

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1676

In the sky, many figures stood still.

They all looked at the stone tablet in the middle with infatuation, and many of them were muttering to themselves.

“Wonderful! It was too wonderful! As expected of an ancient secret technique!”

“When the soul is cultivated to the extreme, it can transform into a Dharma form. One can fly in the sky and burrow underground without fear. It’s comparable to the physical body. What an amazing secret technique!”

They couldn’t help but praise.

They were all making the best use of their time to comprehend this cultivation technique. In just a short while, a light flashed on someone’s head as their soul left their body and they began to try out this secret technique.

Then, more and more people joined in.

One by one, their divine souls left their bodies and began to transform. Some turned into Tigers, some into Eagles. They were of all kinds and dazzled the eyes.

These Tigers and Eagles were formed from divine souls, but they seemed to have physical bodies, as if they were made of flesh and blood. It was a wonderful sight.

Everyone present was a Saint, and to be able to cultivate to this realm, their aptitudes were definitely not bad. They had basically grasped the general method after just one look.

Especially the Chu Emperor and the others, who had been monstrous in their early years and had amazing comprehension. Now, their speed of comprehension was much faster than that of ordinary saints. While others were still transforming into the lowest Dharma laksanas such as Eagles and tigers, they had already begun to transform into Dharma laksanas such as ghosts and spirits.

These apparitions were even larger in size, and their auras were even more astonishing.

“This old Qin is quite powerful!”

“They have also condensed it. No, I have to be faster. I can’t be surpassed by them!”

The two sides looked at each other, and then put in even more effort to comprehend and cultivate.

Many people on the Chu Emperor’s side were also looking at Tang Hao. They were surprised to see him standing there without moving.

“What’s wrong with this kid? Why aren’t you moving?”

They were all a little puzzled.

Apart from this brat, there were also a few martial God puppets. Basically, everyone was working hard on their cultivation, trying out the transformation technique, wanting to master this secret technique as soon as possible. However, this brat was not moving at all, which was really strange.

However, on second thought, they felt at ease.

This kid hadn't reached perfection yet. Even if he had mastered it now, so what? he still couldn't attempt the immortal tribulation, so he wasn't in a hurry to comprehend the secret technique.

This was an opportunity!

The Chu Emperor and the others were secretly pleased with themselves. They were all in the realm of perfection. As long as they could comprehend the secret technique and pass the immortal tribulation in one fell swoop, they could easily take revenge.

Furthermore, they had more peak Saints than the Qin Emperor. Even if the Qin Emperor reached the second calamity, he wouldn't be a match for them. They had a higher chance of winning.

At that moment, they put in even more effort to comprehend it.

Their divine souls continued to transform, and their bodies grew larger and larger. From ghostly gods and spiritual monsters, they began to transform into gigantic beasts like the divine Tiger. They were all vivid and lifelike, as if they were real ancient ferocious beasts.

At the same time, their divine souls were also getting stronger and stronger.

"Soon!"

As they continued to practice, their attainments became deeper, and they became more excited.

Dharma arts were divided into many levels. Fierce Tigers and Eagles were the lowest level, while the highest level was the witch God.

The Dharma power was a Dharma power passed down from the ancient sorcerer tribe. One could turn into a Supreme sorcerer God when he cultivated it to the deepest level.

At that level, the Dharma form could fly in the sky and burrow into the ground. It could even be stronger than the physical body and easily cross the immortal tribulation and condense the Supreme primordial spirit.

And they were already not far from this realm. The hope of transcending the Tribulation was getting closer and closer.

The Qin Emperor looked up and became a little anxious. The Chu Emperor and the Qi Emperor were about the same as him, and they would probably cross the heavenly Tribulation at the same time as him. Besides, there were many ancient monsters over there, and they were about the same as the three of them.

Once they transcended the immortal tribulation, everything would be over!

“Brother Tang, he ... What is he doing?”

He turned to look at Tang Hao. He furrowed his brows when he saw that Tang Hao was still not moving.

But then, he remembered that lil bro Tang wasn't complete yet. Even if he had comprehended it first, he wouldn't be able to pass the Tribulation.

“Tsk! This is troublesome!”

The Qin Emperor felt it was very troublesome.

If they attacked now, they didn't have an absolute chance of winning. The two sides were evenly matched, and neither could do anything to the other. However, if they dragged on, the situation would be very disadvantageous for them.

“I still have some treasures with me that can help Brother Tang reach perfection as soon as possible, but ... Brother Tang is like this now. What should I do?”

The Qin Emperor forced a smile.

Even if he sent a voice transmission to brother Tang now to let him comprehend the cultivation technique, it was probably too late. He couldn't win against the Emperor Chu and the others. It was better to retreat first and return to the sacred planet to activate the great formation of the divine dynasty to resist for a while. When they also passed the immortal tribulation, they would have the power to resist.

However, it would be very difficult for them to do anything to these two old fellows.

After all, at the second tribulation, after the Supreme primordial spirit was condensed, it would be even more difficult to kill.

“What a pity!”

The Qin Emperor sighed.

His plan to get rid of the two divine dynasties would most likely fall short at the last step. Fortunately, the two divine dynasties would not be able to do anything to great Qin, brother Tang, and the others. In the future, this starry sky would belong to their camps.

He quickly made a decision and prepared to call for a retreat.

However, at this moment, Tang Hao suddenly moved. There was a flash of light above his head, and countless beams of spiritual light shot out, turning into figures that stood in the starry sky. Every one of them was exactly the same as Tang Hao.

They were split souls, countless split souls, scattered all over the void.

As soon as these split souls appeared, they began to transform. First, they were all kinds of Tigers, Eagles, and then they turned into ancient giant beasts. Their shapes kept changing, so fast that it was dazzling.

Tang Hao stood there, unmoving. However, there was a golden light flickering in his eyes.

He had started to comprehend it a long time ago and was practicing this technique in his mind. His spirit was extremely strong. Furthermore, in order to complete the "God void Scripture", he had read countless techniques, many of which were passed down from the great void realm.

As a result, he had an unparalleled advantage in the cultivation of the spirit. His speed of comprehension was several times faster than others.

While the others were still struggling to comprehend and evolve into ancient giant beasts, he had already begun to try to evolve into a sorcerer God.

Now, he had finished rehearsing it in his mind and had completely mastered the secret skill.

These split souls were one with him and had helped him practice earlier. Now that he had fully comprehended this secret technique, they began to transform into true Dharma.

They kept changing their forms, their speed getting faster and faster, and their bodies getting bigger and bigger. In the blink of an eye, they turned from Eagles and tigers into huge divine beasts, Azure Dragons, black tortoises, Vermillion birds ...

These divine beasts flew across the sky and let out earth-shaking howls. Their aura was terrifying.

Seeing this, the Qin Emperor and the others, as well as the Chu Emperor and the others, were all dumbfounded and stopped their movements.

"What ... What are these? A split soul?"

"Heavens! It's so fast, how could it be like this?"

They couldn't help but exclaim in shock.

At that moment, another beam of light shot out from the top of Tang Hao's head. It was his divine soul. It leaped out and turned into a huge silver Divine Spirit. It had Nine Eyes and exuded a faint divine aura.

Then, the God exploded and kept expanding. Under the horrified eyes of the Saints, it turned into a huge sorcerer God.

As soon as the Sorcerer God appeared, an ancient and wild aura spread out, shocking everyone.
