

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1682

Central astral world, a certain star.

A crack was torn open, and a loud laugh came out.

“Hahaha! I didn’t expect that my Yuchi race would also have an innate Saint! A piece of inborn divine bone that can not be destroyed. The heavens are truly blessing our Yuchi race!”

Along with the laughter, a hand reached out and grabbed downward.

In the mortal world below, a woman in plain clothes raised her head and looked at the sky in horror.

I’m an elder of the Yuchi clan on Pangu continent, and today, I’ve traced my blood source and crossed the starry sky to enter Pangu continent. You’re a natural-born Saint, and your bloodline is extremely pure. You’re qualified to enter Pangu continent!

The old man shouted.

“Pangu continent?”

The woman’s face changed slightly, and then, she revealed a look of ecstasy.

She had heard of Pangu continent before. It was part of the thirty-three heavens.

The Yuchi clan was also there, and it was the most ancient clan.

“That’s great! When I get there, I’ll be able to pass the Tribulation and become a saint. And it won’t just be one tribulation. I have hopes of breaking through to a higher level, and there’s hope for revenge in the future!”

“Tang kid, you annihilated my Yuchi clan. This enmity is absolutely irreconcilable! When I return, I will make sure you are beyond redemption!”

The woman in plain clothes gritted her teeth, her face full of hatred.

She was Yuchi Xuan. Back then, she had escaped from her clan and came to the central astral world. She had hidden her name and devoted herself to cultivation. Finally, she had reached the great circle of immortal transformation. Now, she was in the process of transforming into a mortal and was about to break through to the sage realm.

“Come on!”

The old man reached out and grabbed her, pulling her up into the crack.

In various parts of the central astral world, especially on the sacred planet, cracks appeared from time to time, and laughter came from within.

From time to time, someone would be captured and brought to Pangu continent.

On planet Dong Ling, there were also cracks that opened up from time to time.

“The heavens have blessed our Thunder clan! There was actually a natural-born Saint! I’ll bring you to Pangu continent and make you a genius of our Thunder clan. With your talent, it’s a pity for you to stay here. You can only shine on Pangu continent.”

In the sky above the Thunder clan, a crack also opened, and a hand stretched out.

“It’s the Grand ceremony of blood source! That’s the Almighty of the Thunder clan from the upper realm!”

“Heaven-shaking! This is your chance! As long as you enter the upper realm’s Thunder clan, you can easily become a saint!”

Everyone from the Thunder clan shouted out in excitement.

When he finally understood what the Grand ceremony of blood source was, Lei zhentian was extremely excited.

Finally, he, Lei zhentian, could hold his head high!

He had the potential to become a saint. Even in ancient times, he would be considered a peerless genius. But now, he was completely suppressed by someone. Who on planet Dong Ling still knew of him?

The world only knew of Tang Hao. No one knew of Lei zhentian!

Even that Yuchi Xuan from the past was more powerful than him.

No matter how unwilling he was, he couldn’t raise his head in front of that Tang. He was only in the great circle of the immortal realm, while that Tang was already a second-tribulation Saint. He was unparalleled in the starry sky. He had no hope of turning the tables.

But now, things were different. He was going to Pangu continent. Compared to this starry sky, that place was like a paradise full of opportunities. He would certainly be able to counterattack and surpass that Tang fellow.

“Just you wait, Tang kid! I will definitely surpass you!”

He looked at the people of the equal heaven Department and said resolutely.

Then, he soared into the sky and entered the crack.

At this moment, a crack was also torn open in the heaven-equal courtyard.

“This is ... My God! This was the body of the mysterious fairy! Hahaha! The heavens are really blessing our mu clan!”

On the other side of the fissure, the mighty figure of the cleansing clan was a little confused. He could sense that the condition of the descendant of the cleansing clan was very special. Not only was her bloodline extremely rich, but her physical body also seemed to be a little special.

Upon closer inspection, he recognized that it was the famous body of the mysterious fairy!

He was overjoyed. He stretched out his hand and sucked in the woman who was meditating below.

At the sight of this, the entire heaven-equal Department was in an uproar.

“This is ...?”

The headmaster rushed out of the main hall and looked up at the sky, revealing a look of horror.

From the crack, an extremely ancient and powerful pressure came out, making it hard for him to breathe. There was also an aura that should belong to the person who had attacked just now. The aura was as deep as the sea, extremely powerful.

“He’s at least at the 3rd tribulation, and he’s most likely a higher level Almighty! That’s right, it’s the people from the 33 heavens! It’s the Grand ceremony of Blood Origins!”

The headmaster reacted quickly.

Little brat Tang was at the 2nd tribulation, but he was far from having such a terrifying aura. This was definitely a 3rd tribulation, or even higher, Almighty, and only the 33 heavens had such an Almighty.

He had also heard of the Grand ceremony of blood source.

“Alright! This is also the MU girl’s opportunity!”

He mumbled to himself and returned to the hall.

At this moment, the atmosphere on Pangu continent was boiling.

The world was paying attention to the ceremony of blood source and was in heated discussion. All kinds of news were flying around. One moment, this race had found a genius, and the next moment, it was another race. It was overwhelming.

“Did you hear? the Liu Clan seems to be in luck. They found a son of the blood source!”

Suddenly, another piece of news spread out, shaking the entire area.

The first son of Blood Origin had appeared, born in the Liu Clan.

And this Liu clan was actually unremarkable among the thousands of clans. This also made many clans feel unfair and envious.

“It seems like the Liu Clan is about to rise!”

“The Liu family is not weak. They were once glorious, but they have declined a lot now. Now that a son of Blood Origin has appeared, I’m afraid they will rise again!”

Everyone in the world was sighing.

The Grand ceremony of blood source was like this. To some powerful clans, it was like adding flowers on top of a brocade. But to ordinary clans, or to those declining clans, it was like sending coal in the snow.

Once they found a peerless genius, they would have the hope of rising.

Everyone was sighing with emotion and discussing fervently.

Not long after, another piece of news spread. The Yuchi race had found a natural-born Saint who possessed an undying bone that could devour other divine bones and evolve continuously.

Once the news spread, it caused another sensation.

“The Yuchi race is in luck! Not only is he a natural-born Saint, but he’s also born with a piece of God’s bone. He can even evolve, and his future is limitless!”

Everyone was envious again.

Then, more and more news spread about natural-born Saints, peerless monsters, and the Son of the blood essence, making the atmosphere more and more lively.

Then, another piece of news spread. It was said that the cleansing clan had found a peerless genius who had the body of the mysterious fairy.

Everyone who heard it was shocked. Everywhere the news went, it caused an uproar.

The mystic fairy body was the legendary Supreme divine body and was listed as one of the nine great divine bodies.

“What’s going on this year? there seem to be a lot of geniuses. Let’s not talk about monsters. There are also many natural Saints and many Children of Blood. They far exceed the previous years.”

Many people were even more emotional.

Compared to the previous years, there were too many geniuses this year, so many that it was a little shocking.
