

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1766

The ancient city of the Qin clan was located on a desolate plain.

At first glance, it looked very dilapidated and ancient. It was completely built with a pile of loess. The ancient city walls were stained with blood.

That was the blood of the ancestors. Generations of the Qin clan's ancestors had used their blood to water the city walls, creating this unbreakable wall.

All sorts of ancient formations were hidden in the four corners of the ancient city, displaying all sorts of strange phenomena. At times, a River of Stars would appear, crossing the vast sky, and at other times, the illusionary images of Dragons and phoenixes would flash and circle around the ancient city.

The ancient city of a clan was the base of its Foundation, and its defense was extremely strong.

Even 8th tribulation Almightyies couldn't break through the ancient city of a race.

Inside the ancient city, there was another universe. There was a vast space with countless palaces and pavilions. It was magnificent.

At this moment, there was a commotion in the city.

Just now, a Bell had rung in the ancestral temple, which also meant that some clansmen had fallen, and they were important figures.

"It's elder Qin Yun!"

"No way! Wasn't elder Qin Yun a three tribulation expert? Who can kill him!"

When the news spread, it shocked everyone.

A third tribulation Saint was already considered an expert. If one wanted to kill a third tribulation Saint, it was obviously not enough for the same level. It was likely that a fourth tribulation expert would have to make a move.

"I heard that it's not far from here ... Who would dare to kill someone here? He was too bold! I'm afraid it's some peerless brutal person!"

Their expressions were filled with fear.

To dare to kill someone near an ancient city was an extremely crazy act.

They were all trying to guess who the murderer was! In the spiritual wilderness, there were quite a number of vicious fiends!

When the news reached the sanctum of sages, the sanctum of sages' expression changed drastically. He shot to his feet and his face turned extremely dark.

“Qin Yun ... Is dead?” He muttered in disbelief.

How could Qin Yun die? his opponent was just an ant from the lower realm. How much strength could he have?

“How did this happen?” He was even more vexed. He had thought that killing an ant from the lower realm would be an easy task and no one would find out. But now, such a big matter had happened.

“With that fellow’s strength, there’s no way he could have killed Qin Yun. Could it be a coincidence? Did Qin Yun encounter an accident when he tried to kill him? Is that Tang dead yet?”

He secretly guessed.

“No, this can’t be spread out. We must hide it! The most important thing is that you can’t let her know!”

He immediately stood up and walked towards the main hall.

His primordial spirit flew for a day before he finally stopped and landed on a barren mountain.

His expression was somewhat heavy. Killing an elder of the Qin clan wasn’t a small matter. The Qin clan would definitely hunt him down. The Qin clan was a huge existence with many 3rd and 4th tribulation experts. There were even 5th and 6th tribulation experts.

Among the nine tribulations of the sage realm, one’s strength would increase by leaps and bounds with each tribulation.

The further he advanced, the greater the improvement.

A fourth tribulation expert had a long lifespan. There were many old monsters at this level, and all of them had lived for a long time and accumulated many magical powers.

A fifth tribulation expert could solidify an immortal mansion and turn it into a Natal weapon, which would greatly increase his strength.

Among the nine tribulations, the 4th tribulation and the 5th tribulation were the dividing points. The combat power of the former and the latter was as different as the sky and the abyss.

“It seems like we can not go to the Qin clan anymore! We’ll have to find another way if we want to see Xiangyi.”

Tang Hao pondered for a long time. He decided to stay nearby and look for an opportunity.

He walked around the surroundings and found a city. He rented a cave and stayed there. As he cultivated, he paid attention to the news of the Qin clan.

Back then, he had refined over 400 immortal crystals. Now, he still had quite a few left, enough for cultivation.

At the third tribulation, the nine Lotus pill's effect was much weaker, and the speed of cultivation growth was not as fast as before. However, it was still several times faster than an ordinary third tribulation Saint.

As the days passed, his cultivation also grew steadily.

As for the Qin clan, there was no news. Even news of Qin Yun's murder was not leaked out. The Qin clan remained calm and peaceful.

In the blink of an eye, twenty days had passed.

One day, Tang Hao left the cave abode and went to the city. He heard the people in the city discussing the divine mountain, and the atmosphere was quite lively.

"This sacred mountain is called the Tian Lao sacred mountain. It is a sacred mountain passed down from the ancient times. It is said that it has a great origin and was the place where the Almighty lived in the ancient times. However, no one knows its exact origin. After all, it is too far away and there is no way to investigate it."

"This divine mountain is very strange. It seems to be alive. It travels around the spiritual wilderness and will appear once every hundred years or even a few hundred years."

"The last time it appeared was more than a hundred and twenty years ago. Every time this divine mountain appeared, the sky would be filled with seven-colored rays of light. Just a few days ago, there was also a ray of light in the South. Everyone knows what this means."

"I reckon that in half a month's time, the divine mountain will appear. However, even though that divine mountain has appeared, it has nothing to do with us. That's a divine mountain, and ordinary people can't go up there. Only those geniuses and freaks can go up there."

"Every time a divine mountain appears, it's a grand event for those geniuses. Everyone calls it the divine mountain Dao discussion conference!"

Tang Hao made some inquiries and understood the situation of the divine mountain.

"Tianlao sacred mountain? There are so many divine mountains on Pangu continent!"

Tang Hao mumbled.

He had heard many legends about the sacred mountains, such as the kongsang sacred mountain, the ancient pill sacred mountain, and the undying mountain.

All divine mountains had great origins and were as famous as those immortal tombs and divine tombs.

"I can go and take a look!"

This divine mountain was so famous, and those who went were all young geniuses. Perhaps sis Xiangyi would go as well, so this was the best chance to meet her.

Tang Hao asked around. Every time a divine mountain appeared in the Qin clan, they would send a large number of geniuses there. This time, the Holy Sons and Holy daughters were included in the list.

“This is a good opportunity!”

Tang Hao quickly set off and headed to the southern part of the spiritual wilderness.

In the southern part of the spiritual wilderness, the news of the divine mountain’s appearance had already spread, causing a huge commotion.

Countless people swarmed towards the location where the divine mountain had appeared. They did not want to enter, but they wanted to watch the commotion. Every time the divine mountain appeared, the young geniuses of the spiritual wilderness would gather together and compete to determine who would be the first.

They were all having a heated discussion about who would stand out and shine.

The place where the light had appeared was a mountain range. People swarmed in from all directions and filled the mountain range.

Many pavilions rose from the ground and covered the entire mountain range.

The originally desolate mountain range had become extremely lively overnight.

When Tang Hao arrived, the place was already packed with people.

In the sky from all four directions, countless lights were still surging over. One after another, ferocious giant birds and resplendent treasured boats carried countless figures from all directions and gathered in the mountain range.
