

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1861

“That Tang kid is so lucky. I heard that he might be the son of destiny. Even if he’s not, he’s close to it!”

“It’s said that the venerable sovereign really is that old demon blood! These few days, there has been news from the great void heaven that has been confirmed!”

In the past few days, the eight desolates had been in an uproar.

Everyone was talking about the incident that happened a few days ago, about that kid surnamed Tang.

In the past, when they talked about that kid, most of them were disdainful. Even the Golden core and nascent soul cultivators dared to mock him. After all, that kid was born in the lower realm. No matter how talented he was, he was just a barbarian in their eyes.

Moreover, that kid had no background at all and even had a precious treasure on him. Being hunted down by everyone in the world, it was obvious that he would die without a doubt, so everyone dared to mock him.

But now, when people talked about that kid, they all had a look of fear on their faces. No one dared to mock him anymore.

Behind him stood eight 7th tribulation experts and even the legendary great killing God. With such a terrifying background, who would dare to provoke him!

Those who could touch that kid now were probably only those super large clans or those super forces above.

“Speaking of which, what’s up with those seven tribulations? Old demon Xue protected that brat because they were both from the lower realm, but why would they protect him?”

“I’m not sure about that. I heard that many people went to the Ling clan to ask but they also said that they didn’t know why their ancestor wanted to protect that kid.”

The first few 7th tribulation tribulations that stood out to protect that kid were also the focus of everyone’s discussion.

Many people also went to inquire, but they found nothing.

“I heard that the Tang Clan is so regretful that they’re almost crying!”

“Hey! Eight seven tribulations and one venerable sovereign, I would cry too!”

When it came to the Tang Clan, everyone was gloating.

After a few months, the waves caused by the incident slowly calmed down.

There weren't many people who were willing to look for that brat. Now that that brat had such a terrifying background, in the eyes of most of the clans, he had become an existence that could not be provoked.

Moreover, demon Xue had once said that he might be bullying the weak, so he could only fight those of the same generation as him. But now, there were few of his generation in the entire eight desolates that could be his match.

In the previous pursuit, the Jiang clan's geniuses, the night clan's geniuses, and a group of top geniuses had all attacked at the same time, but they could not do anything to that kid.

It was too difficult to deal with that kid!

Most of the clans had given up on this idea, even if they had any deep grudges, they could only put it aside for now.

"That kid ... Is long gone! He's probably hiding and consolidating his cultivation!"

"A few days ago, there seemed to be news from the desolate Dragon that he had appeared in a dangerous place. However, I didn't see it clearly at that time, so I don't know if it was him!"

There were also quite a few people who were paying attention to that kid's whereabouts.

Occasionally, there would be news saying that she had seen him somewhere, but she didn't know if it was true.

And these places were mostly dangerous.

After that, he completely disappeared.

No one knew where the kid had gone.

And at this moment, another piece of news came in. It was said that someone from above had spread the word to search for the whereabouts of that brat. It seemed like he was from the great void heaven.

This piece of news caused another wave of commotion.

However, the people of the world did not find it strange. Back then, it was the great void heaven that led the pursuit of that old demon Xue. Now that old demon Xue had appeared, the great void heaven would definitely take action.

The great void heaven seeking fellow must be trying to find that old demon Xue.

"As one of the 33 heavens, the great void heaven has extraordinary strength. The great void heaven Lord was already an Emperor thousands of years ago and is one of the Giants of the world. However, now that that old demon has become an Emperor, his strength is no longer what it was before. It is still difficult for the great void heaven to deal with him!"

“Yup! That kid ... He’s not easy to move!”

If it was in the past, when the great void heaven released news that they were looking for someone, all the races in the world would definitely move and fight to find him.

But now, there were very few people responding.

After all, no one wanted to mess with a venerable sovereign!

Moreover, he was a venerable sovereign who had killed countless people.

After a period of time, there was no more news about this news, and the storm gradually subsided.

The eight desolates finally regained its peace.

On this day, somewhere in the eight desolates, in front of a mountain range, a person slowly walked over.

This person had the appearance of a young man. His face was square and he looked a little honest. He wore a simple white robe and dressed very simply.

He stopped in front of the mountain and looked at the vast mountain range in the distance. He muttered,““We’ve finally arrived! The gate of fortune ... Should be in this mountain!”

He stood there for a moment, frowning slightly as he pondered.

“I’ve asked around. Although the gate of fortune has declined, it still has a strong foundation. It’s not weak yet. It’s not appropriate to barge in directly!”

He muttered to himself.

That person was Tang Hao.

Ever since he had successfully escaped, he had been running madly and found a safe place to recuperate in peace for a period of time. He had consolidated the realm that he had just broken through and also nourished the gods Palace.

After that, he began to travel around. According to the memories of old man black sky, he searched everywhere, but most of his efforts were in vain. Occasionally, he would gain something, and his cultivation level would increase by a lot.

The gate of fortune in this mountain was his next target.

“The creation Dao element!”

Tang Hao mumbled to himself. His face was full of yearning.

Tang Hao had heard of this orthodoxy a long time ago. It was one of the oldest and most illustrious orthodoxies. It was on the same level as Empress WA and Kunwu.

His creation divine body and creation divine elixir were all inextricably linked to this orthodoxy.

However, in the two migrations, this creation orthodoxy seemed to have declined and was inferior to Emperor Yan and Kunwu. Thus, it did not become one of the 33 heavens.

However, according to old man black sky's memories, this creation orthodoxy wasn't weak in the ancient times either. It produced many experts and its might shook the vast lands and the 33 heavens.

But now, this orthodoxy had undoubtedly weakened. It was once comparable to the 33 heavens, but now, it could not even be compared to the weakest clan. Its strength was average among the various sects.

Not many people even knew of the name 'gate of fortune'.

In this desolate land, the gate of fortune was just an ordinary power that was unknown.

If it were not for old man black sky's memories, Tang Hao would not have thought of the gate of fortune and come to this place.

In the gate of fortune, there was a treasure that the old man was coveting. It was called the divine boat of fortune.

It was said that this item was a Supreme treasure of the creation orthodoxy and had the power to steal the creation of the heavens and earth. It possessed terrifying power.

Tang Hao had come for this treasure.

He wanted to find out where the divine boat was.

At the same time, he also wanted to observe the inheritance of this creation Dao element.

Even if it was a lot more desolate, it still had a strong foundation. It must still have some ancient scriptures or secret techniques, which were worth his special trip.
