

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1806

“This restriction is simple. Everyone, follow me closely and we will be able to leave in a moment!”

“This is even simpler, BOOM! Directly blast it!”

Tang Hao led the way through the wide passage of the mausoleum.

The tunnel was long and filled with jinzhi. Many of them had been destroyed by the xiuzhe that had entered before, but most of them were intact.

Along the way, they would occasionally see some skeletons and some broken tribulation weapons.

“These people are really unlucky! I didn’t get the treasure, but I lost my life here!”

Every time they saw a skeleton, everyone would sigh with emotion.

Then, they looked up at the figure in front of them. They couldn’t help but feel lucky and even grateful.

If it wasn’t for this master Shi, they wouldn’t have had such an easy time. Along the way, they encountered many restrictions, and under the guidance of this master Shi, they easily broke them. Until now, no one had died.

Without him, many people would have died.

At the same time, they were even more shocked. This master Shi was truly inconceivable. No matter what kind of restriction it was, be it the five elements restriction or the illusion restriction, he knew it like the back of his hand and accurately said the way to break it.

One had to know that these were all ancient restrictions!

How did this great master Shi master grasp so many ancient restrictions?

“This master Shi is truly an unparalleled expert!”

Everyone secretly praised him from the bottom of their hearts.

The array Masters were the most excited, but they didn’t dare to make a sound. With an expert like master Shi around, they didn’t have a chance.

“Sect fellow Shi, slow down!”

“Sect fellow Shi, be careful!”

The group of mighty figures surrounded Tang Hao, treating him like a precious treasure.

At this moment, ancestor black sky was hiding somewhere in the tomb. When he heard the booming sounds coming from the distance, he looked a little excited.

Since this group of people had come in, they were like turtles in a jar, and none of them could escape.

“Hahaha! This group of idiots! After I devour your souls and occupy that kid’s body, I’ll be able to recover my Supreme powers. At that time, I’ll be the king of the eight desolates and make the 33 heavens tremble under my demonic might. ”

“From now on, the four Seas, eight wastelands, and 33 heavens will all worship me as their master!”

He had already started to look forward to the beautiful days ahead.

“Hmph Hmph! You didn’t expect this, did you? That year, you suppressed me and caused me to suffer for tens of thousands of years. However, you couldn’t kill me in the end. Tens of thousands of years have passed and I’m still alive, but you’ve died completely. ”

After a moment, he snorted and revealed a cold smile.

“Old man Changliu, don’t think that this debt will be settled just because you’re dead. If you have any descendants, I’ll definitely slaughter them and exterminate your entire tribe!”

He gritted his teeth, his face full of hatred.

After cursing a few more times, he revealed an excited expression again and scuttled towards the entrance of the tomb.

That group of people had been in here for two to four hours. Judging from the commotion, they had already reached the depths of the tomb passage. Many people must have died. It was time to go and devour their primordial spirits.

Soon, he appeared at the exit. He looked around and was stunned. The excitement on his face froze.

“Where ... Where’s my primordial spirit?”

He mumbled, his face blank.

He still didn’t seem to believe it. He looked around again, but it was still empty. There was nothing, not even a wisp of soul, let alone an escaped primordial spirit.

At once, his heart sank, and he felt a chill.

“How did this happen?”

The next moment, he roared angrily, and his expression became somewhat ferocious.

How could he not have a primordial spirit?

Those xiuze that had been killed by the jinzhi would definitely have their primordial spirits escape.

“What’s going on?”

His face was ashen and extremely ugly.

A moment later, his figure flickered and disappeared. The next moment, he appeared in the tomb.

He looked into the distance and looked into the depths. When he saw clearly, his body trembled and his eyes widened, revealing an extreme disbelief.

There was a sea of people in the depths of the tomb passage, and they were all in an orderly manner. They formed a long line and advanced into the depths under the lead of the team in front.

Looking at the number of people, it was clear that only a few had died.

“How is that possible?”

He couldn’t believe his eyes at all. This tomb was heavily guarded, and they had broken through at least a dozen of them. How could there not be any deaths?

“Could it be that kid?”

Suddenly, his mind trembled as he thought of that perverted kid.

That kid was able to break the fiendish array outside, so his array Dao skills were unfathomable.

However, on second thought, he felt that it was impossible. That was only a 50 – 60 year old kid. No matter how powerful he was, he couldn’t be that powerful!

His gaze swept past the crowd and went to the front.

When he saw the figure surrounded by many fifth tribulation Almightyies and pointing forward, his whole body trembled again, revealing a look of horror.

“Motherf * cker! It’s really this kid!”

After being stunned for a moment, he couldn’t help but curse.

He was both shocked and angry. He was shocked that this kid’s array skills had once again exceeded his imagination. He was angry that this kid was to blame for letting this group of people pass easily, causing him to be unable to devour the primordial spirit.

If he could not devour the primordial spirit, he would not be able to recover his strength.

“Hmph! Stinky brat, I don’t believe that you can’t know anything. These are only the outermost and simplest jinzhi. There are many more powerful jinzhi inside. The great array is waiting for you!”

He snorted angrily and followed the crowd from a distance, watching.

“This hexing is simple!”

“This! It’s a little troublesome, so I’ll have to trouble you to help!”

Under the protection of many powerful beings, Tang Hao led the way and gave them some pointers.

All the restrictions could not stop him. As long as he examined them carefully, he could easily point out the way to break them.

“These restrictive spells are quite simple!”

Tang Hao said casually, his expression relaxed.

“Waa!”

Everyone gasped in surprise, and the array Masters all revealed expressions of extreme worship.

“As expected of master Shi!”

They were full of praise.

Tang Hao only smiled. In his eyes, these restrictions were indeed very simple. In the “soul burial Scripture,” there were countless ancient restrictions and formations, and these were the lowest level.

Of course, even if it was the simplest one, it would be very difficult for him to break it with his strength. He still needed to rely on the power of these 5th tribulation Almightyies. Therefore, he decided to continue the act and cooperate with these people.

It wouldn’t be too late to turn hostile after entering the immortal graveyard and seeing the true treasures.

Under his lead, the group moved forward and soon arrived at the end of the passageway. In front of them were many halls, each one of which had a Hall. Under the joint efforts of the group, after spending some effort, they were able to break through easily and advanced towards the deepest part of the immortal graveyard.
