

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1844

“Stop, Tang kid!”

Yuchi Xuan screamed in anger, and burst out with all her strength, frantically chasing after him.

“Get lost! You crazy woman, it’s not your turn to settle accounts with this guy! Let me go first!”

With a loud shout, Liu heihu descended from the sky, holding a big stick in his hand, and smashed it toward Yuchi Xuan.

Bang!

The two of them exchanged a blow and both retreated.

“Move! His life is mine!” Yuchi Xuan shrieked, as if she had gone mad.

“F * ck! You B * tch, what kind of enmity do you have with this guy? what kind of hatred do you have?” Liu heihu was startled.

“Liu heihu?” he asked.

Tang Hao was stunned when he saw the person who had appeared out of nowhere. His expression turned odd.

Why did all his acquaintances pop out one by one?

Yuchi Xuan and Liu heihu were his enemies!

“What did you do to her, Tang kid? tell me, did you hurt her by abandoning her?” Liu heihu pointed at Tang Hao and demanded loudly.

Tang Hao rolled his eyes. He turned around and ran away without saying a word.

After not seeing him for so long, the black Tiger Bandit’s strength had also increased greatly. Even if he was at his peak, he might not be a match for him.

“Hahaha! Tang kid, why did you run away? if you have the guts, stop right there!”

“Aren’t you very powerful? Come on!”

Liu heihu was chasing after him, laughing out loud.

At this moment, he was chasing his nemesis everywhere. Seeing that his revenge was about to be taken, he felt like he was floating.

This kind of feeling was too F * cking satisfying!

“Hmph! Fellow of the Liu Clan, don’t be happy too early.”

“Hmph!” Another person snorted. He overtook Liu heihu and chased after Tang Hao.

This person wore a golden helmet and golden armor. His entire body was golden and dazzling, and he was especially eye-catching.

“The one with the surname Yao, it’s you!”

Liu heihu’s face darkened.

This flashy golden man was the strongest genius of the Yao clan and a top genius who could compete for the title of supreme young master.

Following that, along with a few whooshes, more figures flew over and surpassed him. All of them had shocking auras and were all extraordinary people.

“Jiang clan, Yao clan ...”

“They’re all top-notch geniuses. None of them are inferior to that Tang guy.”

Everyone exclaimed in shock.

The crowd looked at this group of people, revealing shocked expressions.

All of these people were famous and had the strength to reach the top of the young sovereigns. They had also done great things that shook the eight desolates, so no matter which one of them came out, they would cause a stir.

Now, all of these geniuses were gathered here.

“Motherf * cker! So many!”

“F * ck!” Tang Hao cursed when he turned around.

He threw out a batch of tribulation weapons and turned around. His primordial spirit left his body, rolled up his physical body, and burst out with the last bit of power, rushing toward chaotic World Mountain.

“Another tribulation tool!”

“Dammit! Stop him!”

None of the geniuses expected that Tang Hao would have a tribulation weapon to self-destruct, so they were caught off guard and blocked for a few breaths. In that time, Tang Hao had already escaped far away and entered chaotic World Mountain.

“He ran away!”

Upon seeing this, everyone exclaimed.

Then, there was a wave of boos.

So many people had worked together to hunt down an exhausted brat, but they had failed!

“Chase! Chase!”

“Surround this place and seal off the entire world. I don’t want even a fly to be able to fly out!”

The seven tribulations magnate’s angry roar came from the sky.

Then, with a rumble, the wind and clouds suddenly changed. One terrifying divine sense after another descended from the sky and burrowed into the ground, sealing off the area.

Beams of light shone down from the clouds and entered chaotic World Mountain.

It was the divine light that was shot out by the seven tribulations magnate when he used the Supreme dharma Eye.

“No, I didn ‘t!”

“There’s nothing here! Where did that kid go?”

Furious roars shook the heavens and earth.

At that moment, Tang Hao was advancing rapidly in chaotic World Mountain. The ancestor of technique’s divine eye was wide open at his glabella, and no turbulence in the void or spatial cracks could escape his eyes.

He used Yu steps and dodged with great familiarity.

It was as if he had been here before.

However, in reality, he had never been here before. The one who had been here was old man black sky.

“In ancient times, there were gods who fought with each other and destroyed the heavens and earth. That was how this chaotic World Mountain was formed!”

“After that, the divine Phoenix fought with the archaic vicious bird and fell here. The heavenly Fire burned for three days and three nights, annihilating everything.”

“The divine Phoenix is a divine beast that is as famous as the true dragon. This beast will not die. Every time it dies, it will be reborn. If it dies here, it will be reborn here. Back then, black sky old monster saw the divine Phoenix’s death and rushed here.”

“However, it’s a pity that the divine Phoenix’s Nirvana takes a very long time. It can be as short as a thousand years and as long as ten thousand years. Even if old monster black sky had discovered the place where the divine Phoenix’s Nirvana was, he could not wait.”

“After the divine Phoenix reincarnates, it will leave behind its remains in the place of Nirvana. It is called the essence of Nirvana and is formed by the blood essence of the divine Phoenix. It is a Supreme divine item. As long as you can find this item, you can complete the 4th tribulation and attack the 5th tribulation.”

“This is my greatest hope of escaping this time!”

Tang Hao sprinted madly, following old man black sky’s memories as he headed toward the Nirvana land.

As he went deeper, the air became hotter.

“We’re almost there!”

“This temperature ... The Nirvana essence must still be here, or the divine Phoenix left something behind!”

Tang Hao was getting more and more excited.

After walking for a while, a mountain appeared in front of them. The mountain rocks were charred black and bare, without a single trace of life. It was obvious that it had been burned.

In the middle of the valley, there was a raging fire.

“This is ... The godly Phoenix Fire!”

Tang Hao focused his gaze and said in a low voice, “this is it!”

“That’s the shed skin of the divine Phoenix!”

When his gaze pierced through the flames and saw the situation in the valley, he immediately revealed a look of ecstasy.

He had made the right bet, the treasure was still there!

“The space here is chaotic, and there are all kinds of void turbulence. Ordinary people can’t enter at all, so this treasure land can be perfectly preserved!”

Tang Hao mumbled excitedly.

“I really have to thank that old man black sky!”

He grinned and immediately lowered his body, diving into the sea of fire.

“Swish!”

The fire burned his flesh and blood, making a sizzling sound.

It was no ordinary fire. It was the divine Phoenix Fire. It was said to be comparable to true fire. Even though Tang Hao’s body was extremely strong, he could not withstand the fire and was constantly being burned.

But very quickly, the burnt flesh began to grow again. It was the effect of the Nirvana Sutra.

He strode forward, passed through the sea of fire, and came to the middle of the valley.

In front of him, a huge blood-colored eggshell appeared. The shell was already half-broken, and the fragments fell to the ground. The flames in the four directions were coming from this shell.

“This ... Is this the Nirvana essence!”

Tang Hao murmured. His eyes were filled with shock and excitement.

“This thing can’t be directly devoured. I still have to refine it first!”

Tang Hao pondered for a moment and came up with a way to devour it. He waved his hand and the Golden cauldron flew out. It expanded instantly and absorbed all the Nirvana essence. He then sat down cross-legged and began to refine it.

After refining it, he obtained a blood-colored crystal the size of a goose egg.

“Gulp!”

He opened his mouth, threw it out, and swallowed it.
