

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1744

Gu Sen gradually became excited.

Everyone had found the treasure chest and accepted the test. Gu Sen was calm. But a mysterious man appeared out of nowhere with a pig slaughtering knife. He cut open the treasure chest, took the treasure, and ran away.

That fellow's movements were too fast, so fast that they could not even see his face clearly.

It was like a gust of wind. When the wind blew, the chest was gone, and so was the treasure.

They were all in disbelief. It was said that these treasure chests were personally refined by the alchemy God. For so many years, no one had ever been able to break open these chests, but now, someone had actually broken them easily.

Who was that guy?

And what level of treasure was that saber?

They were so excited that they began to search for the mysterious man in the ancient forest.

Very soon, they discovered that they weren't the only ones who had encountered it. Everyone was the same. They had all been visited by that mysterious person and had all their treasures stolen.

"This is too hateful!"

"He's a black sheep. He's too embarrassing for us alchemists. If you want the treasure, you should follow the rules. It's wrong to engage in such crooked ways!"

They rebuked him righteously, but in their hearts, they all began to think about the saber.

To be able to split open a box refined by an alchemy God, it must be an extraordinary treasure.

Also, that guy took away so many boxes, so he must have countless treasures on him. As long as they caught him, all the treasures would be theirs.

"That's right. This kind of person is a black sheep. We must catch him and make him spit out the treasure!"

"Right! Catch him!"

They shouted excitedly and spread out to search.

More and more people joined in, and the momentum became more and more vast.

"What? He's that Tang guy?"

There were also people who recognized him after seeing his face clearly.

However, no one believed them when they told them the news.

How could a mere tenth realm Alchemist have such ability? he must have seen wrongly.

“Hahaha! How could it be that guy? if it’s really him, I’ll write my name backward!”

They all sneered in disdain.

They only believed it when they saw that guy descend from the sky and take away the treasure chest.

At the same time, they were even more excited. A mere tenth grade was not a powerful person. As long as they caught him, they could do anything they wanted.

“Don’t run, Tang kid!”

“Hurry up! Catch him!”

They shouted excitedly and chased after him.

“F * ck! Do you have to do this!” Tang Hao turned around and grinned when he saw the mighty army chasing after him.

There were at least tens of thousands of people!

However, he didn’t panic. He just kept running. When he saw a treasure chest, he would rush over, chop it up, and take it away.

There were many treasures in the treasure boxes. After all, they were left behind by the alchemy God. Whether it was the cauldron, the pills, or the alchemy Scripture, they were all of high quality. Tang Hao had no use for them himself, but he could give them to the disciples of Kun Lun in the future.

To him, the treasure chest itself was most likely the most useful. The material was extremely hard and was a good material for forging.

“Damn it, how can this guy be so slippery?”

“Why did he disappear again?”

Behind him, a group of people chased after him in despair.

This Tang guy was too slippery. He was like a Loach. Not only was he fast, but his movements were also very coquettish. It was impossible to catch him.

“Don’t let me catch you, Tang kid, or I’ll teach you a lesson!”

They scolded angrily.

Just like that, Tang Hao swept up almost all the treasure chests in this world while he was on the run.

Everyone was furious and joined in the pursuit.

“This Tang guy didn’t even leave us a single treasure chest. He’s too inhumane!”

They gritted their teeth, all of them furious.

This Tang guy was too much. He should have left some for them. Now that he had robbed them of everything, what were they going to do?

At the same time, they were so jealous that their eyes turned red. There were so many treasure chests, but all of them went into that guy’s pocket. Who knew how many treasures were in there!

“Hmph! If you have the guts, don’t let him appear again, or I’ll kill him!”

They clamored to vent the anger in their hearts.

They looked around, but still couldn’t find that guy, so they gave up.

“That guy must be hiding. We can’t find him. Let’s go to the alchemy God Palace to take a look.”

“No rush! This guy can’t run away. The exit is closed now, where can he run to? When the time comes, we’ll let the two elders uphold justice, capture this fellow, and properly deal with him.”

They all headed toward the center of this world, where the alchemy God Palace was.

“Right! Let’s go to the pill God Palace first!”

Tang Hao had long since changed his appearance and joined the group. At this moment, he was following the group, grandly heading towards the alchemy God’s Palace.

Tang Hao was satisfied that he had obtained all the treasures outside. Next would be the alchemy God Palace.

“Eh? Why are you guys here?”

Many people had gathered in front of the alchemy God’s Palace. They were all a little surprised when they saw the large Army surging over in a grandiose manner.

Why are all these people here? Shouldn’t they be searching for treasures in all directions?

The alchemy God had placed many treasure chests in all four corners of this world, but in the alchemy God’s Palace, there was only the alchemy God’s test. There were no other treasures.

“Hey! Don’t say anymore, I’ve met a pervert!”

Everyone was in a daze.

This matter was too embarrassing. A mere tenth grade had actually snatched all the treasures in front of their eyes, and they could do nothing about it! So many people had chased after him, but in the end, that guy still managed to escape!

“Perverted? What perverted?”

Grandmaster pill fanatic and the others were all puzzled.

“No more! There was nothing left! Not a single box is left!”

Everyone said in embarrassment.

“What?”

Grandmaster alchemy addict and the others were shocked. There were clearly countless treasure chests in all directions of the alchemy God World, and there were also many treasures inside. How did they disappear?

Could it be that a peerless expert had appeared and taken all these treasures?

“Hey! It’s not an expert, it’s that Tang guy!”

“Surnamed Tang? Who is it?”

Grandmaster pill fanatic and the others were even more confused.

They had never heard of a Tang before.

“It’s just a mere tenth grade. Of course you don’t recognize him, master!”

“Tenth grade?”

Grandmaster pill fanatic and the others were even more puzzled.

A tenth-grade Alchemist was the lowest level Alchemist in the medicine God mountain. How could such a person sweep across the entire alchemy God World and take all the treasures?

“He didn’t take it, he just snatched it!”

“Yes, yes! He had a treasure knife, which was especially sharp. With a lift of his hand and a drop of the knife, the box broke with a crack. He easily took away all the treasures! We had so many people chasing after him, but he still managed to escape!”

After hearing this, Grandmaster pill fanatic and the others looked incredulous.

A mere tenth-grade had a treasure knife that could cut open the treasure chest of the pill God?

Why did this sound so unbelievable?

However, these people didn't seem to be lying.

"This is strange!"

"Let's wait for the two elders to come down!"

Grandmaster pill fanatic and the others discussed for a while, then looked up.

Above the alchemy God Palace hung a tower with a total of seven floors. The inheritance of the alchemy God was on the highest floor. If one wanted to obtain the treasure, one had to pass through the seven tests. However, ever since the alchemy God Palace had appeared, no one had been able to pass through and obtain the inheritance of the alchemy God.
