

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1723

“Oh! This pill is really a little shabby!”

After the pill was in his hand, he pinched it and looked at it. His heart was a little nervous.

This pill looked really bad. He had never seen such a bad pill before. If he was too poor, he would definitely not exchange for this kind of pill.

“Forget it! No matter how bad it is, it’s still the Vermilion Bird pill!”

He gritted his teeth, closed his eyes, and stuffed one into his mouth.

He sat cross-legged and was about to meditate to absorb the medicinal power.

However, in the next moment, his expression suddenly changed. He felt as if his abdomen had exploded, and an unimaginably majestic power was released from the pill. It was like a turbulent tsunami, surging in all directions.

His meridians, blood, and flesh were almost unable to withstand this power and were about to fall apart.

Pfft! Pfft!

His skin began to crack and blood spurted out.

His current appearance was a little terrifying!

“What ... What’s going on?”

“This power ... How is this possible?”

He was completely stunned!

Wasn’t this just a low-grade Vermilion Bird pill? but where did this unimaginably powerful force come from?

But at this moment, he didn’t have time to think too much. If this went on, he would explode from the medicinal power.

He gritted his teeth and began to stabilize the violent power in his body before absorbing it bit by bit.

With his strong will, he finally suppressed this power and continued to absorb it. His cultivation also shot up like a rocket.

When he opened his eyes and sensed his current cultivation level, he could not help but reveal an extremely shocked expression.

“Heavens!”

However, he was incomparably shocked. With just one pill, his cultivation level had soared by a large margin. Originally, he had just advanced to immortal Ascension not long ago, but now, it was already one-fifth of his cultivation level. In other words, with another four pills, he could directly advance to the mid-stage immortal Ascension.

With just five pills, it could make a person go from early to mid immortal transformation realm. This ... This is too unbelievable!

One had to know that this was the Vermilion Bird pill, not some rare divine pill.

Normally, one would need at least a hundred Vermilion Bird pills to go from the early stage to the middle stage.

But now, he only needed five.

The medicinal power contained within was a huge difference of tens of times!

“This ... This is unbelievable!”

He was so excited that his entire body was trembling. He had also realized that he had picked up a treasure. This was not a useless pill, but a Supreme mystical pill. It looked ordinary, but in reality, it contained a divine essence.

“To be able to refine such a pill, he must be an amazing pill master! A peerless master!”

He held the remaining two pills in his hands, extremely excited.

“This must be the so-called” returning to the true “!”

He made a guess.

He didn't know much about alchemy, but he knew that in the cultivation of the great Dao, there was a saying of returning to the essence and returning to the true. This meant that the deeper one cultivated a spell, the more ordinary it would seem.

The so-called great Dao is the simplest, this is the principle!

This expert must have reached this realm.

“I'm rich!”

He slapped his thigh and jumped up, unable to contain his excitement.

“There are still many pills in the pill Palace. There are more than 300 of them. We must get them!” He thought of the pills in the pill Hall.

At that moment, he quickly absorbed the two pills in his hand and sold everything he had on him. Then, he went to the alchemy Hall and exchanged for dozens of pills.

He began to cultivate in seclusion and swallowed the pills with all his might. His cultivation level rose rapidly, and he soon broke through to the middle stage, and it was still rising.

In the Zheng clan, the news that he had exchanged for dozens of inferior-grade Vermilion Bird pills had also spread, causing a burst of laughter.

“Zheng Hu, that poor bastard, can only exchange for this kind of trash!”

“I heard that he’s bet his entire fortune on that pill. He must have been provoked by Zheng hai earlier and wants to take revenge!”

“He wants to take revenge? Hahaha! In his Grand dreams!”

From time to time, there would be people who came to the entrance of his cave dwelling and sneered.

Three days later, the door of the immortal’s cave opened.

“Zheng Hu is out!”

“What is he doing? He was going to look for Zheng hai. It was going to be lively! Hurry up! Let’s go and see!”

The four sides were in an uproar.

The moment Zheng Hu came out of seclusion, he actually headed straight for Zheng Hai’s cave abode. He clearly wanted revenge.

“Is he an idiot? He couldn’t beat them before, and he still couldn’t beat them now. Did he think that he could overturn the heavens just because he ate a few dozen pills? It’s useless to eat a few hundred of those lousy pills!”

Everyone was sneering.

They all thought that Zheng Hu was really stupid. Had he not been humiliated enough before? even if he went, he would just be asking for humiliation!

When Zheng hai heard the news, he left his cave residence early.

“Yo! Isn’t this Zheng Hu? what, are you looking for trouble again?” Zheng hai stood with his hands behind his back, his face contemptuous.

He was at the intermediate immortal state while Zheng Hu was only at the early immortal state. They were separated by a cultivation level. There was no way Zheng Hu would be his match.

Without a word, Zheng Hu strode forward and raised his palm.

In an instant, a huge handprint appeared.

“Hmph! A small trick!”

“Hmph!” Zheng hai snorted disdainfully and also raised his hand, sending out the same hand seal.

However, what happened next left him dumbfounded. It was clearly the same handprint, and his cultivation was a realm higher, but his handprint was easily crushed. The opponent’s giant palm crushed over as if it were a dead branch.

“This ...”

He was dumbfounded and his mind went blank.

Everyone was also dumbfounded. They couldn’t believe their eyes.

Ah!

“Ah!” With a miserable cry, Zheng hai was sent flying, and a mouthful of blood spurted out.

“Hmph! Zheng hai! The current you isn’t even good enough to carry my shoes. I’ll take revenge for all the humiliation you’ve given me in the past!” Zheng Hu gritted his teeth and said with hatred.

He stretched out his hand, and another giant palm appeared and madly slapped out.

Puff! Puff! Puff! Puff!

That Zheng hai didn’t have any strength to resist at all. He was pressed down and beaten up, constantly spitting out blood.

“Heavens! How did this happen?”

“Look at that Zheng Hu’s cultivation base. He’s ... He’s in the mid stage! No, this aura, it’s approaching the late stage!”

The crowd quickly noticed Zheng Hu’s cultivation and was shocked.

They clearly remembered that a few days ago, this guy was still in the early stage and had just advanced not long ago. Only a few days had passed, and his cultivation base had actually soared and was close to the late stage. How unbelievable was this!

What kind of magical pill did this guy eat to have such an amazing improvement in his cultivation in just a few days?

“Hahaha! It’s great!”

After beating Zheng hai up until he was half dead, Zheng Hu finally stopped. He felt really comfortable and happy.

“Many thanks, senior!”

In his heart, he even thanked that unknown senior. If it wasn't for that senior's pill, how could he have advanced by leaps and bounds and gotten his revenge in one fell swoop?

“Zheng hai, I'll spare your life. In the future, remember to avoid me when you see me!”

He laughed loudly and left under the shocked gazes of the crowd.
