

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1702

The whole thing was a little strange. That guy pretended to be an elder of the thousand spirit sect and took the body away, but how did he disappear under everyone's eyes? they were chasing him at the time, so it shouldn't have been so easy to escape.

"Who was the one following the closest?"

Someone shouted.

Everyone looked at each other and then at one person.

"Everything was fine. How did you lose her?"

Everyone complained.

"I ..." The Saint felt wronged. How could this be his fault?" "I was chasing after him at first. I wasn't far from him. When I was about to catch up, he suddenly fell down and disappeared."

"After a few breaths of time, I rushed over, but I couldn't see him. Then I saw a kid standing there, so I asked him. He pointed to the cave, and I went in."

"That kid? That's right, I met him too. He showed me the way!"

When everyone heard this, they all started shouting.

They had all met that kid before. They had followed the path that the kid had pointed out and entered the cave.

"Aiya! There won't be any problems with that kid, right?"

Suddenly, a person slapped his thigh and shouted.

"It can't be?"

"That's impossible! I've checked, there's no problem with that kid!"

Everyone immediately exploded!

Many of them had investigated him, so there shouldn't be any problem with him!

However, after thinking about it carefully, it seemed that there was indeed a problem. Basically, everyone was gathered in the depths of the mountain range. Why was that kid there alone?

At that time, the situation was urgent, so they didn't notice it. Now that they thought about it, it was indeed suspicious!

"It's him!"

Suddenly, Gu tuo shouted. His old face turned ashen.

There's no mistaking it, it's definitely that guy!

That guy was bold and cunning like a fox. He had been able to fool all of them before, pretending to be an elder of the thousand spirit sect and snatching Jin Lu's body. He also had the guts to pretend to be the young man to show them the way and deceive everyone.

It was such a simple trick, yet none of them had noticed it. It was a great humiliation!

When he thought of how he had praised the kid for being honest, his old face couldn't help but twitch, and he almost spat out a mouthful of blood.

Motherf * cker! It was too embarrassing!

He, Gu tuo, was going to lose all his face!

He gritted his teeth in anger and was about to go crazy.

Not long ago, he had been tricked by that fellow from the lower starry sky, and even his thatched cottage had been moved away. Now, he had been ruthlessly played by an unknown fellow, playing him in circles. What kind of bad luck was this!

"It's really him?"

Everyone was still in disbelief. How could that guy be so bold to lie to them in front of their eyes? what was even more unbelievable was that no one had noticed it at that time.

"Damn it!"

"Motherf * cker! That guy is too detestable!"

Following that, there was a wave of angry curses. Their faces were all ashen and they had the urge to vomit blood.

If they hadn't caught up with him, it would have been fine. However, that guy had been right under their eyes at that time, and they hadn't realized it. What a humiliation!

They could imagine how smug that guy must be right now.

If this news were to spread, how would the world mock them in secret?

Although they were scolding him, many people still admired him in their hearts. Not only was that guy bold, but he was also extremely cunning. His acting skills were also exquisite. With such courage and wisdom, he was definitely not an ordinary person.

Ordinary old monsters might not lose in terms of intelligence, but in terms of courage, they definitely weren't as great as this guy.

"What are you still standing there for? Even if we have to find the ends of the earth, we have to find this hateful guy!"

Gu tuo roared, his face full of anger.

If he didn't catch this guy, how could he vent the hatred in his heart and wash away his shame?

Everyone came to their senses and started to search for the mysterious Saint.

"It's that kid?"

Venerable myriad spirit stood there in a daze.

He could not believe this fact.

By the time he reacted, he almost vomited blood again. He had been fooled again, ruthlessly fooled for the second time.

"What a disgrace! It's a great humiliation!"

He was so angry that his entire body was trembling.

Then, he moved his body and was about to rush out to find this hateful fellow. However, at this time, a large group of beasts rushed over from the distance. He was stunned when he saw them, and then he wailed.

Those beasts were here, and they must have thought that their bodies were in the thousand spirit sect. He could explain it to the Saints, but how could he explain it to these beasts?

The more he thought about it, the angrier he got, and the more depressed he became.

"Detestable little thief!"

He couldn't help but roar into the sky. His voice was like thunder, shaking the world.

"Aiya! Are you scolding me?"

"What's going on?" Tang Hao mumbled to himself as he sat in a thatched cottage in the distance.

"Go ahead and scold! Anyway, the treasure is already in our hands!"

Tang Hao chuckled as he examined Jin Lu's body.

"What pill should I refine?"

Tang Hao sat cross-legged in front of the corpse and began to think.

This corpse was too precious, and he had to be careful.

This Jin Lu died of old age and his body had deteriorated. The spiritual essence in his flesh must have decreased by a lot but it was still quite shocking to him. It could help him to strengthen his God spiritual bones and body.

The inner core in his body could help him increase his cultivation.

“I can make them separately. I can make two pills, one to increase my cultivation and the other to strengthen my body ... Or, I can make one pill directly. Wouldn't that be easier and more convenient?”

Tang Hao pondered for a while and decided to only make one. He wanted to make a Super Tonic pill that could increase his cultivation base and strengthen his body.

He had a similar elixir recipe. After some slight modifications and adding in some higher grade spiritual herbs, a brand new elixir recipe was produced very quickly.

He began to prepare the materials, and when the materials were ready, he began to refine.

First, he refined the corpse of Jin Lu and used his true fire. It took him two days to completely refine the corpse. Whether it was the physical body or the power contained in the inner core, they were all turned into the purest spiritual liquid.

Then, he threw in all kinds of nourishing spiritual medicine and refined them one by one.

In the end, the spirit liquid was fused together to form a pill embryo.

After a day's worth of roasting, a Super Tonic pill was produced.

“Good pill!”

“It's a pill!” Tang Hao exclaimed as he looked at the large, golden pill in his palm.

The essence of the entire golden centipede's corpse and forty-nine kinds of nourishing spiritual herbs had created this super nourishing pill. The spiritual essence contained in it had reached an astonishing level, and wisps of mist were rising from the surface of the pill.

It was the immortal Qi. Because it was too dense, it condensed into a faint mist.

He sniffed lightly and felt as if he was floating.

After another round of praise, he opened his mouth and swallowed the pill with a gulp. He then began to absorb it.
