

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1699

“Don’t let him escape!”

“Stop!”

More and more people rushed out and chased after Tang Hao.

Even though the elders of the thousand spirit sect and venerable thousand spirit were doing their best to protect them, there were simply too many of them. They could block a portion of them, but not all of them. The ferocious beasts were also chasing after them.

After running for a while, Tang Hao turned around and was shocked to see that there were a lot of people behind him, including many overlords.

“Be good! This is too scary!”

Tang Hao swallowed nervously.

There were too many people, many of whom were 2nd tribulation saints. They were chasing him with their primordial spirits, and they were extremely fast. There were even a few 3rd tribulation saints. He would probably be caught before he could reach the thousand spirit sect.

Once he was caught up, it would be very difficult for him to escape from so many people.

“What do we do?”

Tang Hao’s mind raced as he began to think of a way to escape.

A moment later, a thought flashed through his mind, and a bold idea emerged.

After running for a while, he descended and hid in the forest. He stopped in front of a mountain and quickly changed his clothes. He wiped his face and his appearance changed into that of a young man.

At the same time, his aura also changed.

He was an old hand in the art of transformation. Back in the great void realm, he had exchanged for a profound transformation technique. Later, The Blood King had also passed on a technique to him to change his appearance and aura.

His transformation technique could be said to have reached the peak of perfection. If one did not use a pupil technique like the fiery golden eyes to look closely, one would definitely not be able to discover him.

He also created some wounds on himself, as if he was injured in a battle with a fierce beast.

When everything was ready, he began to wait.

A moment later, someone caught up. When he flew above their heads, he stopped and looked around, revealing a puzzled expression.

“Eh? Where is he?”

He had just seen that guy walk to the ground, but now he couldn't even see his shadow.

Wait, something's not right. There seems to be someone here ...

He quickly noticed Tang Hao from the corner of his eye.

He was stunned. He narrowed his eyes and sized up this guy suspiciously.

His first reaction was to doubt if it was that fellow. After all, that fellow had landed here just now. However, after thinking about it carefully, he felt that he had been overthinking it.

If it was really that fellow, why would he not run away but stay here instead? who would have the guts to do that?

Upon closer inspection, this guy was just a young kid who had cut off his Dao.

He examined it carefully and didn't find any problems.

“It seems like I've been overthinking!” He mumbled to himself and then shouted to the people below, “Hey! Kid, did you see anyone just now?”

“It's time to test my acting skills!”

Tang Hao mumbled to himself, but he still revealed a trace of fear and trepidation on his face. “There are!”

The man was immediately overjoyed and hurriedly asked, “Where did he go?”

“Oh! He went over there, I think he went into that hole, and then he disappeared. It happened so fast, I couldn't see clearly.” Tang Hao tried hard to recall.

“A hole?”

The Saint followed the direction of Tang Hao's finger and was stunned.

There was indeed a cave there, and it was very big. At a rough glance, the cave was very deep and seemed to lead to the depths of the earth.

“It seems like it!”

He didn't have the slightest suspicion, because everything was very reasonable. That guy must've thought that he wouldn't be able to get to the thousand spirit sect if he kept running like this, so he changed his route and wanted to shake them off. This cave was the best way.

This cave was very deep, so when he was searching the area, he didn't find it.

"Alright! This guy is quite cunning! However, let's see where you can run to!"

He snorted, and a cold and stern expression appeared on his face.

Then, in a flash, he rushed into the cave.

Tang Hao was overjoyed when he saw him enter." "One has taken the bait!"

As soon as that guy left, two people came, almost at the same time.

"Eh? Why did they all disappear?"

"I think I saw that guy go over there!"

One of them pointed at the cave, but he was not sure.

Then, they noticed Tang Hao.

"Why is there a person here?"

"It's a young man!"

They sized him up and didn't have any suspicions. After all, someone had been here before them, so there was definitely no problem with this guy.

"Al! Kid, where are you?" One of them shouted.

"Oh! They've all gone over there. Yes, that hole. They've all gone inside!" Tang Hao replied.

His face was sincere, reliable, honest, and kind, and the two of them believed him without a doubt.

"Let's go!"

They hurried away and entered the hole.

"Three have taken the bait!"

Tang Hao mumbled.

More and more Saints arrived. Some of them had already seen the situation from afar. When they saw the people in front of them enter the cave, they followed. Some of them asked Tang Hao about it, but they ended up in the same cave.

No one could see through Tang Hao. They all passed by in a hurry.

Soon, another light came. It was a three-tribulation Saint.

Tang Hao focused his eyes and was surprised. Wasn't that old man Gu tuo?

Venerable Gu tuo had arrived a little late, so he did not see where the people in front of him had gone. He flew over and saw that they were all gone. He was confused. He looked around and saw Tang Hao not far below.

"Why is there a kid?"

He mumbled as he looked around.

He didn't have the slightest suspicion and only shouted, "Al! Kid, did you see anything just now? What about those people? Where did they go?"

"Oh! They're all over there, in that hole!"

Tang Hao raised his hand and pointed at the cave.

"I see! No wonder!" Venerable Gu tuo looked into the cave and came to a realization.

"Mm! You're not bad, you're quite honest!"

Then, he looked at Tang Hao and complimented him. He then rushed into the cave.

Tang Hao's expression turned cold when he entered the room.

The enmity between him and this old man Gu tuo was huge. Sooner or later, he would find this fellow to settle the score. This time, he had tricked him. It was considered interest.

Tang Hao laughed coldly. He raised his head and looked into the distance. There was a rumbling sound coming from that direction. A herd of beasts was galloping over. The leaders were all Overlord-level ferocious beasts. The old golden Lion was at the forefront, leading the herd.

They were aggressive and prepared to attack the thousand spirit sect and take back Jin Xi's body.

"Al! No, it's not that way!"

"It's this way!" Tang Hao shouted. "They've all run inside. I saw it with my own eyes."
