

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1736

As soon as the pill Wave Gathering ended, the medicine God mountain was in an uproar.

Master Hao had defeated the five grandmasters once again and won first place in the pill Wave Gathering!

Moreover, it was a direct confrontation this time, and the five grandmasters had lost completely.

“In just half a month, he managed to refine so many pills. How did this master Hao Do it?”

The group of alchemists was puzzled.

However, they were only puzzled for a moment and did not care anymore. After all, this was master Hao, not an ordinary person. They could not use common sense to judge him.

The pills concocted by Grandmaster Hao had also attracted the interest of many alchemists. Many alchemists participated in the pill Wave Gathering and won many pills.

Now, these pills had become the most popular items in the mountain. Countless alchemists had gathered together to study these pills and study the mysteries within.

“As expected of Grandmaster Hao. There’s such a profound mystery hidden within this tiny tranquil heart pill!”

“Master’s level really makes us feel inferior!”

The more they studied, the more amazed they were.

As expected of master Hao, who had defeated dan Kuang and the others all by himself. Even the pills he had casually refined were beyond their reach.

“Pill demon! A pill demon! He’s worthy of his name!”

The name of pill demon quickly spread and was publicly acknowledged.

The five grandmasters of the medicine God mountain had now become six. With the addition of a pill demon, the medicine God mountain was far above the other five grandmasters and had secured its first place.

Everyone on the medicine God mountain had heard of the pill demon, Grandmaster Hao. From the first peak to the tenth peak, everyone was talking about him and his unique pills.

Master Hao’s reputation had reached its peak.

When people talked about it, their faces were full of reverence.

As for his pills, they had set off a wave of imitation in the medicine God mountain. All kinds of new tranquil heart pills and youth retaining pills were produced one after another. This wave had even spread and affected the entire ancient desolate alchemy world.

The name of the pill demon also spread and shocked the ancient desolate pill world.

“The medicine God mountain has produced another incredible person. He’s called pill demon or something!”

“Have you heard of that Grandmaster Hao? yes, that’s him. I heard that he defeated the other five grandmasters of the medicine God mountain in one fell swoop. His alchemy skills have reached perfection and he’s about to become a saint. He’ll become another Saint Alchemist in the future!”

In the ancient wilderness, the name of Grandmaster pill demon Hao had spread far and wide, becoming known to even more people.

The name ‘master Hao’ had spread before and gained a certain level of fame. Now, his fame was even greater and his fame spread everywhere.

A Grandmaster who far surpassed dan Kuang and the others, who was infinitely close to Saint level, attracted the attention of countless people.

In an instant, countless people from all over the ancient wilderness flocked to the medicine God mountain, hoping to see Grandmaster Hao. For the past few days, the entrance of the medicine God mountain had been packed with people who came to visit Grandmaster Hao.

“I want to see master Hao!”

“I’ve prepared a huge gift to meet master Hao. Why won’t you let me see him?”

They gathered at the door and made a loud noise.

The medicine God mountain’s people were in pain. After Grandmaster Hao became famous, many clans came to buy the Vermilion Bird pill. Now that Grandmaster Hao’s name had spread throughout the ancient wilderness, even more people came.

Looking at the vast number of people outside the mountain Gate, Deacon li only felt an incomparable headache.

There were so many people, how was he supposed to deal with them!

Who was that master Hao?

He was extremely depressed. He must have been the one who led master Hao in because he was the one who had led everyone into the medicine God mountain. However, he had not realized that there was such a peerless master hidden inside!

Who could it be?

“This master Hao is so powerful. He must be an outstanding master with an extraordinary temperament. Moreover, he must be very old ...”

He thought about it over and over again. He thought about all the people who had entered the medicine God mountain in the past two years, but he couldn't find a single person who matched his name.

“Ai!”

He sighed again as he thought about it. He looked at the group of people outside and felt even more distressed.

“Ai! Everyone, I'm sorry, master Hao doesn't want to see anyone! Please leave!”

He went up and shouted.

The crowd was in an uproar.

“I traveled thousands of miles and crossed mountains and rivers to come here just to see the master and admire his elegant demeanor. If I can't see him, I won't leave!”

“Right! I'm not leaving!”

The crowd was so excited that they didn't shout. Many people sat down on the spot and didn't leave.

Deacon li opened his mouth, but he was speechless.

His face was wrinkled into a bitter gourd.

It wasn't that the medicine God mountain didn't want to, but they really didn't know who this master Hao was!

To be honest, he wanted to see master Hao even more than these people and admire his elegance!

“Cough! Everyone, to be honest, Grandmaster Hao's identity is a mystery. Even the medicine God mountain doesn't know who he is, so how can I introduce him to you?” Deacon li explained helplessly.

“You guys don't know either? Hey! Who are you trying to fool?”

No one believed it.

They were from the medicine God mountain, how could they not know? He must be lying!

At that moment, they were in high spirits.

“Ai!”

Deacon li felt even more bitter.

This master Hao had really caused him a lot of trouble.

It was bustling outside. At the same time, in a cave residence on the tenth peak, Tang Hao sat cross-legged with his eyes closed, cultivating and absorbing the pills.

After a while, he opened his eyes, which were shining with divine light.

“Perfect!”

Tang Hao sensed his surroundings and was overjoyed.

After a few months of cultivation, he had finally reached the peak of the second tribulation. Next, he would trigger the immortal tribulation and undergo the third Thunder tribulation, the physical body tribulation.

Once the physical body tribulation was over, he would advance to the third tribulation realm. His physical body would be greatly strengthened, and his strength would double. At that time, he would be able to easily fight against the venerable of ten thousand spirits and old man Gu tuo.

“There’s no rush!”

He pondered for a moment and decided not to cross the Tribulation now. He had earned quite a lot of cauldron coins during this period of time, so it was time for him to exchange them for some pill Scriptures. He was also very interested in the Scriptures of the medicine God mountain.

In particular, the insights left behind by the legendary alchemy God were the most attractive to him.

An alchemy God!

That was an existence that far surpassed alchemy Saints.

Even in the glorious ancient times, when pill Saints were born, there were only a few who could be called pill gods, and every one of them was a world-shaking generation.

Tang Hao’s current alchemy Dao attainments were considered above average among the alchemy Saints, but he was probably still far away from that alchemy God Realm.

He walked out of the cave dwelling, changed his appearance, and went to the place where the Scriptures were kept. He took all the alchemy Scriptures that he was interested in, even the Supreme comprehension of the alchemy God was exchanged by him. When he came to the door of the hall with so many things, the elder was so shocked that his jaw almost fell off.

“You ... You are ...”

The elder’s eyes were wide open as he looked at Tang Hao in shock.

Tang Hao smiled at him and did not deny it.

“My apologies! I’ve been disrespectful!”

The elder hurriedly stood up, revealing a look of fear and trepidation. He first saluted, then counted the alchemy Scriptures, and after exchanging them, he respectfully handed them over.

“Farewell, master!”

In the end, he even respectfully sent Tang Hao off, and then stood at the entrance of the hall, watching Tang Hao leave. There was still a touch of respect and admiration on his face.
