

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1725

“What are these three old men doing?”

Everyone in the venue was a little puzzled.

These three were all elders of a clan, and could also be considered to be people with status and reputation. Why would they fight over a mere batch of trash pills today, completely disregarding their image?

“That’s the Vermilion Bird pill! It’s the same as the last time!”

“What’s there to fight for such a lousy pill? are these three old men crazy? they’re actually fighting for such a lousy pill!”

They all sneered, feeling that it was ridiculous.

Three Saint level cultivators were fighting like hoodlums for this dan. What a joke. If word got out, the world would laugh their heads off.

Deacon Ma’s brows were tightly knitted together. He could not figure out what was going on.

He never thought that there would be a problem with the pills. After all, he wasn’t the only one who had tested the pills. Many other alchemists had tested them as well. There couldn’t be any problems. They were just a bunch of inferior Vermilion Bird pills.

“Perhaps there’s some conflict between the three of them! They’re competing with each other!”

Someone guessed.

“That’s possible!”

Hearing this, everyone was suddenly enlightened.

“It must be like this!”

They quickly accepted this explanation.

The conclusion of the pill tsunami gathering caused another uproar on the medicine God mountain.

“That guy has appeared again!”

“It’s still the Vermilion Bird pill, good fellow! Another nine hundred and ninety-nine!”

The news spread like the wind across the entire medicine God mountain.

Everyone was a little surprised. They had thought that after the previous time, that guy would give up, but they didn’t expect that he still wouldn’t give up and actually appeared again.

“Hmph! You really don’t know your place!”

“I think this guy is quite interesting. Not to mention his level, just his perseverance is enough to make people admire him!”

Everyone laughed at him and admired him.

They had also heard that when the pill was being sold at a discount, it caused a fight between several clan elders. They even fought on the spot and put on a farce. However, they did not link these two incidents together.

After all, no matter how good the quality of a mere batch of Vermilion Bird pills was, it was not enough to attract the attention of people of this level.

These clan elders were all in the sage realm, and their standards were very high. For them to fight over it like this, it had to be at least a Sage level pill.

The medicine God mountain’s peaks were in an uproar for a while, but they soon quieted down.

However, it didn’t take long for another piece of news to spread from within the pill waves Hall. It was said that the nameless Alchemist had appeared again, and it was the same as before, with 999 Vermilion Bird pills.

The medicine God mountain was in an uproar again.

“Why is this guy doing this! Nine hundred and ninety-nine pills, that would take a long time! It’s not worth it to get a cauldron coin in the end!”

“I heard that the quality of the pill is the same as before, without any improvement. You’ve already refined a few thousand pills, but why haven’t you improved at all? It’s obvious how stupid your aptitude is.”

This time, the sneer was exceptionally sharp.

In the past, everyone had laughed at his low level, but now, they began to laugh at his aptitude.

Even if it was a pig, after refining a few thousand times, its standard would have improved a little. However, this guy didn’t have it at all. He was still as bad as before.

Amidst the laughter, the pill Wave Gathering was held again.

This batch of Vermilion Bird pills was still placed at the end and sold off as useless pills.

Everyone was used to it. They all looked at Zheng Rong and the others and teased, “Old man Zheng, you made a fool of yourself last time. Are you going to Rob me again this time?”

“You three clans are really ... If you’re mutually hostile, you wouldn’t have to fight over this broken pill! Aren’t you guys just doing nothing!”

Zheng Rong and the others rolled their eyes, but they sneered in their hearts. “A broken pill? Buzzzzzz! What a bunch of idiots! If it really was a broken pill, why would we fight for it? this is clearly a peerless treasure pill. ”

The three of them looked at each other and rushed out, pouncing on the bottles of pills like wolves and tigers.

“It’s mine!”

“Bah! It’s clearly mine!”

“Old man Zheng, you’re so shameless. Last time, you snatched all the pills and didn’t even leave us any soup. You’re still snatching this time?”

“Woof! I’ll just snatch it, what can you do!”

The three of them started to fight again. They no longer looked like high and mighty Saints, but rather like Street ruffians.

The crowd was once again dumbfounded.

The atmosphere in the auction house suddenly became a little strange.

“This is so embarrassing!”

They couldn’t help but cover their faces, unable to bear to look.

They were Saints after all, yet they had been beaten up like this. What did it look like? this was practically throwing away all the face of their clan.

The three of them wrestled for a while, but no one could do anything to the other.

“Stop, stop, stop! I’m done!”

Suddenly, an elder of the Feng family shouted.

He struggled with all his might and crawled out.

“I say, old man Zheng, old man PEI, let’s stop fighting. This is not right. This is an auction. If you want these pills, let’s just follow the auction rules.” The Feng clan elder said.

In terms of fighting, he was no match for these two old ghosts, so he could only use this strategy.

The other two were stunned. Zheng Rong was still hesitating, but the PEI clan elder agreed, “yes, yes, yes. Let’s follow the auction rules. Whoever offers the highest price will take these pills.”

Zheng Rong was a little unhappy. He had originally wanted to take advantage of the situation by snatching the pill. If he were to follow the auction method, he would not be able to take any advantage.

It must be that these two old ghosts saw that they couldn't beat him, so they decided to go all out and do this.

"Alright! I'll shoot! Do you think I'm afraid of you?"

Zheng Rong snorted in anger.

He knew in his heart that the secret of this pill would be exposed sooner or later, so it didn't matter. Besides, he had already taken advantage of her twice, so he had earned enough. If he continued to take advantage of her, he was afraid that he would let down that Grandmaster.

"I'll go first, 50000 Yuan for one pill!"

The PEI family elder shouted.

When everyone heard this, they were all speechless and then clamored.

50,000 for one pill?

This old man PEI must be crazy!

A normal-grade Vermilion Bird pill would only cost twenty to thirty thousand. A higher-grade pill would cost at most forty thousand. This was the worst pill, and it cost at most ten thousand. However, this old man PEI had actually offered a high price of fifty thousand. If he wasn't crazy, what was?

"Fifty thousand for one?"

Deacon Ma's eyes widened in disbelief.

In his eyes, these pills were only worth a few thousand at most. Previously, they were sold at two thousand each, which was very cheap.

The elder of the Feng family shouted and sneered, "Old man PEI, you're crazy!"

When everyone heard this, they all nodded secretly, thinking that at least this old man Feng wasn't crazy and knew that the price was a bit outrageous.

However, in the next moment, they were dumbfounded when they heard the Feng clan elder say, "You want to buy this pill for a mere fifty thousand? You're f * cking dreaming! I'll offer 100000! One hundred thousand for each pill, I'll take them all!"
