

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1847

“They’re here!”

At this moment, everyone raised their heads and looked at the huge Lightning Vortex in the sky.

After a moment of preparation, a golden lightning bolt tore through the sky and struck down.

In the sky above chaotic World Mountain, the void was torn open by the lightning, revealing a figure standing in the air.

“It’s that kid!”

Everyone looked over and exclaimed in shock.

“Hmph! This kid was really looking for death! He’s only just reached the peak stage and he’s already going through the Tribulation. I’m afraid he won’t even be able to withstand the first bolt of lightning!”

“The lightning of this immortal abode is used to attack immortal abodes, and this immortal abode is even more delicate than the soul. How can it survive this tribulation without spending decades to temper it?”

Then, the crowd sneered.

Especially those 5th tribulation and 6th tribulation Almighties, their faces were full of ridicule.

In order to pass this tribulation, one must first temper the immortal mansion a thousand times before having a chance to pass it.

Which one of them didn’t spend decades, even centuries, refining the immortal mansion over and over again, spending countless efforts, only then did they survive the danger.

This brat charging into this tribulation so rashly was bound to lose.

“I’m a little curious, what immortal mansion did this kid condense?”

A higher-being asked with interest.

There were many types of immortal abodes in this world, such as palaces, pavilions, divine mountains, lakes, and swamps. There were also all sorts of strange ones.

This kid was a monster of his generation, so the immortal mansion he condensed must be different from the rest, which made the Almighty experts a little curious.

The next moment, they saw the immortal mansion as they had wished.

As the lightning fell, a light flashed above the figure’s head and he shot into the sky.

The light suddenly expanded and turned into a Palace that hung in the air.

“It’s a Palace!”

Everyone looked at it and exclaimed in low voices.

Of the many immortal estates in the world, the most commonly seen were most likely the palace type.

However, they soon realized that something was wrong.

“Eh? The aura of this Palace ... Why did it feel a little off? What is this aura?”

“This aura ... Why is it so familiar? I feel like I’ve seen it somewhere before!”

They stared at the palace and exclaimed.

They were shocked to find that the palace was emitting an unusual aura.

Moreover, the palace looked a little strange and ancient.

While they were still in shock, the Golden lightning had already struck the hall.

BOOM!

There was a loud bang.

The next scene shocked everyone.

Under the bombardment of the Golden lightning, the immortal mansion did not break as they had expected, but it was still safe and sound. It did not even shake a little, and it was as firm as a rock.

“This ... How is this possible?”

Everyone was dumbfounded, unable to believe their eyes.

That was the lightning tribulation that was specially used to strike immortal mansions!

Even if this was only the first tribulation lightning bolt, its power would not be weak. Even an immortal mansion that had been tempered thousands of times would tremble under this tribulation lightning bolt. However, this kid’s immortal mansion remained unmoved.

This was truly unbelievable!

“Could it be that ... This kid has already refined the immortal mansion?” A powerful being asked in bewilderment.

“Impossible! Moreover, think about it, it’s only been a few months since he went from the early stage of the 4th tribulation to the peak stage. How could he spare any energy to refine the immortal mansion in such a short time?”

A powerful being immediately said.

This kid was only 50 – 60 years old, so he definitely didn’t have the time and energy to refine an immortal estate.

This was because refining an immortal mansion was an extremely time-consuming task in itself. Even if this kid’s talent was outstanding, it would still take more than ten years, or even decades.

“Since it’s impossible to refine it, then how did the lightning bolt get blocked?”

Everyone was even more confused.

Even the seven tribulations magnates were shocked.

They couldn’t find a reasonable explanation for what was happening.

“This kid ... First, he broke the primordial spirit iron rule, and now he has such a powerful immortal abode. It’s really strange!”

“This kid ... Can’t be judged with common sense!”

They all sighed with emotion.

Then, they focused their attention on the immortal mansion. Their eyes shone with divine light, and they used all kinds of spiritual pupils and Dharma eyes, wanting to take a look at the immortal mansion.

Whoosh!

At this time, another bolt of tribulation lightning fell.

There was a loud boom, but the immortal mansion still did not move, which made everyone even more speechless.

“Heavens! It has withstood two lightning bolts, but it still doesn’t move!”

Everyone exclaimed in shock.

“This ... This is too fake!”

In the crowd, Liu heihu’s eyes were wide open in disbelief.

Just now, he was like everyone else. He had thought that this guy would not be able to withstand a few bolts of tribulation lightning before his immortal abode’s sea of Dao would be destroyed and then he would be killed. He had never expected that this guy's immortal abode would be so powerful and unbelievably strong.

"F * ck! Here it comes again!"

When the third bolt of lightning fell, he exclaimed in shock, his mouth even wider.

It still didn't move!

"Damn, this is too fake! The heavens must have gone easy on us!"

Some young geniuses in the crowd cursed angrily.

This was too fake!

This kid was of the same generation as them, so his immortal mansion should be about the same. How could he block three bolts of tribulation lightning in a row and remain unmoved?

It must be the problem with the lightning tribulation! The wretched heavens were biased and had gone easy on this guy!

When they thought about how this fellow's luck was shocking and how he was able to obtain a rare treasure in such a desperate situation, causing his cultivation base to skyrocket, they felt that this was not impossible.

However, the 5th and 6th tribulation Almighties all looked solemn.

They had all experienced this tribulation and could sense that the power of this tribulation lightning was the same as what they had experienced before. There was no such thing as going easy on them.

BOOM! BOOM!

The lightning Vortex surged as the lightning of tribulation struck down, each stronger than the last.

The immortal abode didn't move at all in the first ten or so strikes. Then, it began to tremble slightly and withstood another ten or so strikes.

After every dozen or so, the immortal estate trembled more and more violently. By the time there were fifty or so, the immortal estate was already trembling extremely violently.

"I'm finally dying!"

Upon seeing this, the people who had been shocked to the point of numbness finally heaved a sigh of relief and revealed a hint of joy.

No matter how powerful this kid's immortal mansion was, he still couldn't escape this tribulation!

I'm afraid that if another dozen or so were to come, this immortal mansion would be blown apart.

Once the immortal abode was destroyed, the sea of the path would naturally disperse as well. This guy would become a cripple and then be destroyed in both body and spirit by the lightning of tribulation.

BOOM!

With a few more Thunderbolts, the immortal mansion shook even more violently. The walls cracked and showed signs of collapsing.

Seeing this, everyone's hearts were at ease.

"It's stable!"

"This kid is going to die. We'll take action after the tribulation lightning is gone!"

The Almighty of the various races and the seven tribulations magnates were all eager to make a move.

Previously, they were restricted by the agreement and were unable to personally take action. However, things were different now. This brat had been struck to death by the Tribulation lightning, and it was not part of the agreement. Thus, they naturally had no qualms about taking action.

Many clans even started to form alliances, preparing to seize the treasures together.

However, at this moment, the Holy realm dwellers "mansion, which was supposed to collapse, suddenly shook violently. With a swish, the door of the ancient palace opened, and a monstrous Qi power gushed out.

This aura was extremely ancient, with a trace of ancient and primitive meaning.

"This ... This aura is ..."

All of the mighty figures' expressions changed.

"Guys, look ... What's that?"

When their gazes pierced through the palace door and saw the situation inside, they were all shocked as if they were struck by lightning.

In the ancient Hall, there were many statues, all of which exuded a world-shaking aura.

In the depths of the hall, there was a ball of golden light. The light was so bright that they could not see what was inside. However, they felt uneasy.

It was as if the thing inside was an existence that even they had to be wary of!
