

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1735

“Grandmaster pill demon was defeated as well!”

The auction house was in an uproar again.

Grandmaster pill demon’s reaction was exactly the same as the other two. He had clearly been defeated.

“I ... Am not as good as him!”

Grandmaster pill demon stared at the pill in his hand for a long time before finally speaking, his expression incomparably dejected.

If there was only a slight difference in skill level, he would definitely not be like this. He would only feel disgruntled. However, in the face of such a huge gap, he could only feel dispirited.

Seeing his appearance, Deacon MA sighed in his heart.

“Now, the bidding begins. The starting price for each of the eight nine birds pills is 50 million!”

As soon as attendant Ma’s voice fell, the four sides were in an uproar. The bidding sounds rose one after another and were extremely intense.

Grandmaster pill demon’s myriad birds pill had been sold for five hundred million. This nine birds pill was thirty million higher.

“It seems that the first place is without a doubt!”

The crowd did some calculations. There were only three types of pills, but the total auction price had already exceeded seven billion. There were still more than a hundred types of pills. Even if they were all ordinary pills, the total amount would still steadily exceed the five top grandmasters.

“The fourth type of pill, crape myrtle star pill, eight of them!”

Deacon MA said as he looked at the demonic pill master.

The demonic pill master’s expression changed, but he didn’t look surprised.

It was the three of them before, and now it was his turn.

He stood up without a word, asked for the pill, took it out to have a look, and admitted very straightforwardly, “I’ve lost!”

After he finished speaking, he returned the pill to Deacon MA and turned to leave.

At this point, there was no need for him to continue watching. Whether it was this pill or this auction, he had lost. He had lost completely. There was no point in watching any longer.

“Eight little crape myrtle stars elixir, the bidding begins!”

After the demonic pill master, it was naturally master dan Feng’s pill. He took it and looked at it, his face extremely serious. Then, without a word, he put down the pill and left.

“He also lost!”

The entire venue was in an uproar.

The five top-notch Masters were all defeated!

This result was beyond everyone’s expectations. In just half a month, master Hao had collected so many rare materials and refined them all into pills, defeating all five grandmasters.

This was unbelievable!

The alchemists were shocked, but they also felt that it was unbelievable.

“What a joke! Grandmaster dan Kuang used to mock Grandmaster Hao, saying that he only knew how to make the Vermilion Bird pill. I didn’t think that Grandmaster Hao would know all kinds of pills. He’ll have nothing to say now. ”

The crowd glanced at Grandmaster dan Kuang from time to time and whispered to each other.

Their expressions were filled with a sneer.

Grandmaster dan Kuang had been arrogant before, shouting every day. But now, he couldn’t be arrogant anymore. He seemed to be listless. Apparently, he had suffered a great blow.

After a while, the auction continued.

Everyone’s enthusiasm was also high, and they were getting more and more curious. The first five types of pills were to challenge the other five grandmasters, so what kind of pills were the next hundred or so types?

“Next, we’ll auction the sixth type of pill, eight origin severing pills!”

Attendant MA announced loudly.

“Origin severing pill?”

Everyone was stunned, their faces full of astonishment.

They were very familiar with this origin severing pill. It was a Dao severing level pill. It was very ordinary and of a very low grade.

“How could it be the origin severing pill!”

“This is too ordinary!”

Everyone was in an uproar.

Attendant MA laughed. “Think about it. This is the origin severing Dao that came from Grandmaster Hao. Have you forgotten about the Vermilion Bird pill? although it’s the same Vermilion Bird pill, will the one you refine be the same as Grandmaster ‘s?”

When everyone heard this, they all came to a realization.

That’s right! This was a pill produced by Grandmaster Hao, how could it be the same!

With Grandmaster Hao’s standards, even the lowest-grade Peiyuan pill could be concocted by him. It was different from the rest.

“This pill is the same as the Vermillion Bird pill, it’s also a perfect pill. It looks ordinary, but its effects are dozens of times better than an ordinary origin severing pill. The starting price is 1000. The bidding will begin now!”

” 1100!”

” 1200!”

The crowd began to fight fiercely.

Even if it was just an origin severing pill, it was made by Grandmaster Hao after all, so its value was different. Even if he didn’t use it, he could keep it as a collection.

This Grandmaster Hao had defeated five top-notch grandmasters by himself. His level was so high that he was probably only one step away from becoming a saint. It was only a matter of time before he became a Saint, but once he did, the pill would be different.

Who wouldn’t want to collect a few of the pills refined by a pill Sage?

In their eyes, a simple pill had no value. What was more valuable was the reputation of the pill and the face it brought to them.

“Ten thousand!”

“Eleven thousand!”

Everyone’s eyes were red, and they were about to go crazy.

Even the alchemists of the medicine God mountain joined the battle and began to bid for this batch of Yuan severing pills.

They all wanted to bid for it and study it. Perhaps they could gain some inspiration from it and improve their alchemy skills.

Just like that, the price of a mere origin severing pill rose again and again, quickly breaking through twenty thousand, then thirty thousand ...

In the end, the price was fixed at 100000!

“One hundred thousand for one origin severing pill! Oh my God! Are you all crazy?”

Many people were speechless.

On the market, the most common origin severing pill was only a few hundred Yuan, and the best quality one was less than a thousand Yuan. But now, it was sold for a sky-high price of 100000 Yuan, which once again set a new record for the highest price of the origin severing pill in history.

“Hahaha! This 100,000 was well spent! It’s worth it!”

The one who won the bid was an elder of the Zheng clan. After receiving the pill, he held the pill bottle and gave it a few heavy kisses. He was extremely happy.

Grandmaster Hao was the most influential person in the ancient desolate alchemy world. He was destined to become a saint in the future. It was worth it no matter how much money was spent on the pills refined by such a person. The Zheng clan might even be able to establish a relationship with Grandmaster Hao by using this pill!

“F * ck!”

“Look at this old man Zheng!”

Everyone rolled their eyes, feeling a little jealous.

They all wanted master Hao’s pills.

However, there were still a lot of pills. Only six types had been auctioned off so far. There were still 102 types left, and they would be able to get one at least.

“The seventh is the tranquil heart pill!”

“The eighth is the youth retaining pill!”

“The ninth type, the longevity pill!”

All kinds of medicinal pills were continuously presented on the stage and auctioned off.

Although they were all very common pills, because they were made by Grandmaster Hao, they were completely different. Not only were the medicinal effects stronger, many of the pills had also been modified by Grandmaster Hao, and they now had various additional effects.

For example, the tranquil heart pill could not only calm one's mind, but it could also calm one's mind and strengthen one's soul.

There was also the youth retaining pill. Not only could it retain one's youth, but it could also beautify one's skin and change one's appearance, making one more beautiful.

Each of his pills seemed to have mixed the effects of several kinds of pills together. Not only did they not clash, but they were also unusually harmonious.

"Wonderful! It's really wonderful!"

"Ah! Why didn't I think that these two pills could be fused together?"

Many alchemists clicked their tongues in wonder and couldn't help but exclaim.

These pills were simply eye-opening to them, and they were dazed.

As for that master Hao, his ability to freely combine pill recipes and alter the pill's properties was also something that everyone admired.

Even the alchemy fanatic Grandmaster was full of praise. He loved to fiddle with pill formulas and research all kinds of new pill formulas. These pills made by Grandmaster Hao were exactly to his taste.

"These pills don't stick to one pattern. They're full of imagination. They're like heavenly horses that fly in the sky. It's really amazing!"

"If Grandmaster pill maniac's specialty is his wildness and frivolity, and Grandmaster pill fanatic's specialty is his fanaticism, then Grandmaster Hao's specialty is his demonic nature. The Dao of demonic nature is unpredictable, just like his pills!"

The group of alchemists praised.

The demon's words were also acknowledged by many alchemists present.

The next hundred or so types of pills were mostly ordinary pills. The average price was in the millions, and the highest was in the tens of millions. However, there were many of them, and together with the rare pills, the price had long exceeded ten billion.

After bidding for the last type of pill, the pill Wave Gathering ended smoothly.
