

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1836

“Tsk!”

“Tang Hao!” Qin hai stopped and looked at Tang Hao, who was not far away. His face was filled with unwillingness.

He had almost succeeded, but he had failed at the last moment.

How did this group of old men know and come here in time?

He was even more puzzled.

Logically speaking, even if someone had discovered it by chance, there should have been only one person. How could there be so many at once? when he sensed again, there were more cultivators coming from the ground. There were thousands of them.

Furthermore, they had come so quickly. It was truly strange!

Could it be ... This kid?

Suddenly, he seemed to have thought of something. His eyes widened as he stared at the boy in front of him.

In an instant, his heart was in turmoil.

If it was really this brat who did it, then his courage and insight were truly astonishing.

Break the cauldrons and sink the boats, and seek survival in a desperate situation!

Such courage, such decisiveness ...

This kid was really not an ordinary person!

In his heart, he began to admire this kid.

“No! We can’t just let it go like this, we must catch this kid!” Qin hai gritted his teeth, and a hint of determination flashed through his eyes.

In order to track down this brat, the Qin clan had paid an extremely heavy price. If they couldn’t capture him, if they couldn’t get their hands on the Supreme weapon, then all the efforts the Qin clan had made would be for naught.

He wasn’t willing to let the treasure that he was about to obtain fly away just like that.

“You want to stop me? It won’t be that easy!”

He let out a shrill cry and his hair and beard all stood up. Two rays of light suddenly shot out from his body. They were his two clones, one of them was at the 5th tribulation and the other was at the 6th tribulation. They rushed towards the group of 6th tribulation Almightyies from the West barren.

“6th tribulation clone!”

“What a good fellow!”

The group of West barren cultivators exclaimed in shock.

At their level, it was very difficult to cultivate an avatar. It was not easy to cultivate it to the 5th tribulation, let alone the 6th tribulation.

“Old man Qin hai, you do have some ability. Unfortunately, you can forget about snatching that brat away by yourself!”

“Go!”

They shouted a few times and attacked together.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

The power of a six tribulation Saint exploded in the underground space. Then, several bright lights flashed. Some of the Almightyies used sorcery. The simple five elements sorcery exploded with unusually powerful power in their hands.

The light of fire and lightning dazzled everyone’s eyes.

There were also some who blasted out tribulation weapons. Flying swords streaked across the sky, and precious mirrors shone brightly, shining with resplendent divine light.

A huge battle instantly broke out.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

The explosion was like thunder, deafening.

A terrifying energy spread out, tearing the ground apart.

Tang Hao couldn’t take it either. He was forced back by the force from time to time, and his face was pale.

The power of a six tribulation Saint was too strong. If they attacked with all their might, he wouldn’t be able to withstand the aura even if it was overflowing.

“Now is not the time to escape!”

Tang Hao did not take the opportunity to escape. This was not the best time for him to do so. There was a huge disparity in strength between the two sides. Under the combined attacks of the Western Desert old monsters, Qin hai would be defeated very soon. Even if he managed to escape, he would be caught by these old monsters. It would be a futile attempt.

He had to continue waiting. He had to wait for the news to spread and attract more people.

The more people there were, the more chaotic the situation would be, and the more opportunities he would have.

At this time, all the avatars and souls in the West barren were spreading the news. At the same time, the news that was sent out in the city also spread.

The cities were in an uproar.

All the clans were shocked.

Then, everyone went crazy.

The Dao Bell rang and the horn whimpered, echoing throughout the West barren.

On this vast land, in the ancient city that was scattered all over the place, battleships rose into the sky one after another. Birds soared into the sky, carrying countless cultivators and heading west.

In various mountain ranges, countless powerful beings were born. They transformed into spiritual light and soared into the sky.

Because of that piece of news, the entire West barren went crazy.
