

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1748

“Still the same, please identify these three plants!”

The incarnation of the alchemy God said.

Tang Hao studied it for a moment, then said, “This one is the heart-burning grass, and this one is the purple flame heart-burning grass. The difference between the two is very small. Only by looking carefully can you see the faint purple at the bottom of this stalk.”

“There’s also this one. At first glance, it doesn’t look any different from the heart-burning grass, but in fact, it’s much larger. This is the most precious of the heart-burning grass, the heart-burning grass of the archaic species!”

After hearing this, the incarnation of the alchemy God was slightly stunned.

“You can even recognize this?”

His tone was a little shocked.

It had been a long time since anyone had answered this question. There were very few people who knew about the archaic heart burning grass.

“I just happened to hear about it!” Tang Hao said humbly.

“You have some skill!”

The incarnation of the alchemy God praised.

It had only been two questions, and he was already able to conclude that this Alchemist surnamed Tang was no ordinary person. Whether it was his knowledge of plants and vegetation or his temperament, he was top notch in all aspects.

“It seems like the quality is very high this time!”

He thought to himself.

Among the group of people who had just entered, there were several who were of good standards. One of them had even made it to the last stage, but unfortunately, he had failed in the end and failed to break through the stage. It was unknown which stage this person would be able to reach!

“Let’s continue! The third question ...”

The alchemy God’s incarnation flicked his sleeve, and a few more plants appeared.

Tang Hao quickly recognized him and reported his name.

In the Dao of plants and vegetation, his attainments were extremely profound. Even when facing an alchemy God's incarnation, he was not the slightest bit afraid.

"Correct!"

"That's right!"

One question after another, he answered them all quickly and accurately.

The expression of the alchemy God's incarnation gradually changed, and he was somewhat aghast. It had already been twenty to thirty questions, and this guy actually didn't get a single question wrong. Every question was incomparably accurate. This ... How was this possible?

Up until now, this guy's accuracy was actually 100%, but all this while, the highest was only 70% to 80%!

His questions were not ordinary. Each one of them was profound and he had carefully prepared them. How could someone answer all of them?

While he was shocked, he was also a little unwilling.

"I don't believe that this guy really knows everything. Out of a hundred questions, there's bound to be one that can stump him."

He began to choose the questions and brought forward all the difficult ones. He thought that this would definitely make this guy difficult, but the result shocked him greatly. This guy was still able to answer the questions fluently and correctly without a single question.

This guy's accuracy was still 100%!

"I've seen a ghost!"

He was a little speechless.

"The 60th Dao. Please identify these five plants and accurately state their habits, uses, and medicinal properties!"

In the blink of an eye, it was the 60th.

Tang Hao's eyes swept across the room, and his lips curled into a faint smile.

The problem of identifying similar plants and vegetation had been difficult for him, but this was a simple question. Whether it was from the ancient era or the current era, there was no plant in this world that he didn't recognize.

"This is blue silk Grass!"

"This is the soul-killing flower!"

Tang Hao pointed at the plants one by one and identified them. He then reported their habits, uses, and medicinal properties.

The alchemy God's incarnation was stunned for a moment, then he laughed bitterly.

There were a total of 60 questions, and this guy did not get a single question wrong!

He asked himself if he could answer it himself, he might not be able to do it to such an extent.

This fellow's knowledge of plants and vegetation was truly terrifying!

He thought to himself.

"Do you still want to continue?" Seeing that the alchemy God's incarnation didn't speak, Tang Hao asked doubtfully.

The incarnation hesitated for a moment, not knowing what to do. He had never encountered such a situation. When he set up this test, he had not thought that someone would directly answer all sixty questions correctly.

"What a freak!"

His face was a little dark as he muttered in a daze.

The test that he had set up was so easily broken, so he felt a little uncomfortable in his heart.

"No need. According to the rules, you've already answered sixty questions correctly, so you've passed. We can proceed to the second round directly."

"I see!"

Tang Hao was a little disappointed. The first few questions were easy, but I thought there would be more difficult and challenging questions later!"

When the incarnation of the alchemy God heard this, his face turned darker.

How could there be more difficult questions after that? he had raised all the difficult questions and they were all easily solved by this guy!

When he thought back to this guy's tone, he seemed to be a little disappointed, which made him even more upset.

"Cough, cough! Congratulations, fellow Daoist Tang, for passing the first trial. Let's go to the second floor!" As he spoke, he flicked his sleeve, and the two of them disappeared from the void. When they reappeared, they were already on the second floor.

At this time, outside the tower, the crowd was still waiting impatiently. They thought that it would only take half a quarter of an hour for that guy surnamed Tang to retreat and roll out of the tower. However, no matter how long they waited, they still didn't see him come out.

"What's going on?"

"Why is he still inside?"

The crowd gradually became restless, and everyone was a little impatient.

"Al! Look, the Jade on the first floor has been destroyed!" Suddenly, someone pointed at the sky and shouted.

"It's finally over!"

Everyone sighed in relief. After waiting for a tenth grade for so long, they were really impatient.

"Please uphold justice, two elders. You must make that fellow hand over all his treasures!"

"Right! Those treasures were all obtained by that guy through despicable means. It's not honorable!"

The crowd shouted in unison, their emotions stirred.

"Good, good, good!"

The two elders quickly nodded.

It was indeed disgraceful to open the treasure box and steal the treasures inside. It was contrary to the will of the alchemy God. These treasures had to be handed over by Alchemist Tang. However, he had also contributed, so some should still be left for him.

At that moment, everyone looked at the tower's door. They would wait for that guy to come out and then interrogate him. However, no one saw him.

"That's weird! Where is he?"

They were all a little puzzled.

Suddenly, someone raised his head and looked up. He was dumbfounded and revealed a look of disbelief.

The second floor's lights were lit up!

Didn't this mean that the guy had successfully passed the first level?

But how was that possible?

More and more people noticed it, and they were all stunned.

Their eyes were wide open and filled with disbelief.

A mere tenth grade, how could he pass the first level?

One had to know that many Tier 2 and 3 pill refiners were stuck at this first stage. A tier 10 pill refiner would never be able to pass.

Many people rubbed their eyes hard, but they suspected that there was something wrong with their eyes.

“How did this happen?”

A moment later, a deafening clamor erupted all around.

Everyone found it unbelievable.

“If it’s really tenth grade, then it’s absolutely impossible to pass!” Grandmaster alchemy fanatic said, “unless he’s not tenth grade!”

“Not tenth-grade? What rank is he?”

“It can’t be!”

Everyone was in an uproar again.

Grandmaster alchemy fanatic looked at the pill Divine Tower with a touch of excitement on his face. “Have you forgotten that our medicine God mountain has a Grandmaster?”

When everyone heard this, they were stunned.

There was another master?

They only reacted after a few seconds.

Of course they remembered. How could they forget the name of Grandmaster pill demon? he was the number one Grandmaster of the medicine God mountain. He had created one miracle after another in the auction and led the trend of the ancient desolate alchemy world.

This person’s identity was also a mystery. Until now, no one knew who he was.

Could that Tang guy be Grandmaster pill demon?

They found it even more unbelievable. It was really difficult for them to associate that surnamed Tang with such a powerful figure.
