

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1830

In the blink of an eye, half a month had passed.

The great waves swept across the entire Pangu continent.

In the vast land, there were search teams everywhere, searching for the whereabouts of their target.

However, after such a long time, they had not even found a trace of him.

That boy from the lower realm named Tang Hao had completely disappeared!

“He must be hiding!”

“The eight desolates are so vast and boundless. There are also countless dangerous places. It’s too difficult to find a person!”

Everyone was a little helpless.

Trying to find a person in the vast land was like looking for a needle in a haystack. Not to mention, many people didn’t even know what the kid looked like. There was no way to find him at all, so they could only follow the team and run around.

However, even so, no one gave up.

The temptation of two Supreme weapons was too great. It was enough to make any xiuzhe go crazy.

There were also many young geniuses from all over the world in these search and capture teams.

“What lower realm madman? he’s so powerful. It’s just that the people from the spiritual wilderness are too weak. If he were to Meet the Elites of the desolate north, he would be crushed easily!”

“So what if he has broken the iron rule of the sage state? it’s just a coincidence. He was able to scare off thousands of Almighties with one arrow only because of the power of two Supreme weapons. What’s so great about it?”

These geniuses were all Holy Sons of their respective wilderness.

They had always been proud and arrogant, looking down on those geniuses from the lower realm. Now that a wild brat from the lower realm had climbed over their heads and surpassed them to compete for the position of the Supreme youth, they were naturally not convinced.

In their eyes, this was a disgrace to Pangu continent.

They were going to find this guy and defeat him so that they could redeem themselves as the heroes of Pangu continent.

At the same time, they couldn’t help but be a little selfish.

During this period of time, that surnamed Tang had become particularly famous and had become the focus of the entire continent. As long as they could defeat him, they would be able to step on him and become famous, becoming heroic figures.

“Tang kid, come out and face your death if you have the guts!”

“Tang kid, you’re a coward!”

All kinds of geniuses appeared one after another and shouted in various wilderness, causing a commotion from time to time.

However, it was to no avail. There was still no trace of that Tang guy.

Soon, another seven or eight days passed, and there was still no sign of them. Gradually, some people gave up, and the atmosphere gradually calmed down.

“I’m afraid that this kid ... Is really hiding!”

“This kid’s array Dao is very powerful. It’ll be difficult to find him in the eight desolates!”

Those clansmen were also a little vexed. They would meet up from time to time to exchange information and discuss countermeasures.

“Actually, I have a plan that might help us find him. Everyone knows that the boy’s surname is Tang and he must be of the Tang family’s bloodline. All the Tang families in the world come from the same bloodline, which is the Tang of the eastern barren territory. ”

“That’s the ancestral land of the Tang Clan. As long as we use the ancestral altar of the Tang Clan and trace back the bloodline, we can find all the places where the bloodline of the Tang Clan is located on this continent. That kid must be among them.”

A powerful being suggested.

“This ...”

When the rest of the clan members heard this, they all revealed hesitant expressions.

After thinking for a moment, many people shook their heads and said, “If we really want to trace the bloodline, all the people of the Tang Clan will be included. The number is too large. The Tang Clan has branches in every wilderness. It won’t be easy to find that kid among these people.”

“That’s right! More importantly, the Tang Clan has to handle this matter, but their attitude is ambiguous now. They still want to recruit that kid, so they will definitely not agree. ”

Someone echoed.

“That’s a problem! But what else could he do? That brat is from the lower realm. We don’t have anything that belongs to him, so we can’t track him at all.”

“Yeah! This brat has no family or friends here. He’s single, so there’s no way to threaten him!”

The mighty figures were all gathered together, scratching their heads in frustration.

They had never encountered such a situation before.

In the past, when tracking a person, one only needed to find something that the person had used before and find the aura that he had left behind to successfully track him down. Or, one could directly find the person’s family, friends, Masters, and companions. There was no need to worry that the person would not appear on his own initiative.

But now, that kid had appeared out of nowhere and left nothing behind. How could they track him?

They couldn’t possibly track a person out of thin air! They weren’t that powerful!

“Speaking of tracking, it would be great if we had the ruler of Emperor Xi!” Suddenly, a mighty figure exclaimed.

Everyone was stunned, and then their expressions changed.

Emperor Xi’s ruler!

This was an item from the 33 heavens, a peerless treasure. It was said that it was left behind by the ancient Fuxi God. It could divine the secrets of heaven, so it was naturally easy to find a person.

However, the thirty-three heavens had always been aloof from the affairs of Pangu continent, and they would never interfere in the affairs of Pangu continent. Once they did, they might not have a chance to get the two Supreme weapons.

“Forget it! When they come, we won’t even have any soup to drink!”

A powerful being laughed.

Then, they fell into deep thought again.

“Oh right! Have you all forgotten that there is a race in this world that can divine the secrets of heaven?”

Suddenly, a mighty figure seemed to have thought of something and shouted in surprise.

“Calculating the heavenly secrets? You mean ...”

The group of mighty figures thought for a moment, and someone suddenly remembered, revealing a look of realization.

“That’s right! It was that clan! The Cangjie clan!”

The powerful being said in a serious tone, but there was a hint of respect in his voice.

Cangjie!

This family name was extremely ancient. It was said that it was from the same era as the Yao, Xuanyuan, and Zhurong family names. It had a glorious past and was now a big family with an unfathomable Foundation.

This clan also had abilities that ordinary clans didn't have, and that was to be proficient in the nine palaces and Eight Trigrams, and to be good at calculating the secrets of heaven.

Apart from the 33 heavens 'Huangxi heaven, only this race had the ability to do so.

"That's right, with the ability of their clan, they can definitely deduce that brat's whereabouts!"

"Hurry up! Let's go to Cangjie ancient city and invite their clan to come out!"

The group of mighty figures was excited. They had finally found a way to track down that kid.

As long as the Cangjie clan made a move, that kid's traces would be exposed. Even if he fled to the ends of the earth, he would not be able to escape from their palms.

They immediately set off for the ancient city of the Cangjie clan.

Very quickly, this news spread like wildfire among many clans. More clansmen rushed towards the Cangjie clan.

In the beginning, this was only limited to the clans. However, it spread out completely not long after. Everyone heard that those clans had joined forces to go to Cangjie ancient city and asked the Cangjie clan to help them deduce the boy's whereabouts.

This news immediately caused a sensation. The atmosphere that had calmed down a little rose again.

"Hahaha! He didn't expect this! Even an ancient clan like Cangjie will be involved!"

"Once the Cangjie ancient race makes their move, that brat will be in trouble!"

Everyone was extremely excited.
