have come to you to refine pills!” The Qin Emperor joked.

“I’m really scared!” Tang Hao smiled wryly. There were too many people who came to him for alchemy, and most of them were rejected by the headmaster. He was all alone, and there was no way he could refine all the pills with so many people.

“Don’t worry! It’s not because of this!” Then, the Qin Emperor’s expression turned serious. He lowered his voice and said, “I’m here to discuss a big matter with you, brother Tang!”

“Oh?” Tang Hao’s expression changed.

The yard master’s expression changed slightly, and he got up to leave.

“Fellow Daoist Qitian, don’t leave, don’t leave. You’re also involved in this.” The Qin Emperor said hurriedly.

The sect master was startled, but he still sat back down and looked at the Qin Emperor in confusion.

The Qin Emperor smiled and said to Tang Hao, “Recently, those two old guys have made some moves. They’ve come out of their own territory.”

Tang Hao raised an eyebrow. The two old geezers mentioned by the Qin Emperor were naturally the Qi Emperor and the Chu Emperor.

The Qin Emperor continued, “brother Tang, you’ve killed the Crown Prince of Chu and Marquis Wutian. You have a blood feud with these two old guys. They will never let you go. Recently, they’ve been looking for opportunities to break through to the primordial soul transformation. They want to break through to the second calamity and come back to take revenge.”

“I understand!” Tang Hao nodded.

He and these two old men would definitely not rest until one of them was dead.

“Look, brother Tang. You have a grudge against them, and I also have a grudge against them. I’ve always felt that the central sacred planet is too small to accommodate the five great divine dynasties. It’s best if we can reduce two of them and only keep three. What do you think?”

“Oh,” Tang Hao said. He understood what the Qin Emperor was planning. He wanted to join forces with him to destroy the Qi and Chu kingdoms.

“This ... is feasible!”

Tang Hao pondered for a moment, then nodded.

Those two old guys are a bit hard to deal with. It’s better to work with the Qin Emperor and get rid of them together.

“That’s great! Brother Tang, Let’s cooperate with sincerity and get rid of those two old guys!” The Qin Emperor slapped his thigh and said excitedly, “then let’s have a good discussion. As far as I know, these two guys have been looking for a ruin recently. It’s the ruin of an ancient sect called the Dharma characteristic school.”

“The materialization sect?”

Tang Hao was surprised.

“That’s right! They’re a sect that specializes in cultivating the soul. Their soul cultivation technique was famous in ancient times, and they’ve taken a fancy to it. With this secret technique, they can strengthen their soul, cross the immortal tribulation, and step into the second tribulation realm!”

“I see! Then do you know where the remains are?” Tang Hao said.

The Qin Emperor shook his head and said, “I’m not sure about that yet. But I’m already tracking the two old guys. I’ll know if they find anything. That’s why I only sent my clone here. My real body is busy over there!”

“Let’s not waste any time. Let’s go!” Tang Hao said after a moment of thought. That’s right, we have to call more people over, it’s easier to do things with more people!”

“Alright, alright!” The Qin Emperor hurriedly stood up.

It was inconvenient for the yard Master to leave, so Tang Hao pulled Daoist Qingzhu along with him. Then, he called for Luo Fu, ku Xuan, and the others. When they saw Tang Hao personally visit, they agreed without even saying what they were going to do.

“Since alchemy Saint Tang has invited me, I’ll go through fire and water without hesitation!”

“Alchemy Saint Tang, thank you so much for last time. Look at my cultivation level, it hasn’t risen for decades, but now it has risen by a large margin all thanks to you! Just tell me what you want me to do. Even if you want to slay a Dragon, I’ll go with you. ”

After Tang Hao went around, there were many more Saints on the ship, and the group grew.

He even went around Beichen and pulled more people with him. More and more people were on the ship, and the entire ship was filled with Saints. The group of people aggressively charged toward the central star area.
