

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1808

The situation in the cave was chaotic.

A fierce battle broke out among thousands of fifth tribulation Almighties for the nine Dragon coffin. The aftershock alone was extremely terrifying. It shook everyone and made them step back, not daring to get close.

There was a huge gap between each of the nine tribulations of the Saint realm. The gap between the fourth and fifth tribulations was the biggest.

All of the higher-beings rushed toward the coffin in the middle, trying to get it. However, there were simply too many people, and it became a chaotic battle. Very few people were able to reach the side of the coffin.

Occasionally, someone would rush up and hear a few Dragon roars. The Golden giant Dragons would pounce over and blast them away.

“This coffin is truly a divine object!”

Seeing this, everyone was shocked.

These giant golden dragons were not conjured by a spell technique. They were real Dragon Souls, and there were nine of them.

True dragons were rare, and Dragon Souls were even rarer. An ordinary Emperor weapon would have one dragon Soul at most, but there were nine of them. It was as difficult as ascending to the heavens to gather all of them.

“I must get it!”

Their expressions became more and more fanatical, and they used all their strength to rush toward the nine-Dragon coffin.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

Countless rays of light rose from all directions and bombarded the coffin, wearing down the power on it.

If it had been 10000 years ago, the coffin’s defense would have been unbreakable. But now, so many years had passed, and most of the power on the coffin had been worn away by time. Even a fifth tribulation Saint could shake it.

The power of the nine Dragon Souls gradually weakened, and the coffin began to tremble.

“Soon!”

At the entrance of the passage, the crowd was in an uproar.

Everyone was a little nervous. Their eyes were wide open as they stared at the coffin.

The power on the coffin was getting weaker and weaker. It was estimated that it would not take long for a fifth tribulation to collect it. There were so many Almighties here, who knew who would get the nine Dragon coffin in the end?

In the crowd, many people's eyes flickered as they secretly prepared to attack.

This time, not only the Masters of the major clans came, but there were also many people from the sects. Among them, there were crouching tigers and hidden dragons, and there was no lack of 5th tribulation experts hidden among them.

They were all waiting, waiting for the best opportunity!

Tang Hao was also waiting.

As time passed, the crowd gradually held their breath. The air was filled with apprehension and tension.

Finally, a mighty figure made his move. He stretched out his hand and made a hand seal. He grabbed the coffin, wanting to put it into his bag.

The powerful people's expressions changed slightly, but they didn't attack. They just watched. They weren't sure if the coffin could be taken, so they might as well let this person try for them.

Under everyone's gaze, the handprint grabbed the coffin without any hindrance. The powerful person who made the move was stunned at first, as if he didn't expect it to be so smooth. Then, he revealed a look of ecstasy.

He retracted his hand seal and was about to put the coffin into his bag.

However, how could the other mighty figures just sit by and watch him take away the treasures? they immediately made their moves. Some of them used the art of snatching to fight for the coffin, while others directly shot out rays of light, bombarding the coffin.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

It was another fierce battle.

This time, all of the mighty figures had bloodshot eyes and were using all of their techniques. They were all fighting with their lives on the line.

The coffin kept changing hands, and it circulated in the hands of many powerful beings, but no one was able to take it away successfully.

Clang clang clang!

The coffin continued to receive heavy blows and trembled violently. Suddenly, another blow landed on the coffin. The coffin trembled violently, and with a "Chi" sound, the lid of the coffin actually opened.

At that moment, endless green light burst out from the coffin and filled the entire cave. It was so bright that no one could see it.

At the same time, an extremely terrifying pressure suddenly spread out.

Everyone's hearts trembled and their expressions changed.

This aura was like the might of the heavens, making it hard for them to breathe. Many of the lower-levelled Saints, who were only at the first or second tribulation, immediately knelt down and trembled under this aura.

"Is ... Is this the aura of a Paragon?"

In the air, the fifth tribulation Almightyies exclaimed in horror.

They were all frozen there, not daring to move at all under this terrifying pressure.

Even if they were fifth tribulation Almightyies, they were still so small in front of the aura of a nine tribulation Supreme.

A moment later, the aura dissipated, and everyone heaved a sigh of relief.

"What's that?"

They looked into the coffin and saw a dazzling green light. Upon a closer look, they realized that it was a suit of armor. It was green all over and had a simple style. It was ancient and simple, and it emitted a shocking aura.

"Heavens! It's a God's armor!"

"That's a Supreme artifact! And it's a set of armor!"

Everyone sucked in a breath of cold air, their faces full of shock.

On Pangu continent, advanced armors were rare, and Emperor weapons were few and far between, let alone a supreme weapon. It was definitely a rare treasure, even more precious than ordinary Supreme weapons.

Everyone's eyes instantly turned red as they rushed madly toward the coffin. A fierce battle broke out again.

In the crowd at the entrance of the passage, there were also figures rushing out and joining the battle.

The battle became extremely brutal. From time to time, there were people whose physical bodies were blown up, and only their primordial spirits could escape.

"Where are you running to?"

Forefather black sky blocked one of the primordial spirits and opened his mouth to suck.

“You ... Who are you?”

The mighty figure let out a cry of shock, but before he could react, he was sucked over and swallowed by patriarch black sky. His aura instantly rose by a few notches.

“Another one!”

Before he could digest it, another primordial spirit rushed out of the cave. He rushed up and swallowed. Soon, he had swallowed five or six primordial spirits, all of which were fifth tribulation Almightyies, which made his aura soar.

“Hahaha! Continue fighting! The more brutal the fight, the better!”

As he watched the fierce battle in the cave, he intercepted the escaping primordial spirits and devoured them one by one. Ancestor black sky was overjoyed. As long as a few more primordial spirits came, his strength would be restored to the 6th tribulation and he would no longer be afraid of these 5th tribulation.

He didn't need to hide, he could just kill them and devour their bodies and primordial spirits.

The fierce battle in the cave was still going on. From time to time, primordial spirits would escape. He intercepted them one by one and his cultivation level quickly recovered to the 6th tribulation.

“Hahaha! I, black sky patriarch, have returned! My name will once again resound across Pangu continent and shake the thirty-three heavens!”

He couldn't help but laugh out loud, full of pride.

After being excited for a while, he once again went into the cave.

“Hmph! You ants want to snatch the nine-Dragon coffin and the Taiyi green God streamer? That's all mine, even your lives are mine!” The corners of his mouth curled up, revealing a sinister smile.

“And you, kid, you're mine too!”

Then, he turned to look at Tang Hao, who was stuck in the crowd.

“Great black Heaven hand!”

He waited for a moment, and Yi found an opportunity. He suddenly flashed into the cave and descended from the sky. He reached out and a huge black handprint blasted out.

Then, with an “ah” sound, the fifth tribulation eminence who had been hit let out a blood-curdling scream and was sent flying backward while spitting out blood.

After dozens of palm strikes, there was a series of banging sounds and the surrounding five tribulations Almightyies were all blown away.

In an instant, everyone in the cave was stunned, looking at the figure that descended from the sky in shock.
