

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1731

The clamoring in the hall stopped abruptly.

Their faces were frozen with a sneer.

The entire auction house was silent.

Everyone was in a daze, unable to believe their ears.

“Nine ... Nine thousand?”

Someone said in a trembling voice. His eyes were wide open, and his expression was somewhat shocked!

Nine thousand Vermilion Bird pills?

You must be joking!

Before, 999 was already a lot, but over 9000? How was that possible?

Not to mention how long it would take to refine so many Vermilion Bird pills, just the materials alone were enough. To refine so many Vermilion Bird pills, a huge amount of materials was required. It was impossible to buy so many at once.

Grandmaster dan Kuang sat there, completely dumbfounded.

“Nine thousand?”

His eyes almost popped out of their sockets.

He had just been laughing at that fellow for not being good enough and only knowing how to refine the Vermilion Bird pill. Moreover, according to his estimation, the number of Vermilion Bird pills he could refine would at most double or triple, so he was not a match for him at all.

However, he had never expected that the number would increase tenfold!

Even if it was 500000 a pill, it would still be close to 5 billion, far more than his.

This number was enough to beat him and the other Masters.

“Gulp!”

Grandmaster pill demon swallowed hard, a look of disbelief on his face.

“Nine thousand? Good boy! It’s too scary!”

He muttered, feeling a little crazy.

These nine thousand Vermilion Bird pills had truly given him a fright.

After a moment of silence, the auction house suddenly erupted.

“Deacon MA, you’re not wrong. Are there really more than 9000?”

“It must be fake! How much time would it take to refine so many Vermilion Bird pills? Half a month is definitely not enough. I think it’ll take at least half a year!”

Everyone was excited.

“Nine thousand nine hundred and ninety-nine, not a single one less!” Attendant MA said lightly.

“Alright, the auction will now begin. 50000 for each pill!”

When Deacon Ma’s voice fell, the scene was silent again. No one actually made a move.

Everyone was hesitating. It wasn’t that they didn’t want these pills, but there were simply too many of them. They had to think about whether they could finish all of them in one go.

“This pill is ten times more powerful than an ordinary Vermilion Bird pill. There are more than nine thousand of them here. If I can take all of them, I’ll be able to greatly increase the strength of the young people in the clan!”

“These are treasure pills. Even one of them is precious, let alone more than 9000. We have to get this batch of pills at all costs.”

They muttered to themselves for a moment, and their eyes turned red.

The two myriad bird pills from before had already made them go crazy. Now, there were more than 9000 Vermilion Bird pills. In terms of value, they were probably dozens of times more valuable than the two myriad bird pills. The two myriad bird pills could only create two late-stage immortal transformation cultivators.

However, nearly 10000 Supreme-grade Vermilion Bird pills were enough to create dozens of them.

“I’ll pay 55!”

The Zheng clan’s first bid was a high price of 550000.

” 56!”

” 57!”

Someone immediately followed closely.

For a time, intense bidding sounds rose one after another.

The price continued to rise, reaching 600000 in an instant, approaching the 700000 mark.

“Six hundred thousand for a single Vermilion Bird pill ... My God! This is crazy!”

The alchemists were speechless.

In the past, the Vermilion Bird pill was in the tens of thousands at most, and it wasn't a particularly popular pill. However, ever since this nameless, no, now he should be called Grandmaster Hao ...

Ever since Grandmaster Hao appeared, he had subverted everyone's understanding in one fell swoop. He had refined this tiny Vermilion Bird pill to the extreme, and the price had also soared all the way. First, it was fifty-five, then fifty-seven, and now it was about to break through to seventy.

Seven hundred thousand for one Vermilion Bird pill!

This was an unprecedented record, and probably one that would not be broken in the future!

They really couldn't think of anyone who could break this record!

“This Grandmaster Hao is destined to leave his name in the history of alchemy!”

Many alchemists sighed.

Such a shocking auction record was enough to be recorded in the history of alchemy and be passed down for eternity!

They were all full of admiration.

Most alchemists valued their reputation and status. Who didn't want to be recorded in the history of alchemy and be passed down for all eternity? even those transcendent alchemy Masters couldn't resist this temptation!

“I bid seventy-three!”

When the price soared to 730000, it finally stopped. No one else was bidding.

“Seven hundred and thirty thousand, sold!”

Deacon MA shouted and announced the result.

The next moment, the auction house was in an uproar.

All the alchemists couldn't help but stand up in excitement.

Seven hundred and thirty thousand!

This was a brand new record, and at the same time a miracle!

Today's auction was destined to be recorded in the history of alchemy!

This Grandmaster Hao would also be able to leave his name in the history of alchemy because of the Vermilion Bird pill.

"This master Hao is truly an amazing person!"

"Even if he only knows how to concoct the Vermilion Bird pill, that's not a big deal. He only needs to know how to concoct this one pill. He doesn't need any other pills!"

They were all excited.

Grandmaster dan Kuang sat there, his face ashen.

He gritted his teeth and clenched his fists tightly. He was extremely unwilling.

He, a pill maniac, had actually been defeated by a mere Vermilion Bird pill. This was simply a disgrace and a joke!

The excited cries of the alchemists around him were extremely harsh to his ears.

"Hmph!"

He stood up, flicked his sleeves heavily, and left angrily.

"We're done for this time!"

Grandmaster pill fanatic sighed, his face full of worry.

Losing to the Vermilion Bird pill made him extremely depressed.

"This guy ... Is really quite powerful!" He laughed bitterly. He had started to admire Grandmaster Hao. It was not an easy task to refine nearly ten thousand Vermilion Bird pills.

Even with his skill, it would still take a month or two.

If this master Hao had managed to refine it in just half a month, then it would be even more shocking.

This speed was terrifying!

"Let's go!"

He shook his head and sighed as he walked away.

The others also shook their heads and smiled bitterly before leaving the venue.

Meanwhile, the auction house continued to be in an uproar.

As the crowd left, they were still discussing the auction and the mysterious master Hao.

Soon, the news reached the medicine God mountain and caused a huge commotion.

The group of alchemists who were waiting for the news were all dumbfounded.

Previously, there had been news that said that the few grandmasters would win for sure. What unknown Grandmaster? this time, they were afraid that they would be defeated. However, they did not expect the result to be a great reversal.

That Master Wu Ming actually won!

Moreover, he had won with the help of the Vermilion Bird pill!

There were more than 9900 of them, and each one was sold for 730000, which was 7.3 billion!

Such a terrifying number made everyone dizzy.

“This number is too scary!”

Everyone was speechless.

It wasn't just the number of pills, but the price as well. Both were frightening.

“Grandmaster Wu Ming, no, he should be called Grandmaster Hao, he won! He won first place in another round of the pill Wave Gathering!”

“What pill maniac? what pill demon? they're nothing in front of Grandmaster Hao. They've all been killed. They're all outdated. Grandmaster Hao is the most influential person of the medicine God mountain.”

The medicine God mountain was in an uproar again.

Grandmaster Hao's name resounded like the sun in the sky, resounding throughout the entire medicine God mountain.
