

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 1863

“This is the agar grass!”

“This is the green sand fruit ...”

The three of them were all eager to show off in front of elder floating cloud so that they could enter the creation sect.

Tang Hao’s brows furrowed slightly when he saw them.

This test was too simple!

He only needed to sweep his eyes over these hundred plants to clearly identify their species, their medicinal properties, and what pill they could be used in.

Back in the lower realm, he had already become a saint in the Dao of alchemy, and had even concocted divine pills of creation. After coming to Pangu continent, he entered the medicine God mountain and absorbed its heritage, which further improved his attainments in the Dao of alchemy.

With his current cultivation realm, there were few on Pangu continent who could surpass him.

Such a small test naturally could not stump him.

He wasn’t in a hurry, so he didn’t fight with the three people. He waited for them to identify the simple plants before he opened his mouth and identified the rest of the plants one by one, explaining their medicinal properties in detail.

“What?”

Elder floating cloud didn’t think much of it at first, but the more he heard, the more surprised he became.

“Not bad! Not bad! You even know this ...”

He complimented Tang Hao repeatedly, and his eyes glowed as he looked at Tang Hao.

Out of the 100 plants he had given, half of them were simple, and the other half were difficult. It would not be easy to recognize them.

The young man spoke in a relaxed manner. It was obvious that he was quite accomplished in this area.

Tang Hao only stopped after he identified about forty of them.

This number was just right. If he recognized all of them, he was afraid it would arouse suspicion.

“What’s wrong? You ... Don’t recognize these?”

Daoist priest floating clouds was startled. He pointed at the remaining plants and said,

“Please forgive this junior for being lacking in talent and knowledge!”

Tang Hao bowed and apologized.

Daoist priest floating clouds was a little disappointed.

“That’s true!” But very quickly, he felt relieved.

This wasn’t the recruitment of official disciples, and these few weren’t top geniuses either. It was already not easy for them to identify so many types.

“No harm! No harm!” He waved his hand and said with a smile, “since you can recognize so many of them, you are obviously quite accomplished and talented in this field. With your talent, if you join my gate of fortune, you’ll have a good chance of becoming a full-time member.”

Hearing this, the other three people all revealed envious expressions.

Shopkeeper Wang, who was standing to the side, was also somewhat happy and surprised. He had not expected that this little brother would have such ability to make the Fortune sect’s fifth tribulation elder look at him in a new light.

“How is it? Are you willing to join the gate of fortune?”

Daoist priest floating clouds looked at Tang Hao and asked with a smile.

“Junior is willing!”

Tang Hao bowed, revealing a hint of excitement.

“Good! Good!”

Daoist priest floating clouds stroked his beard and laughed heartily. He was in a very good mood.

“Oh! By the way, what’s your name again?”

“Shi, Chuan!”

Tang Hao said.

He had used many aliases, such as Tang Dali and Tang Ritian, but none of them were suitable for him now. He had also used the name Tang Chuan in the first continent of Qiyuan to establish Shennong Valley. Now, he had changed his surname to Ishikawa.

“Shi ...”

Daoist priest floating clouds was slightly startled.

The surname Shi was not an ordinary surname.

In the eight desolates, the Shi family was famous and was one of the prominent families.

However, this person should not be a member of the Shi clan. He just happened to have the surname Shi. After all, if the Shi clan wanted to enter his gate of fortune, they would not hide it. They would directly send their geniuses to enter his gate of fortune.

“Good! From today onwards, you will be a member of my creation gate. Here, this is the token of a service disciple. Take it first. After you enter the gate, you can go and get your clothes.”

Daoist priest floating clouds took out a token and handed it to Tang Hao.

Tang Hao’s pupils constricted when he took a closer look.

On one side of the token, there was a large “mixed” word engraved. On the other side, there was an emblem in the shape of a boat.

The carving was a little blurry, and he couldn’t see the exact appearance.

“Could this be the divine creation boat?”

Tang Hao thought to himself.

“That should be it. This creation divine boat is a Supreme treasure of the creation orthodoxy. Since the creation gate uses a divine boat as its emblem, it naturally represents the creation divine boat.” Tang Hao pondered.

“Many thanks, elder!”

Then, he put away the token and bowed.

Daoist priest floating clouds laughed. “You’re quite talented. I hope that you’ll work hard in the future and become an official disciple of the creation sect as soon as possible!”

He then looked at the other three.

After considering for a long time, he chose two of them and asked them to stay. He gave each of them a token.

“Shopkeeper Wang, many thanks!”

Daoist priest floating cloud turned around and thanked shopkeeper Wang. Then, he brought three other people with him and headed toward the mountain.

“The gate of fortune has a long history. It is an ancient orthodoxy ...”

On the way, he explained the situation of the gate of fortune to the three of them.

“The gate of fortune has a deep foundation in the Dao of alchemy, the Dao of arrays, and the Dao of weapons. In the ancient times, our Dao of alchemy and the Dao of weapons were unparalleled in the world. Now, many of them have been lost. For example, the legendary divine pill of creation has been lost.”

“The creation divine pill is the pinnacle of our creation orthodoxy’s alchemy Dao. It has the magical effect of seizing the creation of heaven and earth. One pill can reverse the universe. Even if you have a useless body, you can become a creation divine body in an instant.”

“The creation divine body is also the most suitable for cultivating our creation sect’s cultivation technique. Unfortunately, with the loss of the creation divine pill, the creation divine body has also gradually disappeared ...”

Tang Hao’s heart skipped a beat when he heard that.

“The pill recipe that alchemy Saint Gu Xu obtained is the one that was lost in the creation sect! It seems like I’m really fated with the gate of fortune!”

Tang Hao sighed.

“By the way, elder, our creation sect has the creation divine pill in our alchemy Dao. What about the craftsmanship Dao? What’s there?”

A young man beside Tang Hao said.

Tang Hao remembered that his name was Liu Cheng.

“The Dao of crafts!” Daoist priest floating clouds said, “that’s not bad. Since the pill Dao has divine pills, the weapon Dao naturally has divine weapons. You should have seen the token. There’s a boat on it. It was once the Supreme treasure of our creation sect. It was called the creation divine boat.”

“Legend has it that this item has the power to destroy the void and a world. It was famous in ancient times ...”

“It’s a pity! Just like the divine pill, this item has long been lost and its whereabouts are unknown!”

After saying that, Daoist priest floating clouds sighed heavily and looked dejected.

“If it was the divine elixir, the divine boat would still be around. How would our gate of fortune end up in such a state?”

Tang Hao furrowed his brows when he heard that. ‘Lost?’

Could it be that this divine boat was like the divine elixir, lost long ago and left in the lower realm?

Just as he was pondering, he arrived at the gate of fortune.

Daoist priest floating cloud brought the three of them in and landed on a mountain peak. Then, he led the three of them to the medicine Pavilion.
