

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1776

“Who is that person? You actually broke the eight trigrams sky concealing formation!”

“I don’t know him! I have seen the people from the hundreds of li clan, the Xu clan and the other clans who are the most powerful in the spiritual wilderness, but I have never seen such a person!”

The outside of the herb garden was in an uproar.

Everyone’s expressions were filled with shock. Each of the remaining seven arrays in the divine herb garden was extremely famous and no one had been able to break them for so many years. Today, this man had actually broken one of them!

What made everyone even more puzzled was that this person was not from the Baili clan or any other clan that specialized in array Dao.

“He’s out!”

When they saw the man walk out of the herb garden, there was a commotion. Everyone looked over and stared at this man, constantly sizing him up.

There was a hint of doubt and jealousy in their eyes.

This trace of jealousy was not only because of the divine medicine, but also because of this person’s array Dao level. To be able to break this array meant that this person’s array Dao level was much higher than theirs.

Tang Hao glanced at them with an indifferent expression.

He turned around and walked towards the next herb garden.

Seeing this, there was another commotion, and many people followed closely.

“He still wants to try? That must be an illusory formation! This illusory formation is much harder to break than a bewildering formation!”

“All of these formations are top-notch. It’s already not easy for him to break one. I don’t believe he can break another one!”

The crowd whispered to each other and discussed.

Tang Hao stopped in front of the herb garden for a moment, then flicked his sleeves and strode in.

To an ordinary person, an illusory formation was more difficult than a bewildering formation. But he was different. To him, an illusory formation was easier to break than a bewildering formation.

As soon as he stepped in, the fog around him suddenly became more dense, and it was faintly discernible, like a dream.

Tang Hao took a few steps forward and suddenly felt his mind go blank. His vision blurred and countless hallucinations appeared. The mist began to change and turned into countless graceful figures.

There was also a low and gentle voice that rang out in his ears.

Tang Hao's expression remained unchanged.

His primordial spirit was powerful and his will was strong. Ordinary illusory formations could not affect him at all. However, this illusory formation almost made him lose himself as soon as he entered. It was enough to show how powerful this illusory formation was.

Tang Hao bit the tip of his tongue and sobered up.

In the next moment, a golden light flashed above his head as his primordial spirit left his body.

He stood in the air with his immortal soul body. Two beams of golden light shot out of his eyes and scanned the surroundings.

"So it's this thing!"

Tang Hao suddenly laughed.

He could clearly see that in the fog around him, there were countless blurry figures hidden like smoke. They were the otherworldly demons.

This creature was from the outer realm and was very strange. It was best at charming people. When Tang Hao tried to break through to Dao seeking, he had encountered this creature. Since then, he had not seen this creature.

He never thought that he would see them again on this divine mountain.

These otherworldly demons must have been captured by the ancient experts of tianlao mountain and imprisoned in this formation, becoming a part of it.

"No wonder he's so powerful!"

"Amazing!" Tang Hao praised.

This sky demon was the best at charming people's hearts. With the power of the illusory formation, it was like adding wings to a Tiger. If his primordial spirit was not extremely strong, he would have fallen for the trick and lost himself in the illusory formation.

"This guy ... Why is he different from the previous ones?"

In the fog around them, the otherworldly demons whispered to each other, their expressions somewhat bewildered.

Those who had entered before would have been easily enticed by them, but this guy was different. He was still fine and not affected by them at all.

Looking at the Golden primordial spirit, they were even more apprehensive. The primordial Spirit's aura was very powerful, and it exuded a shocking pressure that made them breathless.

"Hey! What are you afraid of? We're from the heavenly demon clan. Even the ancient Saints can't resist our temptations. As long as they're human, they have seven emotions and six desires. There's always a gap for them to take advantage of and be tempted by us."

Suddenly, a heaven demon shouted.

"Yeah! We're the great Heavenly Devil clan, and our ancestors have enticed countless Saints. Even those Saint monks who had attained Dao couldn't stop them. Do you think this human kid can stop us?"

The group of otherworldly demons' confidence soared.

If he was a Saint monk, they would not be able to do anything with their strength, but this guy was just a young boy. How strong could his will be?

"Go! We have to take him down. We can't lose face for the celestial demon race!"

A group of otherworldly demons swarmed out. Their figures changed, turning into all kinds of women, enchanting, pure, and everything. There were even some who turned into handsome men, all of them with impressive auras and extraordinary looks.

Tang Hao rolled his eyes when he saw that.

It's this again, it's really too old-fashioned!

"Small tricks!"

He snorted, his face full of disdain.

Then, his primordial spirit suddenly expanded and transformed into a huge sorcerer God. He raised his head and roared, and a ring of sound waves spread out, along with a terrifying Qi of desolation.

"What ... What is this?"

The group of otherworldly demons that were rushing over all stopped. They raised their heads and looked at the huge monster in front of them in a daze.

Their faces were contorted with extreme shock and fear.

"All of you, come over here!"

"Die!" Tang Hao shouted. He reached out with his giant palm and grabbed a group of otherworldly demons. He then opened his mouth and sucked them all in.

“Mom ... Mom!”

The remaining otherworldly demons were scared out of their wits.

This guy was actually going to eat them!

How brutal was this!

They were heavenly demons, and they were the ones who tempted others and devoured their souls. No one was allowed to devour them!

They screamed in fear and fled in all directions.

However, the space was limited. Where could they escape to? Tang Hao caught them and swallowed them all.

“Burp!”

Tang Hao burped after devouring all the otherworldly demons.

These otherworldly demons weren't low-level, and they couldn't be compared to the otherworldly demons from back then. After devouring them all, his primordial spirit actually grew a little.

“This is good stuff!”

Tang Hao mumbled as his primordial spirit returned to his body. He rubbed his mouth.

After the otherworldly demons were devoured, half of the formation was broken. Tang Hao walked forward and successfully passed through the formation. He arrived at the herb garden. A blood-red Spirit herb appeared in front of him. It was full of immortal energy and was blooming with dazzling divine light.

Runes flickered around the spiritual herb, but they were used to imprison the divine herb.

Since it had already become a divine medicine, it could naturally transform.

“It's broken! It's broken again!”

At this moment, the crowd outside the herb garden exclaimed in shock.

Another formation had been broken!

Out of the seven he had left behind, two of them had been broken by this man!

Who was he?

How could he have such shocking array Dao attainments?
