

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1703

As the pill entered his stomach, a surging medicinal power spread out.

A portion of it was absorbed by his body, and another portion was turned into celestial core power, which surged into his dantian's Dao ocean.

The effects of the medicine were too powerful. They surged through Tang Hao's body like a raging tide. His cultivation base and aura were also increasing rapidly.

On his chest, the God spiritual bone glowed brightly and gave off a blinding light.

The bone was getting stronger and stronger. At the same time, it was transforming Tang Hao's body, transforming him into a God.

The winged Dragon Bone had transformed Tang Hao's body into a Dragon's body, and this God spirit bone was undergoing the same transformation.

However, the Dragon's skeleton was an external object embedded in Tang Hao's body, so it was naturally more difficult to modify it. This bone, on the other hand, was born in Tang Hao's body, so it could be said that it was one with him, so it was much easier to modify.

His bones, meridians, and blood had all undergone tremendous changes. They were suffused with a faint golden color, exuding the aura of a God.

It took Tang Hao three whole days to finish absorbing the pill.

"My physical body is almost there. As for my cultivation, I'm still a little away from perfection."

Tang Hao furrowed his brows when he looked at it.

He had thought that after taking this pill, he would be able to reach the great circle. He didn't expect that it was still a little lacking. It was all because of the immortal estate that had taken away too much of the medicinal power, so his cultivation base couldn't even reach the great circle.

"This immortal estate ..."

Tang Hao smiled wryly.

When he had first condensed this immortal estate, he hadn't anticipated such a situation.

"But it's not bad!"

Tang Hao quickly felt relieved. He had just advanced to the second tribulation and had only been here for a few months. It was already not bad that his strength had improved so much.

The improvement of his physical body was particularly huge. Previously, he had been tempered in the old man Gu tuo's cauldron for a long time. Now, he had also devoured the essence contained in a third calamity Golden Phoenix corpse. His physical body was already extremely strong.

As long as his cultivation level was high enough, he would have full confidence in passing the immortal tribulation. At that time, his physical body would be strengthened again, and he would no longer have to fear old man Gu tuo and the others.

Tang Hao adjusted to his current cultivation base, then contacted his clone outside to understand the situation.

It had been exactly six days since he had seized Jin Lu's corpse. During these six days, the outside world had been very lively.

The thousand spirit sect was also out of luck. They didn't get Jin Lu's body, but their sect was blocked by the overlords. They besieged them for three days and almost destroyed the thousand spirit sect's Mountain-protecting formation.

The group of overlords wreaked havoc again, affecting all the major forces in the mountain, causing a wave of wailing.

News of what happened that day spread and shook the entire devil Star Mountain.

Everyone who heard it was dumbfounded.

Pretending to be an elder of the thousand spirit sect and using the thousand spirit sect as a cover, he successfully seized Jin Lu's body.

Then, as he fled, he changed his appearance again and used a trick to deceive the group of Saints ...

All of this sounded unbelievable, even absurd. Many people thought that someone had made it up at first, but they didn't believe it at all.

After they confirmed it again and again, they were dumbfounded and shocked.

"This is amazing! He's completely toying with a group of Saints like monkeys!"

"Too flirtatious! Which Saint is it?"

After the shock, everyone clicked their tongues in wonder and was full of praise.

Which of those Saints wasn't an old monster? they were all hundreds of years old and all of them were considered to be wise and farsighted. They were all experienced in the pugilistic world. It was really impressive to be able to deceive such a group of people.

They couldn't help but admire the saint's courage and wisdom in this series of events.

They were all curious. Who was this person?

They had never heard of such a powerful figure in this area!

As for the group of Saints, they were looking for him like crazy. They even asked around, trying to figure out his identity and background.

The thousand spirit sect had sent out more than half of their people to all directions.

Of course, no matter how much they tried to find out, it was all in vain. They couldn't find Tang Hao. They would never have thought that Tang Hao was hiding in the devil Star Mountain right under their eyes.

Furthermore, Tang Hao had another identity. He was a fool that everyone laughed at. No one would associate him with the mysterious Saint.

As a result, Tang Hao's side was safe and sound for the past six days. No one even came to check on him.

"Indeed, the most dangerous place is the safest place!"

Tang Hao smiled and continued to cultivate.

Meditating, refining pills, planting herbs with his clones and souls, playing chess and chatting when he had nothing to do, all of these were rather enjoyable.

In the blink of an eye, another half a month had passed.

Tang Hao's cultivation level had increased again. In the outside world, the commotion had gradually died down. The Saints and the thousand spirit sect had almost given up when they still could not find him after half a month.

They all knew that the mysterious Saint was not from this area, but from another place. After so long, he must have run far away. Given how vast Pangu continent was, it was impossible for them to catch up with him.

They had no other choice but to admit that they were unlucky.

"You despicable thief, don't let me find you!"

Within the thousand spirit sect, furious roars could be heard every day. It was none other than venerable myriad spirit.

Every time they heard this, the people in the devil Star City would feel emotional.

"This thousand spirit sect ... Is really pitiful!"

"Exactly! He didn't get the treasure, and he was even made a scapegoat. He was beaten up by those beasts for three days, how could he not be miserable! I heard that the venerable of myriad spirits is going crazy with anger!"

Everyone sighed with emotion. A three-trial Saint had actually been fooled like this. How unlucky.

“Where did that mysterious Saint Come from?”

Everyone was still guessing.

“Who knows? this Pangu continent is too vast. It has Four Seas and eight wastelands, twelve domains, and thirty-three heavens above it. It is filled with experts and geniuses. Who knows where they come from?”

“A monster? Could he really be a monster? There are quite a number of monstrous talents in this generation, and all of them are peerless figures. I heard that there are also many powerful figures among those who were brought in during the ceremony of blood source. ”

“I’ve heard about it too, especially that genius from the Liu family. He’s quite famous recently! It is said that he is extremely bold and powerful. In such a short time, he has already made a name for himself in the Liu Clan. ”

As they talked, they began to talk about the genius of the Liu Clan.

It had been a few months since the ceremony of blood source. Many geniuses had gained a firm foothold in their own clans and started to show off their talents. Among them, the genius of the Liu Clan was particularly famous. His reputation had spread to this place.

“A genius of the Liu Clan?”

Tang Hao was surprised when he heard the news.

When he first came up and asked about Bing Yao, Tang Hao heard that the Liu Clan had two peerless geniuses in the ceremony of blood source. One of them was Bing Yao, who had the creation divine body, and the other was a son of blood.

No one knew the exact name because the Liu Clan had never revealed it, so outsiders had no way of knowing.

“Surnamed Liu, from the lower realm, and very bold ...”

Tang Hao’s expression turned strange as he pondered.

Why does this sound so familiar!
