

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1672

In the starry sky, a huge ship was speeding.

Some people saw it from afar and were stunned.

The ship was very large and was shrouded in a resplendent radiance. One could vaguely see many figures standing on the bow deck. Each of them was resplendent with immortal radiance that illuminated the surroundings.

That was not the immortal light of a heavenly Lord who had become immortal, but the immortal light of a Saint. The difference between the two was like the difference between a Firefly and the bright moon. The difference was so great that it could be seen at a glance.

“Are my eyes playing tricks on me?”

“F * ck! Am I dreaming?”

They were all in a daze and couldn't believe their eyes. Many of them rubbed their eyes, and many of them even slapped themselves a few times to wake themselves up.

If it wasn't a dream, how could he see such an absurd scene!

Saints were extremely rare, and it was usually difficult to even see one. How could there be so many at once? this wasn't just two or three, but twenty or thirty. Even if one searched the entire heavenly world, it was impossible to find so many saints!

However, no matter how he slapped or twisted, the scene was the same when he looked at it again.

“This ... This can't be true, right?”

They were still in disbelief.

After looking at it again and again, they were finally sure that it was true. There were twenty to thirty Saints gathered on this huge ship!

“Heavens!”

They gasped in shock and horror.

A single Saint was already terrifying enough. With so many saints gathered together, what a terrifying force it would be!

“Mother! This line-up ... Is too scary!”

“Is something big going to happen?”

They all cried out in shock as they watched the ship leave and disappear into the horizon.

“Faster!”

On the huge warship, the Qin Emperor shouted with an anxious expression.

Just a few days ago, news came from his main body in the distant central star area, saying that the two old men had discovered something. They had to hurry over as soon as possible, or they would be finished if they missed the opportunity.

If the two old monsters found the transcendence sect’s Secret skill and obtained it, they would no longer be able to do anything to the two old monsters. They might even be in danger of being destroyed.

“The materialization sect! I’ve also heard of it!”

A Saint from the central astral world stroked his beard and said, “this sect has an extremely ancient history, and the soul cultivation technique they are good at is also passed down from ancient times. They can cultivate the divine soul into a supreme dharma form. When cultivated to the deepest level, this Dharma form can resist the Tribulation lightning and easily pass the immortal tribulation.”

“This is truly a Supreme secret technique. If it really exists, we must get it.”

As he spoke, his eyes revealed a fervent look.

The other Saints were the same.

They would have to undergo the second lightning tribulation sooner or later. If they had this secret technique, it would be much easier to undergo the Tribulation in the future.

They had boarded the ship to repay alchemy Saint Tang’s kindness, but now, they had more motivation. A secret technique that could help them pass the second immortal tribulation was something they had to get their hands on even if it meant risking their lives.

The Qin Emperor laughed and said, “of course. We must get this secret technique. Don’t worry. Once we get it, we can all study it.”

“Many thanks, Qin Shi Huang!”

Everyone expressed their thanks and were extremely excited.

Tang Hao stood at the front with his hands behind his back. He was deep in thought.

This so-called secret technique of the materialization sect should be somewhat similar to the God void Scripture. One cultivated the void Spirit while the other cultivated the Dharma. The two had something in common.

The difference was that the Dharma was more powerful, and the hollow spirit was much weaker. After all, it was a place for soul cultivation that had been passed down from the ancient times, so it must be extraordinary. On the other hand, the God void Scripture was only created by later generations.

“My cultivation is almost complete. As long as I get this secret technique, I can break through to the second tribulation realm soon.”

Tang Hao mumbled.

When he had been traveling around Dong Lin Galaxy, he had obtained many things that could increase his cultivation. His cultivation had increased a lot and was almost at the peak stage.

The huge ship sped through the starry sky and arrived at the central star region at its fastest speed, where it met up with the Qin Emperor’s body.

“Alchemy Saint Tang!”

Marquis Wu of great Qin and his divine form followed behind him. There were three other people in black robes. Their faces were Haggard, and they looked extremely old. Looking at their auras, they were All Saints.

“These three are the protectors of my Qin clan!”

The Qin Emperor explained, “in our five great divine dynasties, every royal family has a Guardian. The great Qi and great Chu also have three guardians.”

“As expected of a divine dynasty!”

Many saints smiled bitterly.

Ordinary forces didn’t have such protectors because they didn’t have many saints. Most of them tried to go to the 33 heavens and few were willing to sacrifice themselves to stay here. However, the five great God dynasties had a deep foundation and had many saints, so they could leave some people behind to become protectors.

“Let’s go!”

The true form of the Qin Emperor waved his hand, beckoning everyone to board his large ship. Then, the ship galloped away.

“I’ve been tracking those two old men. They haven’t found out yet, but they’re very vigilant and have even invited their guardians!”

While they were on their way, the Qin Emperor introduced the situation to everyone.

“Actually, they found the ruins of the Dharma characteristic school not long ago,” ye mo said. “However, the ruins have already been visited by others. It’s empty inside. There’s nothing there, not even the secret technique.”

“Those two old fogeys didn’t give up either. They looked around and actually managed to find out a few things. In the end, they found out who the secret technique is in.”

“There’s a glittering Jewel Star up ahead. There’s a small sect on it called the Dharma School. Their patriarch excavated the ruins of the Dharma School and made a name for himself. He founded a new Dharma School on the glittering Jewel Star.”

“It was glorious for a period of time in the past, but now it has declined. It’s just a small, dilapidated sect that is very unremarkable. Those two old fellows also spent a lot of effort to find it.”

“Coincidentally, this small sect was destroyed a few years ago. It was exterminated, but there’s still a successor outside. The secret technique should be on him. Now, people from the great Qi and great Chu are all over the glittering star, looking for this successor of the Dharma characteristic school.”

“They haven’t found it yet. We still have some time.”

As he spoke, the warship continued to accelerate and burst out with its fastest speed.

In less than a day’s time, they had arrived at glittering Jewel Star.

From a distance, they could see the ships of great Qi and great Chu stopped there.

“Use this!”

Tang Hao took out the universe map. “If you use this to sneak in, they won’t be able to find you.”

“This is the universe map of the path of origin? What a good treasure!”

The Saints’ eyes lit up.

The universe map of the path of origin was well-known. It was a Supreme treasure for robbing and killing.

The group of people sneaked in. Tang Hao activated the scroll of the world and entered glittering Jewel Star. Soon, he found Emperor Chu and Emperor Qi, as well as many saints. They had spread out and were searching the stars.

They looked anxious and solemn. They had been searching for almost two days, but they still couldn’t find anything.

“We don’t even know what it looks like, how are we supposed to find it?”

They were all a little depressed. They had heard that there was still a successor of the Dharma characteristic school outside who had survived the battle that had destroyed the school. However, they didn’t know who it was, which was why they had been searching for so long.

They swept around and released their divine senses to search the souls of everyone they saw, searching for clues from their memories.

“Soul searching directly? what a vicious method!”

Tang Hao was a little angry.

Those were all low-level cultivators, and there were even many mortals. Forcibly searching their souls would cause great damage to them, and some mortals might even die.

“These two old men are already anxious and unscrupulous!” The Qin Emperor was also furious.

Although he wasn't a kind person, he had never been so cruel to mortals and low level cultivators.

“Make your move!”

Tang Hao shouted.

“Good! I'll follow your orders, alchemy Saint Tang!”

“F * ck! Kill these two old guys!”

All the Saints were excited.

“Alright!” The Qin Emperor also nodded.

Tang Hao immediately tore open the void and was about to attack.

At this moment, something seemed to have happened below. Emperor Qi suddenly laughed.”Hahaha! I've found it!” He let out an excited shout and dashed out.

“There's a situation!”

Tang Hao retracted his hand and followed them on the scroll of the world.
