

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1805

After a few consecutive explosions, the power of the formation weakened a bit.

The crowd burst into enthusiastic cheers.

“As expected of a master from the stone clan!”

The crowd exclaimed in admiration. They looked at the figure in front of them with even more respect.

After a while, there were a few more explosions, and the formation’s power decreased again. After the 12th explosion, the formation completely collapsed and all the sword light dissipated.

The crowd cheered, extremely excited.

“Hahaha! Sect fellow Shi is truly a God!”

Those mighty figures flew back and laughed out loud, their faces red.

After they landed, they all came up to Tang Hao and cupped their hands in greeting. They praised him enthusiastically.

If there were still people who were suspicious of sect fellow Shi’s abilities just now, they no longer had any doubts at this moment.

This person was indeed a true array Dao expert!

With such attainments, he must be an extremely important figure in the stone clan!

At this moment, they had a higher opinion of Shi Hao.

“Al! You’re all too polite. Although I’m skilled in the Dao of arrays, I wouldn’t have been able to break this array easily without your help!” Tang Hao said politely.

“Hahaha! That’s true!”

The group of mighty figures stroked their beards and laughed.

“Al! Everyone, the formation has been broken. Let’s not just stand there, let’s go! Let’s go and explore that immortal tomb!” The old man from the Zhong clan shouted.

“Yes, yes, yes!”

Everyone responded and moved forward.

Once again, they surrounded sect fellow Shi in the middle and looked after him carefully, afraid that he would be in any danger. This man was a treasure. Without his help, it would be difficult for them to break into the immortal graveyard.

There were also some fifth tribulation Almighty in the previous group, but they all died in it, which was enough to prove the danger.

“Then let’s go!”

“Yes,” Tang Hao replied. He looked around and saw the figures with shocking auras. He felt a little emotional. These were all five tribulation Almighty, each of whom was an important figure in a clan.

A few thousand fifth tribulation experts had gathered together to protect him. Such a scene could not be said to be small!

He sighed with emotion in his heart before he moved and flew away.

The group marched towards the immortal tomb in front.

At this time, in the bewilderment array behind the crowd, a black shadow flashed. Seeing the situation in front of him, he couldn’t help but be dumbfounded.

“Where’s the formation? Where’s my formation? Primordial spirit ... Why isn’t there a single primordial spirit?”

“What ... What’s going on?”

His eyes were wide open, and he was completely dumbfounded.

There should have been a peerless ominous formation in front of them, but now, it was bare and there was nothing!

‘How ... How is this possible?’

This was a peerless ominous formation set up by the ancient Changliu sect. Even though tens of thousands of years had passed and the power of the formation had weakened, it was still not that easy to break! Most of the people from before had lost their lives in this formation.

Moreover, he had only left for a short while, and he had already devoured some souls outside. They were just primordial spirits, and when he came back to take a look, the formation was gone?

How could he be so fast?

“I’ve seen a ghost!”

He was stunned for a long time before he couldn’t help but curse.

“Let me see what happened!”

At that time, he would be able to easily take down this kid.

“Hmph Hmph! There’s nothing that I, black sky old ancestor, can’t get! You brat, just you wait! I’m definitely taking you!”

He smiled sinisterly and his figure suddenly flashed, disappearing from where he was.

“So this is the immortal graveyard!”

At this time, the group had already arrived in front of the immortal graveyard.

Looking at the huge tomb in front of them, everyone revealed an expression of surprise.

“This kind of aura, it’s indeed worthy of being an immortal tomb!”

Even a group of 5th tribulation Almighties exclaimed in admiration.

The immortal graveyard only appeared once in a thousand years, and most of them had never encountered one before.

“That’s the main door, and it’s already broken. It must be the work of the group of people in front! One of them has barged in!”

The Zhong clan elder pointed to the front of the tomb and shouted.

“Go! Hurry up and go in!”

Many of the 5th tribulation Almighties couldn’t help but want to rush over.

“Hold on!”

“Don’t panic, everyone,” Tang Hao shouted. “Danger lurks in every corner of this immortal graveyard. It’s filled with restrictive formations, so we have to be careful. Let me take a look first.”

Those few people’s figures paused and suddenly woke up.

“That’s true! This is an immortal graveyard, even us 5th tribulation tribulation experts will fall in there. Don’t lose your life before you can even touch the treasure.”

“Thank you for your reminder, sect fellow Shi. I’ll have to trouble sect fellow Shi then!”

They all expressed their gratitude.

Tang Hao smiled faintly. He stepped forward, narrowed his eyes, and scanned the four corners of the gate.

“There’s no problem here, you can go in!”

After confirming that there was no danger, he led the way.

“Stop! There’s a restriction in front of us. It’s simple, just blow it up. Fellow Daoists, I’ll have to trouble you!”

After entering the main gate, there was a wide tomb passage. After a while, Tang Hao suddenly stopped and called for the powerful beings behind him to charge forward.

“Don’t worry, sect fellow Shi. Leave it to us!”

“Sect fellow Shi, you may leave!”

The group of mighty figures was immediately invigorated when they heard that. They charged forward and began to attack with all their might. In a short while, the restriction was broken, and Tang Hao continued to lead the group forward.
