

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1753

Inside the pill God tower, Tang Hao stepped forward and arrived at the top floor.

The vast space was filled with treasures. There were cauldrons, pills, and all kinds of spiritual medicine that shone with divine brilliance.

In the middle was an ancient Hall with two balls of light floating inside. If one looked carefully, one could see a cauldron and a palm-sized token.

“This is the Shennong cauldron!”

The alchemy God’s incarnation came up and pointed at the cauldron as he introduced it.

“This cauldron is a supreme weapon of the nine tribulations. It has many wonderful uses. There is immortal Qi in the cauldron. When you use this cauldron to refine pills, the pills will contain immortal Qi, which will greatly improve the quality of the pills. Moreover, the speed will also be greatly improved.”

“I won’t say much about the various wondrous uses, you have to experience them yourself!”

“What a good cauldron!”

Tang Hao stepped forward and picked up the cauldron. He studied it closely.

The eight tribulations cauldron in his hand was far inferior to this one.

The 8th tribulation and the 9th tribulation seemed to be only one tribulation apart, but the difference between them was like heaven and earth.

The eighth tribulation was an Emperor, and the ninth tribulation was a Supreme, the most powerful expert below the immortal realm!

The items refined by such a person were all world-shaking existences.

The Emperor weapons that Tang Hao had, such as the great flame spear and the heaven reverse divine spear, were many times weaker than the red bow.

There was only one arrow left on the red bow, and it was already so powerful. If he could shoot a few more arrows at the same time, the power would be several times stronger.

“And this pill God token!”

The alchemy God’s incarnation reached out and grabbed the token. He held it in his palm and rubbed it a few times, his face revealing a bit of nostalgia.

“Back then, I also obtained this alchemy God token at your age. Today, I’ll give it to you!” Following that, he solemnly handed over the divine alchemy token.

“Pill God token!”

Tang Hao mumbled to himself as he studied the token in his hand.

The token was about the size of a palm and was made of some kind of ancient bronze. It was simple and unsophisticated. A mountain was carved on one side and was surrounded by clouds and mist, like a floating mountain.

On the other side, there was a huge “dan” character.

“Remember, if you want to challenge the divine mountain, you only have one chance. If you fail, you will never have another chance in your life. Therefore, you must make sure that you are 100% confident before you can activate this order to summon the divine mountain.”

“This divine mountain is called the ancient pill divine mountain. It has an extremely ancient history and has been passed down from the ancient Desolate Era. It has always been regarded as the holy mountain of the pill world.”

“This mountain is very mysterious. If you manage to climb it in the future, you can go and explore it.”

The incarnation introduced.

“Many thanks!”

Tang Hao nodded, then cupped his hands toward the clone and thanked him.

“Ah! You’re too polite!” The incarnation smiled. “Daoist Tang, with your talent, you would be the most outstanding genius even in my era. I think you’ll be able to use this token in a few years.”

“These ... Are my small collection. You can take them too!”

As he spoke, he pointed at the treasures around him.

“I’m relieved to leave this to you!”

After he finished speaking, he heaved a sigh of relief.

Tang Hao kept the items, then bowed and thanked her.

“Let’s go!”

The incarnation smiled and flicked his sleeve, tearing open a hole that led to the tower’s door.

Tang Hao cupped his hands again, then turned around and walked in.

He was a little disappointed. In the field of alchemy, he had not felt like he had met his match in a long time. If this Bai Feng was born in this era, how good would that be? then, the two of them could exchange pointers.

He sighed and stepped out of the tower.

As soon as he walked out, he was shocked. It was crowded with people outside, especially the two old men at the front. They had extremely warm smiles on their faces, which made him a little scared.

“What ... What are you guys doing?”

Tang Hao blurted out.

“Master Hao!”

As soon as he appeared, the entrance was filled with excitement. Everyone shouted excitedly and rushed over.

“Aiya! You’re master Hao! It’s an honor! It’s an honor to meet you!”

The two elders stepped forward with smiles on their faces. They each grabbed one of Tang Hao’s hands and shook it passionately.

“Aiya! He’s really a fine-looking man!”

They looked at Tang Hao and complimented him. Their tone was as nauseating as it could get.

Tang Hao’s body trembled when he heard that. He wanted to pull his hand away, but it was held tightly.

“Grandmaster Hao, please accept me as your disciple!”

The people behind rushed up in waves, fighting to squeeze to the front, the situation was extremely lively.

“Hmph!”

Not far away, the members of the Yao clan looked at this scene with ashen faces.

“Who is this guy? Where did you get it?”

They stared at the figure in the crowd and couldn’t help guessing.

However, none of the pill Dao factions in the world seemed to have such a successor!

“Hao!”

Yao Kong Xuan gritted his teeth, and his face was full of jealousy.

As the Holy Son of the Yao clan, he had always looked down on the alchemy world and was regarded as the number one genius in the alchemy world. However, he had never expected that he would be surpassed by an unknown person today.

He was clearly just a step away from breaking the pill Divine Tower, but he was just one step away and failed in the end. Now, this honor had also fallen on this fellow's head.

"I'll find out more about this guy's background after I get out!"

Yao ting's face was dark as he glared at Tang Hao.

Once this fellow broke through the pill Divine Tower, not only did he ruthlessly slap the Yao clan's face, but he had also surpassed the Yao clan's Holy Son. This would definitely affect the Yao clan's reputation in the pill world.

Also, that divine alchemy token should have belonged to his Yao clan, but it had also fallen into the hands of this brat!

He had to get the token back!

Only by snatching the token would the medicine clan patriarch be able to ascend to godhood.

"Heroes really come from youngsters! Master Hao, you've done something earth-shaking today. In two or three days, your name will spread across the entire Pangu continent and your name will be known in the world of alchemy."

"Exaggerated? It was not an exaggeration at all! Do you know how famous this pill God tower is in the pill world? It's been more than ten thousand years since the pill God tower appeared. No one has been able to break through it and there are only a few who have made it to the seventh level. You've broken through the pill God tower today, so you'll definitely shake the entire eight barren pill world!"

The two elders surrounded Tang Hao and complimented him. Tang Hao was a little embarrassed.

"Then ... What about the treasures? Is it ..."

He said after hesitating for a moment.

"No, no, no! We don't need it. All the treasures are yours, master Hao. How can we take it?"

"Yeah! They're all yours! The cauldron is yours, and the divine alchemy token is yours!"

The two elders said hurriedly.

There was only a cauldron and the divine alchemy badge that were more important. These treasures were obtained by master Hao himself, so they were not qualified to ask for them. Besides, the divine alchemy badge was useless to them. With their level, they were still far from reaching the realm of the divine alchemy!

The cauldron and the divine alchemy token could only be put to their greatest use in his hands.
