

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1732

A few days had passed since the end of the pill gathering.

However, the atmosphere on the medicine God mountain was still boiling.

In this pill Wave Gathering, five top grandmasters had challenged Master Wu Ming and lost. Not only did they not defeat him, but they had also helped him gain fame.

Right now, Grandmaster Wu Ming, who was also known as Grandmaster Hao, had already surpassed the other five grandmasters and taken first place.

This status was also recognized by most alchemists.

Although Grandmaster Hao had only refined the Vermilion Bird pill during the pill Wave Conference, not only had he refined the pill's quality to the extreme, but his speed had also reached the peak, displaying his profound alchemy skills.

Because of Grandmaster Hao, many people on the medicine God mountain had begun to study the Vermilion Bird pill.

In the past, this was just an ordinary immortal pill in everyone's eyes. There was nothing special about it. But now, they began to reevaluate the Vermilion Bird pill.

From the top 100 alchemists to the low-level alchemists of the seventh and eighth realm, all of them were studying this pill with great effort.

They all wanted to give it a try and see how great the gap between them and master Hao was.

For a time, the mountain was filled with people refining the Vermilion Bird pill, causing the supply of materials to be in short supply.

"I only have five pills in one cauldron at most, and it takes me six hours to refine one cauldron. Even if I don't stop for a moment, I can only refine fifty to sixty pills a day. If I want to refine ten thousand pills, I'll have to refine them until the end of time!"

"No! It still didn't work! Just how can I be like Grandmaster Hao and refine this pill to the point where there are no flaws?"

After trying, the mountain was filled with wails.

Only after they had tried it out did they know how high Master Hao's standard was.

It was too difficult to refine the quality of a pill to the point where there were no flaws. Some of the more powerful ones could still grasp the knack of it, but because of their lack of skill, they could only sigh at the ocean. As for the low-level ones, they were completely at a loss.

"A useless pill! They were all useless pills! How can we show such a lousy pill to others!"

“Throw them all away!”

They looked at the pills that they had refined and were extremely ashamed.

Once upon a time, they had all been proud of their gorgeous appearance. The more resplendent the pill was and the stronger the pill fragrance was, the better the quality of the pill was. However, they no longer felt that way now. Instead, they preferred a simpler appearance.

“The pill should be more reserved, not too gaudy!”

This also brought about a change in atmosphere that swept through half of the ancient desolate alchemy world.

Soon, people discovered that the pills on the market in the past were all shiny and colorful, but now, each one was more shabby than the last, making them wonder if they had bought the wrong medicine.

“You guys don’t understand, this is called the trend! It’s the style that’s popular in the pill world now!”

“Have you heard of master Hao? He’s the one who started this trend. What? you haven’t even heard of master Hao? are you still from the ancient wilderness? master Hao is a rising star in the world of alchemy, the most influential person on the medicine God mountain. ”

“The Vermilion Bird pill he concocted has broken auction records several times. Have you ever seen a Vermilion Bird pill that costs seven hundred and thirty thousand? I don’t think so!”

“Grandmaster Hao is now an idol-level figure in the alchemy world. I wonder how famous he is!”

Master Hao’s reputation had also gradually spread from the world of alchemy to the entire world of cultivation.

Many cultivators in the ancient wilderness had more or less heard of this master Hao!

They didn’t know the details. They only knew that master Hao was very powerful. He rose like a comet on the medicine God mountain and his name spread throughout the ancient wilderness in a short time.

In the past, when they talked about the medicine God mountain, other than the few pill Saints, there were only a few famous people, such as pill fanatic and pill fanatic. Now, there was one more person.

“Grandmaster Hao? Who is this person?”

“I’ve never heard of this person before!”

Everyone was also a little puzzled.

Among those clans, Grandmaster Hao’s reputation was even more resounding. Now, everyone knew that Grandmaster Hao was an expert in refining the Vermilion Bird pill. His Vermilion Bird pill was one of the best in the world, unparalleled.

In order to obtain the Vermilion Bird pill, countless clans had secretly sought out the medicine God mountain's people, hoping to purchase it at a high price.

They could only do this. There was no way they would get a chance at the auction.

The people of the medicine God mountain were also in a dilemma. They had no idea who this Grandmaster Hao was. From the beginning to the end, he had never shown himself. He had always been mysterious. They had no idea what his cultivation level was.

They were also eager to find this master Hao, but he didn't seem to have any intention of standing up.

"This master Hao is really strange!"

They all sighed.

Most alchemists couldn't wait to be famous. The more famous they were, the higher their status would be, and the more people would come to ask for alchemy. In this way, they could accumulate connections, which would be of great benefit to their cultivation and the collection of medicinal herbs.

However, this master Hao didn't seem to want to be famous at all.

"What a weirdo!"

"Hey! This is what a true expert is like, disdaining these small benefits!"

Everyone had mixed opinions.

A few days passed, and another round of the pill Wave Gathering took place.

The pill Wave Gathering this time was even more lively than the previous one.

Dan Kuang and the others had returned, each of them bringing out their strongest power and putting in a lot of capital to avenge their humiliation.

"Dan Kuang and the others have come in full force this time!"

"I've heard about that too. Pill maniac is throwing all of his capital into pill concocting. Pill maniac, pill demon, and the others are all doing the same thing. They're all going to get revenge for what happened."

"If that Grandmaster Hao is still a Vermilion Bird pill, then we're in trouble!"

After watching the first half of the match, everyone was even more certain.

This time, dan Kuang and the others had taken out all of their precious elixirs and spiritual medicines. They had used them all to refine all kinds of rare elixirs. The total auction price was six or seven billion.

This was only the first half of the match. There were still their pills to be played.

As for Grandmaster Hao's pill, they hadn't seen it yet. Just like before, it was probably left for last.

"That's hanging!"

Everyone's hearts were in their throats.

In the end, the crowd was disappointed. The auction was already at its end, and Grandmaster Hao must have only put up one pill. There was an 80% chance that it was still the Vermilion Bird pill. Even if there were still close to 10000 pills, he would not be able to take first place this time.

Just as everyone thought so, attendant MA laughed, "Everyone, I'm sure you've waited for a long time! Next, it was master Hao's turn to make his pill! This time, Grandmaster's pill is no longer the Vermilion Bird pill"

Hearing this, everyone was stunned.

Not the Vermilion Bird pill?

This was far beyond their expectations.

"Attendant MA, if it's not the Vermilion Bird pill, then what is it?"

The crowd shouted out of curiosity.

Deacon MA smiled and said, "it's hard to say. There are too many pills. Not only are there a lot of them, but there are also a lot of different types. There are a total of 108 types of pills. There are eight of each type."

As soon as he finished speaking, the entire place fell silent.

Everyone was dumbstruck.
