

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1756

The atmosphere on the demon Star Mountain was peaceful.

A few months ago, this place had been extremely lively. The mysterious Saint had come up with a brilliant plan to snatch old Jin Ji's corpse and ruthlessly play with all the Saints. Then, it had been revealed that the mysterious Saint was actually the fool who had been searching for the immortal vein.

That fool wasn't stupid at all. He secretly dug out half of the thousand spirit sect's immortal vein and ran away with the immortal crystals.

Venerable myriad spirit chased after him for more than half a month, but in the end, he still let that guy escape.

This matter caused a huge commotion on the devil Star Mountain. Everyone secretly laughed at the myriad spirit sect, and some even pitied them. The myriad spirit sect was truly unlucky. Not only were they tricked a few times, they were humiliated, and half of their immortal veins were dug out. They had suffered a huge loss.

"I heard that Wanling old man smashed things every day in anger. That's terrible!"

"Al! It was tragic! Fortunately, our sect doesn't have any immortal veins, so we won't be targeted!"

Everyone was gloating.

After a month or two, the storm finally calmed down.

The mysterious Saint had disappeared without a trace. According to everyone's guess, he should have flown far away and would never be found again. The thousand spirit sect could only swallow their grievances in silence.

As time passed, everyone gradually forgot about this matter, and peace returned to the mountain.

Everyone was either cultivating or hunting. It was peaceful.

However, on this day, in the depths of the mountain range, a treasure light suddenly soared into the sky and lasted for half an hour.

This strange phenomenon alarmed everyone in the mountains. Those who were hunting in the mountains and people from the various sects all saw this beam of light that shot into the sky.

"It's five-colored, and it's as powerful as an ox! This is definitely a treasure light!"

"Could it be that some kind of peerless treasure has appeared in the depths of the mountain range?"

Everyone was excited!

This light was too dazzling and colorful. One look and one could tell that it was the light of a treasure. There must be a precious treasure coming into being!

“Hahaha! When a precious treasure was born, only the capable could occupy it! This treasure must belong to our thousand spirit sect!”

On the main peak of the myriad spirit sect, venerable myriad spirit stood there, looking at the treasure light in the distance. He laughed heartily, his face red.

“It can’t be wrong! It’s definitely baoguang!”

“Sect master, the heavens are blessing our thousand spirit sect! We’ve missed the corpse of old jinkuang, and now the heavens have bestowed upon us another great treasure!”

The group of elders behind him were also extremely excited.

Previously, Jin Lu’s body had been taken away and his immortal veins had been dug out, causing the thousand spirit sect to be in an extremely difficult situation. Their strength had also been greatly reduced. They didn’t expect the heavens to be so kind to them and give them another precious treasure.

The thousand spirit sect was the strongest in this mountain range. The treasures that appeared here would be in the thousand spirit sect’s possession.

“Hahaha!”

Venerable myriad spirit couldn’t help but laugh. He felt his chest relax, and all the depression that had accumulated in his chest for the past few months was swept away.

He felt that he was going to strike it rich!

The heavens had made him miss the chance to find Jin Lu’s corpse, and now they were making it up to him!

It had to be a powerful treasure!

His heart was burning.

“Hurry! Hurry up and follow me to search for the treasure. We can’t lose this treasure. We must get it. Also, leave an elder here to activate the formation and wait for our triumphant return.”

He couldn’t wait any longer. He led a group of elders and flew towards the place where the treasure light came from.

At this moment, countless figures rushed out from all over the mountain range, all of them rushing towards that direction.

Who could resist the temptation of the birth of a precious treasure!

It didn't matter if many people didn't have enough strength. Snatching treasures also depended on luck. Once luck came, it couldn't be stopped.

But soon, they stopped and let out a sound of surprise.

That treasure light had actually disappeared!

"What's going on?"

"Where's baoguang?"

There was an uproar.

Venerable myriad spirit was also taken aback. He found it a little strange, and as he pondered, the treasure light lit up again, but this time in a different place. It seemed to be thicker, like a giant pillar that reached into the sky.

"F * ck! Is it my illusion, why do I feel that it's much thicker?"

Someone asked doubtfully, not daring to believe his eyes.

"A! It really seems to be thicker!"

Everyone took a closer look and was shocked.

What kind of treasure light was this? it could actually change directions, become thicker, and bigger!

"This is really strange!"

"Hey! Who cares if it's weird or not, hurry up and attack!"

Everyone quickly reacted and rushed over. However, before they arrived, the treasure light disappeared again and changed to another place, becoming even thicker.

"F * ck! What the hell?"

Everyone was a little dumbfounded!

They had never seen such a strange situation.

"This is really strange!" Venerable myriad spirit was puzzled. He had never seen such a unique treasure light before. Usually, treasure lights would only appear when some rare treasure was awakened.

Generally speaking, the treasure light would not move.

"Could it be that this treasure is alive?" The more he thought about it, the more he felt that it was possible. "Maybe it's a strange beast or an auspicious beast. These all have their own treasure light!"

He was getting more and more excited. All kinds of strange and auspicious beasts were generally able to increase one's cultivation level. They had many wondrous uses and were more useful than any tribulation tool.

"We must catch him!"

He continued to fly towards the treasure light, wanting to catch this strange beast.

However, the treasure light was too slippery and fluctuated everywhere, making it impossible to catch it.

However, it was also because of this that he was even more certain that this was a strange beast.

"Hurry up! The treasure light is over there!"

"It's here again!"

Everyone chased after the treasure light, but no matter how they chased, the treasure light always managed to get them away.

"Too cunning!"

After chasing for a long time, they couldn't even see a shadow. They couldn't help but curse angrily.

But at the same time, he was even more excited. The harder it was to catch, the more powerful the exotic beast was, and the higher its value.

Soon, the news spread. After all, everyone could see such a big beam of treasure light.

"That direction is ... The devil Star Mountain?"

"Why is it the demon Star Mountain again?"

In the four corners of the mountain range, many xiuzhe couldn't hold back.

Far away from the demonic Star Mountain, there was a mountain range. The mist in the mountain was dense and illusionary. There was a Valley in the mountain, and in the valley, there was a simple thatched cottage.

At this moment, an old man pushed open the door of the thatched cottage and walked out, looking at the horizon.

"That's ... The demon Star Mountain!"

He mumbled to himself as his malicious eyes flickered.

"Previously, there was the corpse of that old golden centipede, and now there's another strange phenomenon. It seems that this demonic Star Mountain is really a treasure land!"

“I was ruthlessly fooled the last time. This time, I must get the treasure!”

He snorted coldly as he recalled what had happened before, and revealed a disdainful expression.

A dignified 3rd tribulation expert being fooled by a 2nd tribulation expert was really not something to be proud of!

Then, a light flashed on his head as his primordial spirit left his body and wrapped around his body. He turned into a stream of light and headed toward the demon Star Mountain.
