

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1848

“What’s that?”

“I can’t see clearly ...”

All of the mighty figures exclaimed in shock.

What was that golden object in the hall? How could it make them feel a trace of fear?

They were all 5th tribulation, 6th tribulation, and even 7th tribulation experts!

Moreover, this Holy realm dwellers’ mansion was strange enough. How could there be such a thing inside? and those statues were also quite strange. Each of them had a divine appearance, like those ancient gods and devils in the legends.

“I remember now! This is the aura of a God!”

At this time, a mighty figure suddenly revealed a look of realization and shouted.

“The aura of a God? That’s right! I heard that this kid has a piece of God’s spiritual bone in his body!”

“I was wondering why I felt a sense of familiarity!”

The rest of the people heard this and came to a sudden realization.

Then, they were shocked.

They had never heard of a deity’s aura being integrated into an immortal abode before.

“It’s here again!”

The Tribulation lightning in the sky brewed for a moment, then struck down again, bombarding the immortal mansion.

The Holy realm dwellers’ mansion trembled, and the statues inside all lit up, firmly taking the lightning.

“Next!”

“How is this possible?”

Everyone was in disbelief. It was clear that the Holy realm dwellers’ mansion couldn’t hold on any longer. If another Thunderbolt came, it would completely collapse. But now, the Holy realm dwellers’ mansion had firmly withstood it, which was really beyond everyone’s expectations.

“How did this happen?”

“Could it be ... Because of those god statues?”

The mighty figures were all extremely bewildered.

BOOM! BOOM!

The lightning continued to fall and bombard the immortal abode, but they were all firmly blocked.

However, the more it went on, the stronger the power of the Tribulation lightning became, especially when there were more than 70 bolts. The immortal mansion began to collapse again, and the walls cracked and gradually collapsed.

“No! Hahaha! This kid still can’t do it!”

Everyone heaved a sigh of relief.

Looking at the situation, this kid wouldn’t be able to last till the end.

This was normal. If they really taught this kid to successfully cross the Tribulation, where would they, the old seniors, put their faces?

In order to transcend the Tribulation, which one of them hadn’t gone through countless hardships and put in countless efforts? this brat had just reached perfection, and he wanted to transcend the Tribulation so easily? how was that possible?

With a few more Thunderbolts, another part of the immortal mansion was shattered.

By the seventy-eighth bolt of lightning, the cauldron lid of the entire Hall had been completely shattered. Even the pillars had collapsed, leaving only the ruins of the lower hall and the few statues.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

After a moment of preparation, the Seventy-ninth bolt of lightning suddenly fell and struck the immortal abode.

At this moment, the silver statue among the statues in the hall suddenly rose to the sky and met the lightning.

Bang!

The statue exploded, and the lightning of tribulation was also shattered.

“He actually blocked it!”

Everyone was stunned.

When the second and final lightning bolt struck down, it was also blocked by one of the statues. Their expressions began to change, and their hearts began to hang in the air.

Could it be that ... This kid was really going to succeed?

At this moment, everyone raised their heads and looked at the huge Lightning Vortex in the sky.

There, golden lightning rolled. As they ran, they began to transform into golden dragons that let out earth-shaking roars.

This was the last bolt of lightning!

It was also the most powerful one!

As long as he could survive this lightning, that kid would succeed!

Everyone broke out in cold sweat, their hearts filled with apprehension and shock.

Before this, no one would have thought that this kid would be able to reach this stage.

He had just advanced to the perfection stage, yet he was already charging towards the lightning tribulation and even managed to withstand the last bolt of lightning. Even if he failed in the end, this brat's heroic feat was enough to shock the world.

“Swish!”

After a full ten minutes of preparation, the last lightning bolt finally fell.

All the Golden lightning gathered together and turned into a huge pillar of light. It descended from the sky and struck the immortal abode.

“Go!”

“Die!” Tang Hao shouted, and the last remaining statue in the immortal mansion also shot up into the sky.

However, in the face of such a terrifying lightning tribulation, how could a mere statue of a God withstand it? It only blocked it for a moment before it was torn apart. Then, the lightning continued to strike down and hit the immortal mansion.

In an instant, the immortal mansion shook and quickly collapsed.

“It's shattered!”

“This kid is dead for sure!”

Everyone started cheering.

“Get ready to take action and snatch the treasure!”

The mighty figures were even more excited as they gathered their celestial core power and prepared to attack.

However, they were immediately stunned, and the smiles on their faces froze.

The immortal mansion began to collapse from all sides, all the way to the center of the ancient palace. It seemed that the entire ancient palace was about to collapse, but at this moment, everything came to an abrupt end. The lightning dissipated, and the collapse of the palace also stopped.

The remaining ruins were not even one-tenth of the entire Hall, and they were floating in the air all by themselves.

And above it was that ball of golden light.

“Why did you stop? Was this considered a success? Or did you fail?”

Everyone was at a loss, unable to figure out the situation.

“This ... Could this be a coincidence?”

As for the Almighty, they were even more bewildered as they stared at the ball of golden light with bright eyes.

Clearly, the immortal mansion had almost completely collapsed, but it had stopped here. But the strange thing was that they hadn't noticed any strange movements from the ball of golden light just now. It didn't seem like it had caused trouble.

“No matter what, he has succeeded!”

A mighty figure laughed bitterly.

He had never thought that a brat who had just advanced to perfection and was not prepared would successfully pass the fifth calamity.

“I didn't expect this!”

“First, he had a fortuitous encounter, and now, he has successfully passed the Tribulation. This kid ... Is really blessed by the heavens!”

All the mighty figures smiled bitterly.

“He succeeded?”

“It can't be!”

When the people heard their discussion, they were in an uproar. The crowd was in an uproar.

Everyone was in disbelief.

The Tribulation lightning in the sky receded, and the clouds parted. A pillar of light descended from the sky and fell on Tang Hao.

It was the purest immortal Qi between heaven and earth. A part of it poured into Tang Hao's body to transform his physical body and expand his sea of the path, while the other part gushed toward the wreckage of the immortal abode.

"Rise!"

Tang Hao waved his hand, and the immortal Qi gathered together to form bricks, pillars, and pillars. Bit by bit, they re-constructed a temple.

The appearance of the new palace had changed. It was even more vast and majestic.

When the immortal abode was formed, the entire Hall shook and immortal light shone brightly. Countless ancient talismans emerged from the pillars and bricks, spinning around the hall.

Moreover, these things were all flowing with a golden and iron-like color, and had already become physical objects.

This was the materialization of the immortal abode. The entire immortal abode had already turned into a physical object, an existence similar to a tribulation tool.

"This immortal's cave is no ordinary object! It must be a top-grade immortal mansion!"

The crowd of powerful beings watched from afar and were shocked.

They thought that was the end of it, but Tang Hao furrowed his brows and mumbled, "Too bad! It's too bad!"

Hearing this, all of the mighty figures were stunned and almost spat out blood in anger.

F * ck!

In their eyes, this was already a top-notch immortal abode, and this kid still said it was bad?

"This is too much!"

They all thought that this brat was deliberately showing off to provoke them. Thus, they were so angry that their bodies trembled, and they wanted to slap this brat to death.

"It's really bad! It's not big enough, not hard enough!"

Tang Hao furrowed his brows in deep thought.

"Not big enough? Not hard enough? F * ck! It's not like that thing, why the hell does it need to be so big and hard?"

“Wayaya! This kid is definitely doing this on purpose!”

The mighty figures were getting more and more annoyed.

However, at this moment, Tang Hao waved his hand, and the immortal abode began to disintegrate inch by inch.

“This kid ... What is he doing?”

Everyone was stunned.

Tang Hao waved his hand again, and countless beams of light flew up into the sky like raindrops.

“Those ... Those are all tribulation weapons!”

“What does he want to do?”

Everyone focused their eyes and couldn't help but be even more puzzled.

“Why are there more? Didn't this guy drop a lot of them before? why are there more?”

When they saw Tang Hao swing his arm again, more tribulation weapons flew out, and everyone was left speechless.

In a short while, Tang Hao had taken out all the Tribulation weapons he had. From the first tribulation and second tribulation, all the way to the sixth and seventh tribulation, there were at least ten thousand of them. Among them, a few of them had particularly powerful auras, and they were actually eighth tribulation weapons.

“These won't do! The materials are too poor!”

Tang Hao's eyes shone with a divine light. He glanced at it, then waved his hand. Countless beams of light flew out and were pushed to the side.

There were still thousands of them scattered in the air.

“These are good. After refining them, they'll be good materials!”

Tang Hao mumbled to himself. He reached out and grabbed all of the Tribulation weapons. At the same time, a scorching flame gushed out of his palm.

The Tribulation weapons immediately melted under the true fire's heat. The talismans and formations carved on them were also completely wiped away by Tang Hao. After another round of refining, they became pure materials.

Anything that could be refined into a tribulation weapon was a high-grade spiritual material. Moreover, these were all carefully selected by Tang Hao. Many of the divine materials even came from seventh and eighth tribulation weapons.

Tang Hao was going to use these materials to fuse with the pure immortal Qi that had descended from the sky to build his own immortal abode.

A Supreme immortal mansion!
