

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1674

"It's said that some of the experts of great Chu's royal family who are about to reach the end of their lifespans will enter it to extend their lives. Even some foreign experts will sign a contract with great Chu to enter it and become the last force that protects great Chu. This should be great Chu's strongest trump card."

The Chu Emperor's expression turned grave as he spoke.

He had only heard of it and had never been sure. It was only when he saw it with his own eyes that he remembered the rumor.

Tang Hao was shocked when he heard that.

He could control time?

This was truly an incredible treasure!

This was the first time Tang Hao had seen a treasure that could control time.

"The ancient seal of great Chu actually has such an effect?"

Many saints cried out in surprise. They had all heard of this ancient seal before, as it was the symbol of the great Chu divine Emperor. However, they had never known that this ancient seal had such a miraculous ability.

"Hmph! Old man Qin, it's too late for you to remember now! You forced me to do this. If it wasn't for the last moment, I wouldn't have used this trump card!"

The Chu Emperor snorted coldly.

These people were at the end of their lifespans, and every time they came out, their lifespans would be reduced by a lot. According to the rules passed down by their ancestors, he could not wake these people up unless it was a matter of life and death for great Chu.

He activated the ancient seal again, and more figures flew out. There was a total of eleven people, and their cultivation levels were not yet at the peak, but they were still quite powerful. Each of them had an extraordinary aura, and it was likely that they were all famous characters in the ancient times.

With the addition of the previous seven peak experts, there were a total of eighteen experts who came out of the ancient seal. The number of people on both sides was almost equal.

Furthermore, they had many more peak Saints on their side, so they had an advantage.

"Old Qin, you still have me!"

"Kill!" Emperor Qi shouted and waved his hand. A Black Flag flew out, and seven beams of light shot out and turned into seven figures, all of whom exuded the aura of the peak.

“Another peak!”

“Something’s wrong! It’s not a living person, it’s a puppet!”

The Saints on Tang Hao’s side cried out in shock.

“It’s the great Qi Kingdom’s martial God puppet!”

The Qin Emperor said in a deep voice, his expression extremely unsightly.

What he had not expected was that these two old fellows had brought the most powerful trump cards of the dynasty with them. Of course, great Qin also had them, but they could not use them as they pleased, so he had not brought them out.

“Old Qin, you didn’t expect this, did you? Let’s see if you can still be arrogant now!” The Emperor of Qi sneered.

He exchanged a look with the Chu Emperor and shouted, “Do it!”

All the Saints and the seven puppets attacked at the same time.

“What do we do?”

The Saints on Tang Hao’s side hesitated. After the two divine dynasties used their most powerful means, the situation had suddenly reversed, and they were in a bad position.

“I’m not afraid! I’ll kill a few first, and you guys join forces to block them!”

As Tang Hao said that, he lifted his leg and strode toward his opponent.

“Yo! This guy is crazy!”

“Hahaha! Kill a few first? Such big words! How come after a few thousand years, the xiuzhe nowadays are all so arrogant!”

When the group of ancient old men heard this, they couldn’t help but laugh. They felt that this guy was really ridiculous.

Judging from his aura, this guy hadn’t even reached the peak. Even if he was just a little bit away, he couldn’t be considered a peak-stage Saint. With this cultivation, he dared to talk big to the seniors and say that he would kill a few first.

This tone was so arrogant that there was no limit!

They were even more furious. They were old seniors, yet they were looked down upon by a junior.

“Little kid, today I’ll teach you how to be a human! You were nowhere to be found when I, the old ancestor, was commanding the wind and clouds!”

The red-haired old monster laughed hideously and pounced forward.

His physical body was extremely strong, and his qi and blood were like dragons. There were even flames of anger rising around him, emitting an astonishingly high temperature.

“Little kid, look carefully. This is the bone of a Vermilion Bird. You know the Vermilion Bird, right? it’s an ancient divine beast that’s on par with the true dragon and true Phoenix!” The red-haired old man said proudly.

Then, with a ferocious expression, he clawed at them.

Seeing this, the Chu Emperor and the other two became anxious. They were about to shout out to this senior to be careful, but it was already too late.

“The Vermilion Bird bone ... Is not bad!”

Tang Hao mumbled to himself. His expression was calm. He did not try to Dodge the incoming opponent. Instead, he twisted his neck slightly, clenched his fist, and threw out a punch.

The blood Qi in his body boiled and the God spirit bone in his body trembled, emitting a dazzling seven-colored light.

Whoosh!

This punch was so powerful that it shattered the void. Wherever it passed, it left a dark space crack.

His aura was domineering like an ancient beast. Before the punch had even arrived, his aura had already pressed over like an avalanche, causing the red-haired old monster to stagger.

He was stunned and froze in disbelief.

“This ... This aura ...”

He gasped in shock, his eyes wide open, but his heart was in turmoil.

Oh my God! This aura ... How was it possible! This guy ... What kind of monster was he!

He wailed in his heart.

Just this aura alone was enough to make his mind tremble.

He wanted to retreat and avoid the punch instead of taking it head-on, but it was too late. Under his shocked gaze, the punch came and collided with his claw.

Ah!

There was a scream.

Then, with a plop, the red-haired old monster's body trembled as if he had been struck by lightning. His body was sent flying like a cannonball, and blood spurted out of his mouth.

As for his five fingers, they had long been split open by that punch, and blood was spurting out.

Hiss!

Seeing this, the other old monsters were all stunned and stopped their movements.

They widened their eyes in shock.

However, they were in disbelief. The red-haired old man was at the peak of the cultivation realm, and he had the Vermilion Bird bone with him. His physical body was incredibly strong, and he was a famous magnate expert in the ancient times.

As for that guy, he hadn't even reached the peak, so how could he send the red-haired old man flying with a single punch?

In this exchange of blows, that fellow had completely crushed him!

The expressions of the Chu Emperor and the others also changed. They had not expected that the red-haired old monster would be defeated so miserably that he could not even take a single punch.

"Who ... Who is this guy?"

An old monster asked as he looked at the Chu Emperor.

"This guy isn't simple," the Chu Emperor said with a gloomy face. "He's the strongest among this group of people!"

"What? He's the strongest?"

The group of old monsters were a little surprised.

There was clearly a peak Saint in that group, but he was inferior to this guy?

"He's a monster. He's only in his forties this year, and he has a complete supreme weapon in his hands! It's a godly bow!" The Chu Emperor said.

"In his forties?"

"A Supreme artifact?"

Hearing this, the old monsters were all dumbfounded and couldn't believe it.
