

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1745

“Which level are you at now?”

“The people from the Yao clan have also entered?”

In the square in front of the palace, everyone raised their heads to look at the pagoda and discussed it.

“They’re all inside!” Grandmaster alchemy fanatic nodded and said, “but they’ve only been in there for a short time. They’re still on the first few levels. Look, the highest level is only the third level!”

With that, the pill fanatic pointed to the third floor of the tower.

There was a piece of Jade embedded there, and it was emitting a faint spiritual light.

Everyone responded with an “Oh.” After watching for a while, they were all bored. Many people sat down on the ground and waited.

In the past, when they came here, they would look for treasure chests everywhere and rush to pass the test. But now, there were no treasure chests left. They had nothing to do and could only sit here and stare.

“Al! Master, why aren’t you guys going?”

Someone asked Grandmaster pill fanatic.

Grandmaster pill fanatic smiled wryly and shook his head. “It’s not like I don’t know my own standards. What can I do if I go?”

As he spoke, a bitter expression appeared on his face. “I entered it 50 years ago and was stopped at the fourth level. If we couldn’t even get through it back then, then it’ll be even more difficult to get through it after 50 years.”

“Many of you are newbies, so you don’t know how difficult the pill Divine Tower is. The difficulty of this tower increases with age. The older you are, the more difficult it will be and the slimmer your hope will be.”

“The older you are, the more difficult it is? How could this be?” Someone wondered.

“When you enter the pill God tower, you’ll face the clone of the pill God, and its age corresponds to your age. In other words, if you’re eighteen years old, after you enter, you’ll face the pill God at the age of eighteen. If you’re a hundred years old, you’ll be the pill God at the age of a hundred.”

“Think about it, to become an alchemy God, what kind of monster is that? when he was young, his alchemy skills were already extremely profound. As he grew older, his level became more and more profound. It is said that this alchemy God became a Saint in his forties, and became an alchemy God in his seventies or eighties.”

“That is to say, if you’re seventy or eighty years old, after entering, what you’ll face will be an alchemy God!”

Grandmaster pill fanatic’s smile grew even more bitter.

He was already over a hundred years old, how could he still have any hope of passing?

When everyone heard this, they were all left speechless.

“An alchemy God? What a joke! Who else can live in this world?”

Grandmaster alchemy fanatic said, “that’s why the younger you are, the better your chances are. This time, the two elders have placed their hopes on Grandmaster dan Kuang. However, the Yao clan is also involved this time. Those young people from the Yao clan are also very competitive.”

“Especially the Holy Son of the Yao clan, Yao kongxuan. He should be the one with the highest chance of passing. If he can’t, I don’t know who else can!”

When they heard the master mention the Holy Son of the Yao clan, everyone was a little angry and unwilling.

The Yao clan’s Holy Son was truly detestable, but they had to admit that he was indeed powerful. He was much stronger than their Grandmaster dan Kuang.

The Holy Son of the Yao clan was the most promising!

“The two elders also went in, wanting to use the incarnation of the alchemy God to hone their alchemy skills. I won’t go in this time, let’s wait for the next time!” Grandmaster alchemy fanatic said and sighed.

After waiting for a while, everyone became more and more bored. There was no movement from the pill God tower for a long time.

Some of them began to talk about the Yao clan’s Holy Son, while some of them talked about the person surnamed Tang. All of them gritted their teeth in anger.

About four hours later, many people emerged from the entrance of the pill tower. They were the two elders of the medicine God mountain and a group of elders from the Yao clan.

“This alchemy God’s test indeed lives up to its reputation!”

The elders of the Yao clan sighed.

In the pill God tower, they could spar with the incarnation of the pill God. It would be of great help to their alchemy skills.

They didn’t come down and just waited in front of the pill tower.

“Although the alchemy God’s test is difficult, it definitely won’t be difficult for my clan’s Holy Son!”

"It's said that alchemy God Bai Feng became a Saint in his forties. He's about the same as Kong Xuan. Kong Xuan will definitely get the alchemy God's recognition, pass this test, and get the inheritance!"

The members of the Yao clan raised their heads and looked at the piece of Jade that had lit up on the third floor. They couldn't help but say proudly.

The two elders didn't say anything, and their expressions were a little ugly.

After waiting for another two hours, people came out one after another, all of them with an expression of understanding.

These people were all older, and the difficulty of entering was also higher. At most, they could only pass two stages, but they had all gained something from passing this test.

"Look, the fourth level is lit up. Someone has entered!"

Not long after, there was a commotion all around. It was Yu Liang on the fourth level, which also meant that someone had made it to the fourth level.

"It's definitely Kong Xuan!"

"In such a short time, you've reached the fourth level. As expected of Kong Xuan!"

The members of the Yao clan couldn't help but feel proud.

"Hmph! How do you know it's him? maybe it's Grandmaster dan Kuang!"

The people of the medicine God mountain were not convinced.

In terms of talent, Grandmaster dan Kuang was only slightly inferior. He wasn't that far off from the Holy Son of the Yao clan.

"Forget about that alchemy maniac of yours. He's not even an alchemy Saint. How can he compete with my clan's Saint son?"

The people on both sides were unconvinced and started an intense dispute.

Time passed by slowly ...

About six hours later, the Jade on the fifth floor lit up, causing the square to be in an uproar.

"The fifth level!"

"Is there really a chance of breaking through?"

Everyone was excited.

If he could really clear the pill Divine Tower, this would undoubtedly be another heroic feat that would be recorded in the history of alchemy!

The man from the Yao clan was the most excited. As long as the pill God tower was destroyed, not only would he be able to obtain the divine alchemy badge, but he would also be able to cause another stir in the alchemy world with it, and make his name as the Holy Son of the Yao clan spread across Pangu continent.

“As long as I get the alchemy God token, there’s hope for the patriarch to become a God!”

Yao ting’s face was red with excitement.

For the Yao clan, this was the most important thing. As long as their patriarch became an alchemy God, the Yao clan would be able to rise to the top of the Pangu continent and regain the glory of the ancient times.

“Whether our Yao clan can be revived and return to its peak will all depend on today!”

“Kong Xuan, you must do your best!”

The emotions of the Yao clan members were getting higher and higher.

Just as everyone was looking forward to it, a few hours later, the Jade Ruyuan on the sixth floor lit up.

The square was in an uproar.

The person who could make it to the sixth level was definitely the Holy Son of the Yao clan. It seemed like there was really hope for him to break through.

The members of the Yao clan couldn’t help but shout excitedly, their faces red.

When the Jade on the seventh floor lit up, the atmosphere reached its peak. Even the medicine God mountain disciples were impressed.

“It doesn’t matter if the Holy Son of the Yao clan can break through. The fact that he can reach the seventh level has already proven his talent!”

“Since ancient times, there have been very few people who could reach the seventh level. They can be counted on one hand. Now, there’s one more!”

Everyone exclaimed in admiration.
