

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1678

The immortal tribulation had reached the late stage, and the Thunder light was getting more and more terrifying. However, it still couldn't do anything to the witch God.

About half an hour later, the last tribulation lightning was also destroyed by the Sorcerer God. The Tribulation clouds in the sky stopped and suddenly split open. A beam of golden light shone down and landed on Tang Hao's divine soul.

His spirit gradually shrank and transformed into his main body, and he began to absorb this power.

His soul body continued to strengthen, emitting a dazzling immortal radiance. He was transforming, and his divine soul was sublimating, beginning to transform into a primordial spirit of a higher level.

His soul body began to glow with a golden light, exuding a powerful immortal might.

"Primordial spirit, done!"

The Qin Emperor said excitedly from a distance.

He witnessed the birth of a second tribulation Saint!

And this was such a young second tribulation Saint!

"Hahaha! It's done!"

"Such a young second tribulation Saint. He's unprecedented and will never be seen again!"

All the Saints laughed in joy and kept praising.

After the exchange of divine souls was completed, Tang Hao lowered his body and returned to his body. He continued to bathe in the light and absorb the power in it madly, transforming his dantian, Dao ocean, and the immortal abode.

The aura on his body rose steadily and became deeper and deeper.

A few minutes later, the light disappeared, and the strange phenomenon in the sky also disappeared.

"The second tribulation ... It's indeed extraordinary!" Tang Hao clenched his fists. He could not help but feel excited when he felt the surge of power.

"Brother Tang, congratulations!"

The Qin Emperor came up to him with his men and congratulated him.

"Many thanks, everyone!"

Tang Hao bowed to them and expressed his gratitude.

If they hadn't stopped Emperor Chu and the others, he wouldn't have been able to pass the Tribulation smoothly, and if the Qin Emperor's elixir hadn't been there, he wouldn't have been able to reach the state of perfection so quickly.

"Al! No need to be so polite!"

The Qin Emperor and the others waved their hands and said with a smile.

"Hey! It's a pity that the two old monsters ran away. They must have returned to the sacred planet. Once they activate the great formation of the divine dynasty, it will be difficult to deal with them!" The Qin Emperor looked at the starry sky and said with some annoyance.

"Don't worry, Qin Shi Huang!"

Tang Hao chuckled.

"Why aren't they anxious? it'll be troublesome when they've also transcended their tribulations!" The Qin Emperor said.

Tang Hao was still smiling. "Leave those two old men to me!"

Tang Hao's body glowed as he spoke, and his primordial spirit stepped out. Its entire body was shining with a dazzling golden light, and a powerful immortal might spread out.

The moment he stepped out, the void around him froze. The Saints even held their breath, feeling suffocated by the powerful aura.

"Hiss! What a powerful aura. Is this a primordial spirit?"

They all gasped in shock.

Even though they had heard that the primordial spirit was extremely powerful, they could not help but be shocked when they saw it in person.

"They haven't gone far yet!"

Tang Hao smiled as he looked up into the starry sky.

"You guys wait here, I'll be back soon!"

As soon as he finished speaking, he took a step forward and his figure disappeared in an instant. When he reappeared, he was already tens of millions of miles away in the starry sky. With one step and one flash, he broke through the layers of starry sky in the blink of an eye and caught up with the two old monsters.

"Emperor Qi!"

“Wait!” Tang Hao shouted.

Emperor Qi, who was trying his best to escape, suddenly heard the sound and shuddered.

“Damn, I’m actually hearing things!”

He cursed in a low voice.

He thought that he was hallucinating because he was too nervous. After all, he had run so far away, so how could he still hear the boy’s voice?

“Hmph! You brat, just you wait!” He cursed angrily again.

But then, he realized that something was wrong. A terrifying aura came from behind him and quickly approached. When he turned around to look, he was almost scared out of his wits.

Behind him, there was a Golden flash of light that was unbelievably fast.

The Chu Emperor, who was in front, heard the commotion and turned around to take a look. He was also greatly shocked.

“It’s an origin soul! That kid’s primordial spirit is here!”

The Chu Emperor cried out in alarm.

The primordial spirit was a soul body, and its speed was extremely fast, many times faster than the physical body.

“Where are you running to!”

Tang Hao shouted as he rushed over.

He took out his red bow, nocked a divine arrow, and pulled the string, aiming at the Emperor of Qi.

Emperor Qi shrieked in fear and fled frantically.

“Hmph!”

“Hmph!” Tang Hao snorted disdainfully. He loosened his grip, and the divine arrow transformed into a golden streak of light that tore through the starry sky.

“Ah!”

There was a short scream as Emperor Qi was struck by the divine arrow and killed.

He was only at the peak of the first tribulation, while Tang Hao was a second tribulation Saint. He had overwhelming power, not to mention that his bow was a complete supreme weapon. With his current power, killing a peak first tribulation was a piece of cake.

The Chu Emperor was scared out of his wits at the sight of this. He burned his blood essence with all his might and fled frantically.

However, no matter how fast he was, how could he be faster than the primordial spirit?

Tang Hao retrieved the arrow, aimed it at the fleeing Emperor Chu, and fired another shot.

“Ah!”

The Chu Emperor let out a miserable cry as he was also killed.

As for the other Saints from the two dynasties, Tang Hao didn't use the red bow. He chased after them and killed them with one finger.

After killing the last man, Tang Hao reached out and grabbed the Rings and treasures.

“The war god puppet, not bad!”

He grabbed the flag of Emperor Qi and exclaimed in admiration.

This was the killing move of the great Qi Dynasty.

Then, he took out the ancient seal and studied it. Soon, he grasped the trick and released the group of old monsters.

“You ... You've successfully transcended the Tribulation?”

“Where's the Chu Emperor?”

When they came out, they were all shocked.

“Submit, or die!” Tang Hao's cold eyes scanned them.

They hesitated for a moment, and many of them knelt down on one knee to show their submission.

“Stinky brat, you've killed the great Chu's divine Emperor, and you still want us to submit to you? dream on!”

Those old monsters of great Chu's royal family shouted angrily.

“You're looking for death!”

“Die!” Tang Hao shouted. He slapped the old monsters and they exploded.

Hiss!

The rest of the old monsters gasped in horror.

When they looked at Tang Hao again, they were all frightened. It was hard to imagine that he was a young man in his forties. Such a young second-tribulation Saint was really shocking.

“Since you’ve all surrendered, I won’t kill you. Instead, I’ll give you some treasures to give you a new life!”

As Tang Hao spoke, he flicked his wrist and a bottle of pills flew out.

“This is a longevity pill! One pill for each of you. Although it doesn’t increase your lifespan by much, it can still extend your lifespans by quite a bit.”

“The longevity pill?”

The group of old monsters immediately became excited. They were at the end of their lifespans, and what they desired the most was a treasure that could increase their lifespan.

“Many thanks, my Lord!”

They quickly distributed the pills and said gratefully.

Tang Hao asked about their identities in detail, then put them away and quickly returned.

Although these old monsters didn’t have much time left, they were still a powerful force that could be used to protect Kunlun and the equal heaven courtyard.
