

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1677

“What ... What’s that?”

“It’s so big!”

Looking at the huge creature in front of them, the Saints were stunned.

This thing was simply too large, and the aura it emitted was even more terrifying.

“Witch God! That’s the witch God!”

Suddenly, one of the old monsters shrieked, his face filled with horror.

At this moment, everyone came to their senses. This was indeed the Sorcerer God, just like what was recorded in the secret technique.

“This ... How is this possible?”

They found it hard to believe that this kid had not made any moves just now. How did he suddenly comprehend it and even condense the witch God Dharma form, which far surpassed them?

The Chu Emperor and the others were dazed for a moment, and then their faces turned gloomy and ugly.

Just now, they were still smug and even laughed at this kid. They did not expect that in the blink of an eye, this kid had surpassed them.

“This kid is indeed a monster. His comprehension is really amazing!”

The Chu Emperor snorted angrily, his face sullen.

“But it’s fine. This kid hasn’t reached perfection yet. So what if he’s one step ahead of us? Let’s hurry up. Once we cross the Tribulation, it will be the time of this kid’s death!”

Then, he said fiercely.

“Right!” The Emperor of Qi nodded.

If this kid had comprehended it, it would be fine. But if that old Qin had comprehended it earlier, then it would be terrible.

“This ... This ...”

As for the Qin Emperor, he was at a loss for words. He looked at the witch God in front of him with a dumbfounded expression and couldn’t believe what he saw.

He was just about to run away, but he didn't expect that brother Tang would suddenly realize it without any warning.

"Hahaha! Brother Tang, you're amazing!"

Then, he laughed out loud, overjoyed.

This brother Tang is really calm when he doesn't move, but when he does, he shocks everyone.

"Brother Tang, come! Today, I'll help you reach the second tribulation realm! Catch it!"

The Qin Emperor laughed out loud. He waved his hand and a golden light flew out.

It was a pill that was emitting a golden light.

"This is a pill concocted by the ancestors of the great Qin using divine herbs. There were three of them passed down from generation to generation. I used two for myself and kept this one. I'll give it to you, brother Tang!" The Qin Emperor shouted.

In an instant, the faces of the old monsters on the opposite side changed.

"Not good!"

"Hurry up! Stop him! Stop that pill!"

They howled as their divine souls entered their bodies. Some of them attacked Tang Hao, while the others tried to stop the pill.

This kid had already comprehended it and cultivated his Kung Fu to the deepest level. As long as his cultivation also reached perfection, he could immediately attempt the immortal tribulation and ascend to the second tribulation realm.

"Do it! Stop them!"

"Alchemy Saint Tang, I'll give you a hand too!"

The Qin Emperor and the others shouted a few times and made their moves to intercept their opponents.

Tang Hao reached out and caught the pill.

"Many thanks!" "Thank you, everyone!" Tang Hao thanked the Qin Emperor, then turned to the Saints.

"Hahaha! Alchemy Saint Tang is too polite!"

"Hey! He was fine! It's our honor to be able to protect the birth of a second tribulation Saint! Alchemy Saint Tang, if you feel bad, you can just refine more pills for us in the future!"

The group of Saints laughed.

Tang Hao cupped his hands again. He was touched.

“Tang Hao will remember everyone’s kindness in his heart!”

“Thank you,” Tang Hao said. He tossed the pill into his mouth, crushed it with his teeth, and swallowed it.

In an instant, the elixir melted and turned into a torrent that rushed in all directions. After running one round in his body, it all rushed into his dantian’s sea of Dao and turned into the purest celestial core power.

He absorbed it madly, and in just a moment, he had completely absorbed the elixir.

“Stop him!”

The Chu Emperor and the others had gone a bit crazy. They burst out with all their strength and attacked madly.

“Ah!”

A Saint from Tang Hao’s side screamed as he was sent flying by a peak-stage old monster. He spat out blood and was seriously injured.

Their side was still a little weak. They had far fewer peak Saints than the other side, so they couldn’t resist at all.

With a few muffled groans, a few more people were quickly defeated.

“Kill! Kill! We must stop that kid at all costs!” The Chu Emperor howled as he activated the ancient seal with all his might and attacked.

The Qin Emperor was also besieged by several people, all of whom were old monsters at the peak. Even though he was the master of the divine dynasty, had extraordinary talent, and was full of treasures, he could not resist such a lineup. Soon, he showed signs of decline and retreated in defeat.

The formation on their side was about to collapse, and the enemy was about to tear open the defense line and March straight in.

However, at this moment, a thunderous sound suddenly rang out in the sky.

BOOM!

The sound of thunder was like a giant hammer, striking the hearts of every Saint and shaking them.

“Not good!”

The expressions of the Chu Emperor and the others changed drastically. The Thunder was clearly a sign of the Thunder tribulation. When they raised their heads, they saw that the wind and clouds in the sky had indeed started to change, and there were flashes of golden lightning.

A wave of heaven's might spread down.

"The lightning tribulation has already begun, there's no time! Hurry up and run!"

Emperor Qi shouted. He put away the martial God puppets and quickly fled.

"Motherf * cker!"

The Chu Emperor cursed angrily, his face full of unwillingness.

He was so close, but he failed at the last step. Once this kid overcame the lightning tribulation and condensed a Supreme primordial spirit, they would not be his match at all.

The only thing he could do now was to escape. After he cultivated the witch God Dharma form and passed the Thunder tribulation, he would be able to fight against this kid.

He pulled out his body and took out the ancient seal, wanting to take care of these ancient monsters and escape.

"You want to leave?"

The Qin Emperor snorted in anger and immediately intercepted the attack.

BOOM! BOOM!

The lightning grew brighter and brighter, and the aura became stronger and stronger.

The first level of the immortal tribulation was usually purple in color, but the second level was different. It was golden in color and not ordinary tribulation lightning. It was a lightning specifically used to kill the divine soul. Whether one could survive this tribulation depended on the strength of the divine soul.

Once they survived, their divine souls could be exchanged and turned into Supreme primordial spirits, ascending to the second tribulation realm.

Tang Hao stood in the air. His divine soul behind him turned into the witch God. He looked up at the sky fearlessly.

"Come on!"

He shouted and raised his hand, slapping the sky.

Whoosh!

With a flash of golden light, the lightning of tribulation fell and struck the giant palm.

“Tribulation lightning, what can it do to me!” “Die!” Tang Hao shouted. He slapped the lightning bolt with his palm and easily destroyed it.

Immediately after, the lightning bolts continued to fall, bombarding the area in a concentrated manner.

Tang Hao’s divine soul flew up and met the attack head-on. He raised his hand and waved his palm, blasting apart the bolts of lightning.

“Is this the power of the Supreme dharma?”

The Saints who were fighting in the distance were all shocked.

When normal cultivators went through the primordial soul tribulation, they would be trembling with fear. They would not directly face it head-on like now. It was simply too fierce.

“Let’s go!”

The Chu Emperor and the others were anxious. This witch God Dharma power was so fierce that they were afraid that this kid would successfully pass the Tribulation in a short while. At that time, they would not be able to leave.

They tried their best to break out of the encirclement and finally made it out. They frantically fled to the central sacred planet.

As long as they could get there and activate the divine dynasty’s Grand array, they could still hold on for a while. As long as they could also pass the Tribulation, they would no longer have to fear this kid.

“What a pity!”

Looking at their disappearing figures, the Qin Emperor was extremely annoyed.

After a while, he turned around and looked at the sky, paying attention to the immortal tribulation.
