

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1788

“That guy’s surname is Tang?”

“I don’t think there’s such a person in the Tang Clan! It seems he really came from the lower realm.”

The surroundings were in an uproar.

A kid from the lower realm had reached the third tribulation realm and made it all the way here with his own abilities. He also had many treasures and defeated dozens of Saints from the spirit wilderness. This sounded ridiculous.

If these Saint children had not said so, they would not have believed it.

“Hey! It’s not just a few dozen, it’s a hundred!”

“That fellow cultivator Tang is too fierce! He’s so heroic and his spirit is shocking!”

When the disciples of the various sects came down, they began to vividly describe the situation just now to everyone, their expressions extremely excited.

When everyone heard this, they were even more speechless.

A hundred Saint children?

Even the Holy Sons of the Zhong and Yan families were defeated? As for that Saint child of the Qin clan, he was so frightened that he didn’t dare to accept the challenge?

This sounded a little exaggerated!

“Of course it’s true! I’m not lying to you! Also, Holy maiden Qin wasn’t kidnapped, she did it of her own will. I think it must be Daoist Tang’s heroic bearing that moved her.”

“Right, right, the saintess didn’t even resist!”

When they talked about Holy Virgin Qin, their faces were full of envy.

When everyone heard this, their mouths could not help but open even wider.

This sounded even more unbelievable than the previous one.

However, after thinking about it carefully, it seemed to make sense. If it wasn’t voluntary, how could Holy Virgin Qin have been kidnapped with her strength?

“This is going to be interesting!”

Many people revealed strange expressions.

If their Holy maiden was taken away of her own will, how would the Qin clan feel when they learned of this news?

“Go! Let’s go and see!”

They all chased after him.

At this moment, far away from the mountain range, the void suddenly rippled. Two figures shuttled through and landed in a Valley below.

“It should be about time!”

Tang Hao put away the void bone and heaved a sigh of relief.

He had shuttled through the void a few times, so that group of people should not be able to catch up.

When he raised his head, he was stunned. The beautiful woman in front of him was staring at him with her beautiful eyes. One could vaguely see a trace of mist gradually appearing in that pair of eyes.

Her delicate body trembled slightly, and she bit the corner of her lips hard, as if she was holding back her tears.

Tang Hao’s heart skipped a beat when he saw her teary and pitiful look.

He had never seen such an expression on sis Xiangyi before.

“You ... You’ve finally come!”

She sobbed in a low voice.

After he finished speaking, he rushed forward and threw himself into Tang Hao’s arms, hugging him tightly.

She hugged him tightly, as if she was afraid that the person in her arms would disappear in the next moment.

“I’m coming!”

Tang Hao hugged her gently and comforted her. “It’s alright now!”

“En!”

She responded in a low voice.

The two of them hugged each other tightly and did not speak.

She stopped sobbing after a long while. She lifted her head to look at Tang Hao, then burst into laughter. “You, why are you still wearing that face!”

Tang Hao was stunned. He then realized that he was not in his original appearance.

“Oh!”

“Yes,” he replied. He quickly wiped his face and returned to his original appearance.

Qin Xiangyi laughed at his clumsiness. “You! Weren’t you very apathetic just now? You keep calling her a beauty, why are you acting like this now!”

Tang Hao was embarrassed.

“Alright! Let’s sit over here!”

Qin Xiangyi pulled him to the side of the pool and sat down.

“I didn’t expect time to pass so quickly. It’s almost been a year!” “Lil Tang, you don’t know how scared and panicked I was back then. I was afraid that I would never see you again,” she said emotionally.

Tang Hao was silent, but his heart ached.

Sis Xiangyi had never come into contact with the world of cultivators. Although she had a cultivation base, she was still a mortal at heart. It was not easy for her to adapt to being transported to Pangu continent. It was easy to imagine how panicked she must have been.

“However, I got used to it after a while because I knew that you would come to me, Lil Tang.”

“Also, after staying here for a while, I found that I quite like this place.”

“Is that so?” Tang Hao was surprised.

“Of course, it’s so fun here. I asked you to take me out before, but you didn’t. Now I’m out by myself!” Qin Xiangyi raised her pretty face and smiled smugly.

“I’m just worried about you! I’m afraid something will happen to you!”

Tang Hao argued.

The world of cultivation was full of danger. How could he be at ease? that was why he had not asked sis Xiangyi to come over.

“I know!” Qin Xiangyi laughed gently. “But, think about who I am. I’m not afraid of this kind of danger!”

Tang Hao was surprised.

That’s right!

Sis Xiangyi was a strong woman. She had a strong will and a strong heart. She was not a delicate woman.

Qin Xiangyi smiled. "Don't worry. I've been studying hard for the past year. I've mastered everything that you've taught me in the past, including all the knowledge of the Qin clan. I'm not necessarily weaker than you now!"

Tang Hao smiled and did not argue.

Sis Xiangyi had a creation divine body. With the Qin clan's resources, her cultivation level was already at the 3rd tribulation. She was on par with him. Looking at the treasures on her, they were all top tier. The Qin clan did not treat her badly.

"In the future, the two of us will conquer the world together as a couple. Let's form a group and call it the black White twin demons. What do you think?"

Qin Xiangyi teased.

"Black White twin demons?"

Tang Hao was surprised. He could not help but laugh.

"Good! This name is good! Who's Black and who's white?"

"Of course, you're black and I'm white!" Qin Xiangyi's beautiful eyes sparkled with excitement as she spoke.

Tang Hao chuckled.

Then, the two of them talked about their experiences in the past year. Tang Hao also explained to her the relationship between the ancestral star, Qiyuan, the endless starry sky, Pangu continent, and the thirty-three heavens.

"So that's how it is!"

Qin Xiangyi was suddenly enlightened.

She had learned some things about Pangu continent from the Qin clan, but she was not very clear about it.

"By the way, where are my parents?"

Qin Xiangyi said.

"Brother-in-law and your parents are all fine. I've already arranged everything before we came out."
Tang Hao said.

"That's good!"

She heaved a sigh of relief. "I'm not worried about anything else but them."

“Little Tang, can we still go back? Although this place is good, we can’t just stay here forever, right?” She asked again after a while.

“Yes, I can!”

Tang Hao nodded. “Of course I can!”

There was a gap between Pangu continent and the lower realm. If one could come up, one could go down. Back then, The Blood King had come here and returned to the lower realm. In the lower realm, he had also heard that people from the thirty-three heavens had descended.

“If we have time in the future, we’ll go back and take a look!” Tang Hao comforted her.

“En!”

She held his hand tightly and responded in a low voice.
