

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1706

“One, two ...”

In the thatched cottage, Tang Hao was counting his immortal crystals.

Around him, immortal crystals piled up into a mountain, and each piece was enshrouded in a faint mist. This was the immortal Qi that was extremely dense and had turned into mist.

There were too many immortal crystals. The mist spread out and covered the entire thatched cottage.

Tang Hao felt as if he was in the clouds.

With a light sniff, the immortal energy surged and entered his body, making him feel extremely comfortable.

“It’s simply a Fairyland!”

“Amazing!” Tang Hao exclaimed. He felt like he was floating.

This kind of feeling was simply too great!

“Fellow Daoist! Come!”

At this moment, the clone came in with a large basket filled with dazzling white immortal crystals.

Ding! Ding!

He tilted the basket and poured out all the shining white immortal crystals, which collided with each other and made a clear sound.

To Tang Hao, there was no other sound more beautiful and moving than this. This was simply heavenly music!

“I’m rich!”

Tang Hao was extremely excited.

He quickly grabbed the pile of immortal crystals and counted them one by one.

Every few hours, his clone would come in with baskets of immortal crystals. After continuous improvements, his immortal crystal production speed had increased a lot, and the scale was also constantly expanding.

This time, he was prepared to run after taking one job, so he was going to go all out and move as many as he could.

There were more and more immortal crystals in the thatched cottage, and it was almost full.

Tang Hao estimated that he had taken at least half of the immortal Qi from the immortal Meridian.

At this moment, venerable myriad spirit was getting more and more anxious. He could sense that the immortal Qi in his immortal Meridian was rapidly flowing away, and it was getting faster and faster.

“There must be a problem somewhere. However, the spirit locking array is fine. What could be the problem?”

Venerable myriad spirit was extremely anxious.

He scratched his head and couldn't figure out what the problem was.

If the spirit sealing array was fine, why did the immortal Qi suddenly decrease?

This immortal vein was huge, stretching thousands of miles underground. However, the main branch was right under the thousand spirit sect and was locked by the spirit locking array. Even if something happened to the edge, it would not affect the main branch.

Even if someone wanted to steal the immortal Qi from the core, it would be impossible because of the spirit sealing array.

The spirit locking array was set up by the founder of the thousand spirit sect. It was impossible to hide it from him.

He kept going down, flying around the spirit locking array again and again, carefully examining it.

Although he was a three-tribulation Saint, he couldn't enter the inside of the immortal Meridian. He could only explore the outside. After circling a few times, he finally found that there was a strange movement of immortal Qi in a corner of the immortal Meridian.

“How did this happen?”

He took a closer look and couldn't help but be shocked.

In front of him, the spirit locking array was clearly in good condition, but immortal Qi was surging out. It didn't look like it was overflowing, but rather, it was being extracted.

“This ... How is this possible?”

He was in disbelief.

The scene in front of him was really unbelievable. Someone had actually managed to hide from the thousand spirit sect's spirit locking Grand array and was stealing the celestial energy!

Who was it that had such ability?

“Preposterous! Preposterous!”

After the shock, he was extremely angry. This immortal Meridian was the life of the thousand spirit sect. Touching it was the same as taking his life.

“You’re looking for death!”

His expression became extremely cold, and his killing intent was revealed.

“This way!”

He investigated and identified the direction of the immortal Qi.

He muttered to himself for a moment and did not rush over immediately. Instead, he flew up and returned to the hall, where his primordial spirit returned to his aperture.

He was still not sure who his opponent was, but to be able to sneak past the spirit locking array and steal the immortal Meridian without anyone knowing, he was definitely not an ordinary person. He was not completely confident that he could defeat him with just his primordial spirit.

“Sect master, did you find anything?”

A group of elders hurriedly surrounded him and asked anxiously.

“Someone is stealing the immortal Meridian!” Venerable myriad spirit said in a deep voice.

“What?”

“Someone stole the immortal Meridian? How is this possible?”

The elders were all shocked.

They had already investigated the matter and the spirit sealing array was clearly operating normally. How could someone be stealing the immortal veins? besides, even if someone was stealing the immortal veins, it couldn’t be that fast. In just a few days, the immortal Qi concentration had already dropped by more than half.

If this continued, their immortal Meridian would be emptied.

“Although it’s a little unbelievable, it’s true. Someone is stealing the immortal Meridian, and he’s in that direction.” Venerable myriad spirit raised his hand and pointed into the distance.

“All of you, get ready and come with me. No matter who that guy is, if he dares to touch our immortal veins, he’ll die!”

He narrowed his eyes and said in a cold voice.

“Right! Kill him!”

“They must be tired of living if they dare to touch our immortal veins!”

The group of elders was furious.

Soon, they set off. Their faces were cold and murderous.

“No, I didn’t!”

“I didn’t find anything here.”

They followed that direction and did a carpet search.

After flying forward for more than ten minutes, they didn’t find anything.

“It must still be in front!”

They continued to fly forward, and after flying for a while, they saw a Valley in front of them. It was shrouded in a thick fog, and with one look, they could tell that it was an array. It was obviously a cave.

“When did this cave abode appear?”

Venerable myriad spirit pointed at the valley in confusion.

He clearly remembered that no one had lived here before. This was just a barren mountain!

The elders were also a little puzzled. After a moment, one of the elders seemed to have thought of something and said, “I remember now. Didn’t you guys hear about that idiot from before?”

“What idiot?”

Venerable myriad spirit asked in surprise.

The elder laughed and said, “It’s that idiot who’s looking for immortal veins!” Sect master, you actually didn’t know about it? It caused a huge sensation a few months ago.”

“Yes, yes! I also remember that he was quite famous at that time. I heard that guy took a Broken Compass and went through the entire mountain range, saying that he was looking for some immortal vein. In the end, he landed in this barren mountain, which was once a joke.”

Another elder agreed.

As he spoke, his expression was somewhat contemptuous. That guy was just a joke. I heard that his cultivation level was not that great, only at the early immortal realm.

“I know this guy too. I just heard disciples talk about him a few days ago. Recently, haven’t we been collecting money everywhere to repair the formation? I heard from those disciples that they also found this guy and extorted a sum of money.”

Another elder said with a smile.

“There’s such a thing!” Venerable myriad spirit was a little surprised. He had never heard of such a thing.

“Looking for immortal veins? Isn’t this a joke? there’s only one immortal Meridian here, and that’s the one belonging to our thousand spirit sect. Where would there be other immortal meridians?” He also laughed.

However, as he laughed, his face suddenly froze.

“Immortal Meridian ... Wait, could it be him?”

A moment later, there was a cry of shock.

The group of elders were stunned and their faces froze.
