

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1829

"I ... F * ck!"

A shrill scream suddenly rang out in the barren Valley.

His name was Tang Hao, and he was from the lower realm. He even had a divine bow with him. Who else could it be other than that bastard surnamed Tang?

"Wretched heavens, do I have any enmity with you?"

Liu heihu looked up at the sky and almost burst into tears.

Ever since he came to Pangu continent, he had been so happy and free. Without that bastard surnamed Tang, this place was simply heaven, a Pure Land of bliss!

He originally thought that such Happy Days could continue forever ...

But now, such grievous news had arrived.

In an instant, he felt as if the sky had collapsed.

"Wuwuwu! It's really too tragic!"

His eyes turned red as he recalled the unbearable past.

He had been beaten up time and time again, stripped again and again, and robbed again and again ... What a humiliating and tragic life this was!

He thought that he had bid farewell to this life, but he did not expect that Tang fellow to still come!

For a moment, he really wanted to run away, as far as possible. It would be best if he could reach the border of the eight desolates and never run into that Tang bastard.

That guy was the nemesis of his life, the nightmare of his life!

But then, he puffed out his chest and mumbled, "F * ck! What's there to be afraid of! I'm no longer the old me. I'm now the No. 1 genius of the Liu family. I'm very powerful. That Tang guy is nothing to me. I can crush him to death with one finger!"

"Besides, I have a big family behind me. What right does that Tang guy have to fight with me?"

Liu heihu's nostrils rose, and he was very proud.

He was no longer the Liu heihu he used to be. Their strengths and backgrounds had long been swapped. With his current strength, killing that Tang guy was as easy as blowing off dust.

"Hahaha! Just you wait, Tang kid, I'll teach you a lesson!"

He laughed out loud and suddenly soared into the sky, quickly leaving.

“Another group of people has arrived!”

“Look! That must be the battle Ark of the night race! Aren’t the night race from the desolate north? they’re here too!”

The spiritual wilderness continued to boil.

In the past few days, light had continuously poured in from all directions. Battleships and giant birds had brought countless cultivators over to join the pursuing Army.

Most of these people came from various clans, some came from some sects, and some were simply rogue cultivators. However, without exception, they were all sage realm experts. The lowest was at the 2nd or 3rd tribulation. Those who were led by the clans were all 6th tribulation old monsters.

There were even rumors that a seven tribulation magnate had appeared and was hiding among these people.

This piece of news caused a sensation for a while.

On Pangu continent, every seventh tribulation expert was a magnate with incredible means, and most of the clan leaders were at this level.

It was not easy for people of this realm to be mobilized, and now, for the sake of two Supreme artifacts, even such a giant could not hold back.

As more and more people gathered, the spiritual wilderness became more and more lively. People from the outer wilderness were everywhere.

The sky was filled with flying immortal radiance, and countless divine senses interweaved into a net that swept over the spirit wilderness again and again. They seemed to have searched every corner of the spirit wilderness.

Every city in the spiritual wilderness was filled with people.

In the restaurant, everyone’s focus was on the man surnamed Tang.

“Not only does this Tang guy have amazing combat strength, but he also has amazing talent in array Dao. It was him who led the people of various clans into the immortal graveyard. It’s said that no one died. His array Dao attainments are simply terrifying!”

“It’s said that the kid is very famous in the lower realm. He’s the number one person in the starry sky and has done many sensational things!”

Everyone was enthusiastically discussing the various deeds of that surnamed Tang. Even some of his deeds in the lower realm were dug up.

After all, many geniuses from the lower realm had heard of the Tang family during the ceremony of blood source.

His various achievements in the lower realm also gradually spread.

If this news had spread in the past, most people would have scoffed at it. But now, this surnamed Tang had done so many sensational things and had the potential to compete for the top position among the young sovereigns. They couldn't help but be amazed.

Compared to that kid's shocking talent, everyone was more interested in his talent in the three Dao of pills, arrays, and weapons.

It was said that the kid's talent in alchemy surpassed even that of array Dao. If he was already so powerful in array Dao, it was hard to imagine how amazing his attainments in alchemy were!

"Hey! That Tang guy must've run away and left the spiritual wilderness!"

"That's not necessarily true. That kid is rather cunning. Previously, everyone thought that he had already escaped the spiritual wilderness. Who knew that he had been hiding here all this time? who knows, he might be hiding somewhere in the spiritual wilderness right now!"

As for the boy's whereabouts, they were in an endless debate.

Most people believed that the kid was still in the spiritual wilderness and had used his high array skills to hide his tracks.

However, as the days went by, so many people had searched countless times, and those 6th tribulation Almightyies had used all means but still couldn't find any trace of it. They had to give up.

They scattered in all directions, heading to the desolate lands to continue their search.

The entire earth was in an uproar.
