

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1851

“Hmph! You have an immortal mansion, but do you think I don’t?”

“What gods Palace? you’re quite arrogant, but you’re just a hypocrite!”

The group of demons shouted coldly.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

They released their auras and immortal radiance shot up into the sky, turning into pillars of light that stretched across the sky. Following that, the light of the immortal abode on his body shone brightly. One after another, immortal abodes rose into the sky. They were all different in appearance. There were mountains, palaces, and even stars.

Divine light circulated above each immortal abode, and they were of extraordinary quality.

They were all top-tier geniuses on Pangu continent, with outstanding aptitudes, plenty of opportunities, and the help of their clans. Naturally, the immortal abodes they had built were extraordinary.

“Tang kid, have a taste of my big club!”

Liu heihu shouted. The light of the immortal mansion shot up into the sky, and a giant pillar appeared above his head.

The pillar was a thousand feet tall and was covered in golden light. Countless ancient runes were engraved on it.

“It’s the Liu Clan’s heaven sealing pillar!”

There were a few low exclamations from all directions.

There were many types of immortal mansions in the world, and how they were condensed depended on one’s preference. However, in each clan, they all had their own inheritance, which were all created by their predecessors and passed down.

For example, the sky-sealing pillar was said to be an imitation of the celestial treasure made by the ancestor of the Liu Clan after observing it and gaining some enlightenment. The immortal abode was condensed into this shape, and the descendants also imitated it. Since then, the sky-sealing pillar had become the symbol of the Liu Clan.

All the powerful beings of the 5th tribulation and above in the Liu Clan had condensed this immortal mansion that looked like the sky-sealing pillar.

The treasure was in the shape of a pillar, and after some strengthening and modification, it had become a sharp treasure with unparalleled power. It was very famous on Pangu continent.

“It seems like you’re itching for a beating again!”

Tang Hao glared at him and said coldly.

“You ...” Liu heihu was furious. “Don’t be so arrogant, Tang kid. You were just being chased away by me!”
If I don’t kill you today, I’m not a Liu!”

“Hmph! Don’t waste your breath on him, just kill him!”

Yuchi Xuan snorted coldly. A huge star hung high above her head, like a cold Moon, exuding a bright and clear glow. There was also a bone-piercing chill that seeped out, freezing the void in all directions.

“Today, we’ll end our grudges!”

Tang Hao looked at her and said coldly.

It was time to end the enmity of snatching the bone back then.

“Die, Tang kid!”

With a loud shout, the Yao clan’s genius couldn’t hold back and attacked first.

His immortal abode was a Golden Palace, with Dragons coiling around it and dazzling immortal light.

Under his command, the Golden Palace rose into the sky and pressed down on Tang Hao’s head with a monstrous Dragon’s might.

“This Palace is even more famous than the heaven sealing pillar. It’s even more powerful. Moreover, this man surnamed Yao is much older. He has already advanced to the 5th tribulation and rebuilt his immortal mansion. It’s said that the Yao clan has put in a lot of effort for this immortal mansion.”

“There are more than ten true dragons in this Palace. Although it’s not as good as the hundred Dragons Palace of the old monsters of the Yao clan, it’s definitely better than the gods Palace of that kid.”

“That’s true! I’ve never heard of any gods Palace. I’m afraid that it’s the creation of this kid. How powerful can an immortal mansion without any inheritance be? naturally, it can’t be compared to these immortal mansions that have been passed down by these clans for tens of thousands of years.”

Everyone was discussing in low voices.

The gods Palace sounded very intimidating and had an extraordinary aura, but they didn’t believe it. How powerful was this immortal mansion? it couldn’t be compared to the inheritance immortal mansion of a super big clan like the Yao clan.

“True dragon Palace?”

Tang Hao laughed coldly.

He raised his hand slightly, and the gods Palace above his head shook violently. With a bright celestial light, it shot up into the sky and directly crashed into the true dragon Palace.

More than ten true dragon shadows rushed out of the true dragon Palace and let out earth-shaking roars.

In the gods 'Palace, the God statues buzzed and trembled. Three God spirit phantoms appeared in the sky, displaying their divine might. The winged Dragon, the divine Phoenix, and the Golden-winged great Peng all had phantoms that soared into the sky and pounced towards the dozen true dragon phantoms.

As soon as they met, the dozen true dragon phantoms were strangled to death. Some were pinched and torn apart by the godly spirit phantoms, while others were caught and pecked to death by the giant ROCs.

“How could this be ...”

The Yao clan genius trembled and his face turned pale.

The immortal mansion was a cultivator's life treasure, and any damage to it would hurt the cultivator's body.

His heart was filled with horror, and he couldn't believe that the immortal mansion he had spent so much effort to build was actually inferior to his opponent's immortal mansion.

Then, his expression changed drastically, and he was about to take back the immortal mansion.

However, it was too late. The gods Palace rose into the sky with its Supreme divine might and crashed into his true dragon Palace.

Bang!

A deafening explosion.

In the next moment, under everyone's horrified eyes, the real Dragon Palace actually collapsed and was blown up by the opponent's immortal mansion.

In an instant, the Yao clan monster seemed to have been struck by lightning. With a wuwa sound, he spat out a mouthful of blood. His body became unstable and he fell down.

“Heavens!”

“The immortal abode ... Has been shattered!”

A series of exclamations erupted from all directions.

Everyone was in disbelief.

That was the Yao clan's true dragon Palace, a famous immortal abode. How could it be inferior to that kid's immortal abode?

The true dragon Palace had been completely crushed.

"Hiss! Hiss! Hiss!"

Many people gasped in shock at the power of the gods' Palace.

"What true dragon Hall? it's nothing!"

Tang Hao snorted coldly. He activated his immortal abode and charged at the monster again.

Bang!

With another loud bang, the true dragon Palace was sent flying again. Another part of it was broken, and fragments flew everywhere.

"But they're all good stuff! We can't waste it!"

Tang Hao reached out and grabbed all the fragments, putting them into his pocket.

His expression was cold as he stepped forward, controlling the immortal mansion to crash into it again and again. The immortal mansion of his opponent was constantly destroyed, and the Yao clan monster kept crying out in pain and spitting out blood.

"Enough!"

"Kid, stop when it's appropriate!"

A few cold snorts came from the Yao clan's camp. Some powerful beings reached out and grabbed the immortal mansion and all the people, taking them in.

Tang Hao stopped and looked around coldly.

The group of geniuses' expressions changed slightly, revealing a bit of fear.

The strength of this guy's immortal mansion had completely exceeded their expectations.

"Hmph! What's there to be afraid of? I don't believe that his immortal abode can last long!"

"Let's go together and crush his immortal abode. We'll kill this barbarian from the lower realm completely!"

A demon took the lead and shouted angrily.

They activated their immortal abodes almost at the same time, crashing toward the gods' Palace in the air.

Lights of different colors shot out from these immortal abodes. Some were divine light, while others were phantoms of various strange beasts. Liu heihu had also activated the immortal abode. The huge pillar expanded several times and pressed down on the gods Palace.

Yuchi Xuan raised her hand, and the star above her head also expanded, pressing down.

“Here’s my chance!”

In the crowd, the evildoer of the night race revealed a look of joy.

His cultivation level was only at the 4th tribulation, so he didn’t have a solid celestial cave. However, he was good at void techniques, so the current situation was the perfect time for him to act.

He immediately tore open the void and entered.

“Go!”

Tang Hao was fearless. He shouted and commanded the immortal abode above his head to meet the attack.

This time, he didn’t activate the statue and simply crashed into it.

Bang!

There was a loud bang.

An ancient green Palace was the first to collide with Tang Hao’s immortal abode.

The gods Palace only trembled slightly, but the immortal abode of the opponent shook violently and shattered, shards flying in all directions.
