

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1755

BOOM! BOOM!

Thunder rumbled and the sky shook.

A vast heavenly might spread out, suppressing the world.

As the lightning accumulated, it began to form a huge vortex. In the center, there were flashes of golden lightning, exuding a destructive aura. It was the precursor to the world-ending lightning tribulation.

However, the destructive aura quickly dissipated, and so did the Golden lightning tribulation.

The remaining lightning was still golden, but its power was much weaker. The lightning of the second tribulation targeted the divine soul, while the lightning of the third tribulation targeted the physical body.

Whoosh!

After a moment of preparation, the first bolt of lightning descended. It brought with it the might of the heavens as it struck toward Tang Hao's head.

“Good!”

Tang Hao was not afraid. He stomped the ground and rose into the sky to meet the lightning.

His aura burst forth, and the qi and blood in his body surged, turning into smoke and soaring into the sky.

His physical body was extremely strong. Not only did he have a piece of Divine Spirit bone in his body, but this bone had also transformed part of his flesh into the body of a Divine Spirit. Previously, when he was only in the 2nd tribulation realm, he was able to take a punch from the 3rd tribulation venerable of myriad spirits, which showed how strong his physical body was.

Every inch of his flesh and blood contained a shocking amount of qi and blood. At this moment, when all of it burst out, the power was earth-shaking.

BOOM!

A deafening explosion.

He threw out a punch and blocked the lightning bolt.

In an instant, a dazzling golden light bloomed and illuminated the entire world.

Tang Hao's body trembled, and the lightning bolt dissipated.

This bolt of tribulation lightning was actually destroyed by a single punch from him.

If someone else was here and saw this scene, they would probably be so scared that they would suck in a breath of cold air. Taking the Tribulation Lightning head-on was a crazy act!

The Saints who tried to break through to the third tribulation were all extremely cautious. Some of them had even prepared various treasures to share the Tribulation lightning. This guy, on the other hand, had directly taken the lightning with his body!

Tang Hao's aura grew even stronger after he destroyed the Tribulation lightning. He shot up like a shooting star toward the center of the vortex.

Whoosh!

It was another bolt of tribulation lightning, thicker than the previous one, and more powerful.

Tang Hao threw a punch again.

The lightning bolt exploded again, and Tang Hao fell a little. However, he recovered quickly and continued to charge forward.

Peng Peng Peng!

For a time, the sound of explosions continued.

In this dark world, piercing golden light constantly exploded and illuminated the world.

The xiuzhe that were watching from far away could only see that in the center of the lightning tribulation, there were eye-piercing light explosions that blocked their vision. They could not see anything clearly.

After more than a dozen strikes, the lightning grew stronger and stronger. Tang Hao finally couldn't hold on any longer. He was continuously struck down. His skin split open, and blood spurted out.

Bang!

Another bolt of lightning struck Tang Hao's head, causing him to fall and crash heavily into the ground.

Cough cough!

Tang Hao coughed a few times and got up from the ground. He shook his limbs and mumbled, "Is this F*cking lightning still a little powerful?"

As he spoke, the wounds on his body quickly healed and he was back to normal.

This was the effect of the Nirvana Sutra!

Whoosh!

Another bolt of lightning struck down from the sky, and its aura became more and more terrifying.

“Hmph!”

Tang Hao snorted softly, but he was not afraid. On his chest, a seven-colored radiance suddenly brightened, instantly shining brightly.

In an instant, the God spirit bone was activated to the extreme, and his aura skyrocketed. He turned into a seven-colored shooting star and rushed up to meet the lightning.

Bang!

The Tribulation lightning that had left him in a sorry state earlier was now easily crushed by him. His body was covered in seven-colored divine light, and his eyes shot out divine rays. His divine might was awe-inspiring, as if an ancient God had reincarnated.

Then, there was a series of loud bangs.

He continued to crush the bolts of tribulation lightning and advanced layer by layer. Finally, he arrived before the lightning Vortex.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

The lightning tribulation seemed to be enraged, and it began to surge violently, becoming even more violent.

“Come on!”

Tang Hao shouted fearlessly.

Other people would be extremely careful and cautious when crossing this tribulation. However, he directly charged into the center of the lightning. He exploded each lightning bolt that fell. When some of the smaller lightning bolts fell, he didn't Dodge or avoid them. He just took them head-on.

When the lightning landed on his body, it could not even burn his skin. Instead, it could temper his body, making him feel comfortable all over.

He didn't look like he was going through a tribulation, but more like he was taking a shower of lightning.

Another few dozen lightning bolts passed, and Tang Hao finally felt a trace of pressure. He was continuously forced back, but the lightning tribulation was also reaching its end.

Whoosh!

After a few minutes of preparation, the last bolt of lightning fell. Tang Hao activated the God spirit bone madly and threw a heavy punch with all his strength.

Bang!

An earth-shaking explosion rang out.

The sound of thunder could be heard within a radius of a million miles.

With the point of collision as the center, circles of golden ripples spread out madly, turning into a terrifying shock wave that spread in all directions.

Fortunately, they were high up in the sky. If it had exploded in the mountains, the entire mountain range would have been swept away by the shock wave and razed to the ground.

“Ah, Yingluo!”

“It’s so eye-piercing!”

The xiuzhe that were watching from far away all felt pain in their eyes from this light. They couldn’t help but cover their eyes and cry out in shock.

“We’ve passed!”

After they got used to it, they looked up again and saw that the lightning in the sky had disappeared. A huge light pillar shone down, which meant that the Thunder tribulation had ended and that Saint had successfully passed the Tribulation.

“This should be the third tribulation! Another three-tribulation Saint has been born in the ancient wilderness!”

They cried out in shock.

In the entire ancient wilderness, third tribulation cultivators could be considered experts!

Tang Hao stood in the middle of the pillar of light, bathing in its radiance.

The light contained dense immortal Qi that seeped into his skin and body, rapidly transforming and strengthening his body.

His flesh, blood, bones, and tendons were all transformed at this moment. He was reborn.

The only thing that did not change was the God spirit bone, which was still embedded in his chest.

After more than an hour, the transformation was finally completed. The light gradually faded, and the dark clouds dispersed. The world regained its brightness.

Between heaven and earth, there was only a figure shrouded in dazzling immortal radiance.

He stood in the air, and immortal radiance shone around him. He exuded a powerful aura, and every movement of his body was filled with a vast immortal might.

Through the immortal light, one could see her Jade-like white skin. On the surface of her skin, there was a faint mist, which was the immortal Qi that had not been absorbed.

“Third tribulation!”

Tang Hao raised his hand and clenched his fist. He felt a surge of emotion as he felt the sudden increase in his strength.

Now that he had entered the third tribulation, he could be considered to have the strength to establish himself on Pangu continent. His next target would be the fourth tribulation. As long as he could pass the fourth tribulation, he would have a long life, and all the life he had burned before could be replenished.
